HOW DID ASHALANTAS GATHER THAT TEAM?

Along With Leaside Refused Admission to O.H.A. for Not Conforming With Rules.

The Ashalantas and Leaside Athletic Club had applications for membership in the Ontario Hockey Association before the executive meeting last night in The Telegram building, but neither found approval, and unless some different view is taken by the annual convention today, or by the new executive, neither will be found in the O.H.A. competitions this Ashalantas desired to enter the junior series, and Leaside had both senior and junior teams in contemplation. The executive decided against them on the ground that they came under the regulation excluding commercial or mercantile representative teams from membership in the O.H.A.

In addition, the discussion took in some

Champions Play Dentals Tonight

The interest taken in Kitchener over this S.P.S. Cup game, which ushers in the senior hockey season in Ontario, is evinced by the fact that Manager Charlie Querrie of the Arena last night received a wire from President Ritz of the Kitchener Club asking him to reserve a block of sixty seats for the Kitchener Crowd.

The game starts at 8.30, with Lawson Whitehead and Steve Vair in charge. The teams will line up as follows:

West-End Curling Club Back Into Game in Old-Time Style.

The annual of the Parkdale Curling Club was held last night and the club decided to get back into the game in the old style. For the last few years, Parkdale have been playing at the High Park Club. This season Parkdale will have a rink of their own, but it will be something unusual in the fact that the curling rink will be an open-air one. Parkdale expects to make things hum in the curling game this season. The skips will be elected at the later date. The officers elected last night were: President, Wm. Inglis; vice-president, J. A. Hethrington; secretary, H. Goodings.
