

DEPARTMENTS ASK FOR MORE MONEY

Works and Street Cleaning Sections Increase Their Estimates.

NO CAPITAL CHARGES

Even Urgent Improvements Are Left Until After the War.

Works Commissioner R. C. Harris is asking $2,387,958 to run his department during 1918. The charges for maintenance are $1,282,312, as compared with $1,212,312 in 1917.

The estimates of the street cleaning department also show an increase, amounting this year to $919,879, as against $816,908 last year. The actual expenditures during 1917 in this department were $888,827.42.

The summary of the works department estimates is as follows: Maintenance: Roadway section $273,240; Sewer section 126,713; Railway and bridge 58,738; Water works 868,600; Marine section 12,900; Civic railway 326,124; Garage 16,600; Insurance 19,473; Workmen's compensation 5,000; Special items 136,241; War expenditure 221,821; Protection 166,513; Cut to the Minimum.

In addition to the above there are a number of items, totaling $58,440, which are proposed but not authorized.

In his report, Mr. Harris states that the estimates have been cut to the minimum and that the maximum of efficiency cannot be expected from the amounts mentioned. He points out a number of improvements which should be gone on with, but which have not been included because of war-time conditions. They are as follows: Sully crescent fill $60,000; Covering sludge beds at Morley avenue 39,400; Sludge test plant 50,000; Houses to cover water valves at Island 12,710; New meters 50,000; Duplicate high pressure main 108,000; The increase in maintenance charges, says Mr. Harris, is due almost wholly to the necessity of additional coal at the water works plant, owing to the shortage of hydro power; the increased cost of operating the civic railway; and increases of wages. The necessity of purchasing 15 new cars for the civic lines has increased the charges against this item. Thirty teen of the cars are in the process of construction and two are here now. The civic railway figures given above are exclusive of the debt charges amounting to $176,000. The estimated revenue is $300,000.

The increase in the estimates of the street cleaning department is due to the fact that this department was in operation only nine months in 1917, but is working 12 months in the year now. In reality, having regard to this fact, the estimates are about $100,000 below last year's figures.

The street cleaning estimates were drawn up on the assumption that the Sully crescent fill would be proceeded with. If this work does not go on, an additional $50,000 will have to be included for haulage, as the Harbord street dump is not used any more.

The summary of the estimates for this department is as follows: Administration $30,447; Stable and shop 152,909; Street cleaning 322,622; Refuse collection 323,902; Refuse disposal 75,513; Garage 4,615; Weekly gratuities 8,500.

gowns and lingerie. Camilla's Birds are intelligent feathered actors and with The British Gazette complete the bill.

Lewis's Theatre. In the first part of "Wolves of the Rail," the feature film the coming week at Lewis's Yonge Street Theatre and Winter Garden, Wm. S. Hart, is seen as a leader of a gang of bandits, who make railroad-robbing a west a thing of terror. Then, reforming, he becomes a detective, who is aided by the government to track down his former associates. Viola Valie, the beautiful Australian actress, plays opposite him. Headline of the vaudeville will be "Concentration," a spectacular dramatic production presented by a large and capable cast of players. Other features will include Al Wohlman, the popular song composer, offering original and famous songs; Alde Oswald, in "The Woman of It," presenting unique character portrayals; Edward Farrell and playmate in an amusing one-act comedy playlet, "Suspicious of Hubby"; Emily Howard and Verne Sadler, singing melodies of the moment; Gallardo, an artistic modeler, and a new installment of Lewis's universal topic and comedy pictures.

At the Hippodrome. "The Conqueror," William Fox's stirring photodrama featuring William Farnum, will be the headline attraction at the Hippodrome next week. The Mexican marauders of the early '40's and their depredation and repulses by the cavalrymen and Indians under General Sam Houston make one of the most picturesque battle scenes ever filmed. "The Conqueror" will create a sensation in Toronto, coming direct from a long run on Broadway, New York, where it received the unanimous commendation of the metropolitan critics. A vaudeville bill of unusual merit surrounds the feature picture.

"The Social Maids." Coming to the Gayety Theatre next week is that best of Joe Hurlig's high-class offerings, "The Social Maids," headed by George Stone and Eda Filard. Mr. Hurlig has shown his unusual managerial acumen in this year's offering and has even exceeded his own best previous efforts in providing an attraction which is as gorgeous scenically as it is clever in music and comedy.

"Charming Widows." Fun galore has been provided for this season's offering of "Charming Widows," which will be presented at the Star next week. As an extravaganza the production ranks most favorably with the very best ever seen in this city, but it has by far more good points to its credit. Not only has a chain of comedy hits been constructed to hold the grotesque humor in a coherent form, but what may be of greater importance in entertainments of this order are the musical hits, in which this production abounds.

Special Regent Performance. It has been decided by the management of the Regent Theatre to give a special matinee this morning, and no doubt the innovation will prove popular to those who will not be in their places in shop, factory or office. The feature picture is one of the best of the season, with Besmie Barricade as the star, is coming to the Royal Alexandra Theatre, Feb. 12, almost direct from a remarkable run at the Plymouth Theatre in Boston. It is said to be a novelty and distinctly different from the musical shows heretofore seen here.

"Robinson Crusoe" Returns. "Robinson Crusoe," the famous English pantomime, returns to the Grand Opera House week after next, opening Tuesday, Feb. 19.

Feet Frozen, Life Despaired

Doctors Said Operation Was the Only Hope — But This Man Saved His Life and Toes at the Same Time.

Cookstown, Feb. 8.—There has been a great deal of suffering from frost bites on account of the extreme cold this winter. This recalls the case of Mr. Wm. Waiters, who was so severely frozen a few years ago that the doctors despaired of his life unless he would submit to an operation for the amputation of his toes. Here is Mr. Waiters' sworn statement: Sworn statement of Wm. Waiters, Cookstown, Simcoe County, Ont. "On December 24, 1910, I had my feet severely frozen. Gangrene set in and the doctor said I would have to have three toes amputated. There turned black. Some friends told me I would be foolish to have them taken off and the doctor gave me forty-eight hours to live, saying that I was practically committing suicide, and refused any treatment unless I submitted to the operation. I applied Dr. Chase's Ointment persistently and used the Kidney-Liver Pills to carry the poison out of my system. I kept up this treatment for four months and can positively say that they cured me. Except from the loss of the nail from the big toe, my foot is perfectly sound, whereas if I had followed the advice of the doctor I would have become lame for life."

This statement was sworn to before Mr. D. Hopper, Notary Public, on Jan. 1, 1915. Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60c a box, at all dealers or Edmontson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.
