Crop Damage Rumors Do Not Hold And Wheat Market Turns Weak

May Option at Chicago Loses a Point Under Profit-Taking Sales—Other Exchanges Develop Reactionary Tone.

CHICAGO, March 13.—Heavy selling carried down the price of wheat to-day after reports investigating had declared the damage from Russian fly to be inconsequential. Closing figures showed a decline of 1/4 to 1/2. Other wheat cereals finished also with a loss; corn off 1/4 to 1/2; oats, 1/4 to 1/2. Provisions at the end of the day were the same as Saturday, high to 7/8 below.

One of the big sellers of new crop contracts for wheat was a prominent speculator who had been out of the market for some time. Pressure centred mainly on the July delivery. Fine weathering as well as the denial of crop damage encouraged the bear attack. Furthermore primary arrivals the still short of a year ago, exhibited a total decidedly more than last week. Cash demand was if possible, worked, and the larger seemed to lack nerve for any active attempt to stop short sellers from handling down the market. Early in the day firm cables and a decrease in the U.
S. visible supply afforded a little relief to the bulls, but the effect speedily vanished, and the descent thereafter was rapid.

Closing prices, the steady, were almost the bottom for the session. May ranged from 90c to 91 1/2c, with last sales 91c to 91 1/2c at 90 1/2c.

Leading sellers of corn were the same people who were pumping wheat. Many dealers that covered on Saturday's bul-resold. Inactive came from the absence of foreign demand. May fluctuated between 49 1/2c and 50c, finishing 50c and lower, at 49 1/2c. Cash corn was easy.
Oats suffered in sympathy with other grain. Trading was on a Saturday's bul-than usual of late. May varied from 30 1/2c to 31 1/2c, with latest figures 30 1/2c, a net decline of 1/4c.

Both shorts and long purchased provisions, the effect of the big run in hogs here and west, was only in a small way. When the final gong sounded, pork was 29c to 29 1/2c, with last and this unchanged to 29c decline.

points, with comparisons, were as follows:

European Grain Exchanges.

The Liverpool market closed to-day 1/4d to 1/2d higher than Saturday on buland higher. The Berlin market unchanged on wheat, Berlin 1/2c lower than Saturday, Budapest 1/2c lower.
