

Merry Xmas to All Followers and Lovers of Manly Sport

SIDELIGHTS OF MUNICIPAL

Alvin L. Gadsby, race for alderman, had almost $3000 in second attempt. He is listed as a member of the Ottawa Odafollows, and that he is in good luck in that he is a member for any man. He is actively interested in the men. In view of the fact that he has not yet been elected, it is quite probable that he has strong method which should give him a good chance in the city council.

Donald C. MacGregor, politics off a time, in fact there is a chance that he might be a member of the role of alderman, but when he is elected, he will be a member of the city council. For many weeks a most familiar face in the city council meetings, so that he must be a member of the city council. He is a member of the city council. He is a member of the city council.

Alex. Robert, who honors. He has a quality that does not say that he might be a thing, but the idea is in the city council.

Brook Sykes—He is listed as a member of the Ottawa Odafollows, and that he is in good luck in that he is a member for any man. He is actively interested in the men. In view of the fact that he has not yet been elected, it is quite probable that he has strong method which should give him a good chance in the city council.

NEW GOALER JOINS ARENAS IN EAST

McCullough to Be Carried—Snow Stops Hockey Players—Gossip.

Christmas Eve and an old-time snowstorm had its effect on the hockey practices last evening. Only a handful of players turned up for the half dozen workouts scheduled. Beaches, Parkdale and Newman Hall combined to make one decent-sized outfit. Workers, a former Beaches League goaler, looked good last night. He is slated for the Parkdale outfit.

McCullough, the down-east goaler, back from the front with military medals, will join Charlie Querris's arena pro in Ottawa on Thursday night. He will be carried as spare for a while.

Ottawa sends the following: The interesting announcement was made at the Ottawa hockey club headquarters last night that inducements were being held out to Horace Merrill, the great hockey veteran of the capital, to join the red, white and blue outfit. Once more, he is said to be seriously considering the matter. It is also intimated that he will be back in the game with Ottawa before many days. Broadbent is due to make his appearance in about a week, it is stated.

This is Christmas Day and the hockey players will confine their activities to back-checking Mr. Turkey, Plum Pudding will get a little body work, and then back to work Thursday.

At a recent meeting of Aura Lee junior house hockey league was formed, with the following captains: Gordon McLaren, Shirley Coote, Warren Smythe and Howard Reid. John McVitie, medical, elected president of the juniors. Each of the teams has elected a "big brother" from the seniors, who will help to build up a strong junior organization that will continue to supply senior members as the years go by.

A Montreal despatch says: George Kennedy, who is back from Toronto, says that he himself was rather surprised at seeing his Canadians win out at the very fall-end of the match there. He also intimates that the responsibility of certain people to cause the general public to believe that there would be no match in Toronto last night, owing to threatened legal measures.

"These things usually act as a boomerang," said Mr. Kennedy, "and are liable to land people in undesirable places."

President Calder of the National Hockey League also announced that other attempts are made to scare away the public from coming matches drastic action will be taken to punish those responsible.

All the argument about where Eddie Schumacher will play this season was settled when Manager Joe Ryan, of the "John Henry" on a blue certificate. With Maxwell in goal, and Defeo, Schumacher, Farlow, Milne, Stratton, Bennett, Stroud, Young and half a dozen more to choose from, it is believed that the boys may hand some of the strong looking senior teams a good lesson in the art of surprise which they handed Jerry Hun the day he first sent over his gate and programmed for the Galois. Schumacher formerly played with St. Patricks and was counted on up to yesterday by George O'Donoghue.

Seventy-four teams were grouped by the executive of the Toronto Beaches Hockey League, and this great outdoor association prepared to have a banner season. The list of teams is made up as follows: Eight senior, five intermediate, 19 junior, 27 juvenile, 15 midweek.

The eastern section of the senior series, or Group 1, will play their games at the arena, while the western section, or Group 2, will play their games at the Ravina rink.

Conveners are requested to have their schedules drafted not later than Dec. 20. The following are the groupings:

Aura Lee's Heroes Who Sleep Over There

They skated, played hockey and kindred games, did those half-hundred heroes, members of the Aura Lee Club, who were willing to fight that you should live, and those fifty whose names are given below are sleeping over there. This merry Christmas and the coming happy New Year will bring heart burnings with pride to those who are mourning the bravest of the brave. Many of them were known on fields outside Aura Lee, unusually clever and skilled in different branches of athletic activities:

LONDON HOCKEY PLAYERS LOOK GOOD AT PRACTICE

London, Dec. 23.—What was easily the most enthusiastic gathering of hockey players was evidenced last night at the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium where 23 intermediate and junior players indulged in one hour's solid conditioning. A majority of the club's executives were also in attendance, and their hearty support of the players is most gratifying to them.

Manager H. H. Ferguson of the intermediate is living up to his promise of aggregation and when the time comes for activities on the ice they will surely give a good account of themselves.

Among the biggest fellows to workout last night were Bud Kelly, the former Peterboro and London star, while Freddie Elliott, who played grand hockey here as a junior, is back in the city. The still in khaki, Lochead, who was a member of the 27th Battalion, stationed at Hamilton last season, is also trying for a position. Chick Sutherland, who is reported to have returned to the city, is back in civilian clothes and working at McClary's. He is in good shape already as a result of having played basketball in the "V" League. The goalies to be tried out are McCullum of Glenora, Ward of Preston, Sutter, formerly with the military team last season, and the Ontario team of Sutherland and Ferguson, formerly with Toronto E. & A., can also be depended upon.

Jack Gross, manager of the Junior team, had the big squad out last night. Several new players turned up. Wainwright, who played in the Ontario league last season, and a big boy will try out, while Boyle of Exeter and Quaitie, also newcomers, are anxious to show their wares. Among the others were: Art Gilles, Aracott, Smith, Logan, one of last year's stars; Bryant, Burgess, McKay, Bettebridge, Quennville, McCallum and May, the latter pair having been developed in the Church League.

OTTAWA HOCKEY CLUB HAS LONG AGREEMENT

A Five-Year Lease for Dey Arena—Players Told Toronto Promoter to Go and Get Ice.

Ottawa, Dec. 24.—Some inside hockey information was divulged yesterday when the preliminary hearing in the suit of Quinn v. Dey, over professional hockey privileges at the Laurier Avenue Arena was made before Mr. John Bishop, master-in-chambers.

The action consists of a suit by Percy J. Quinn, of Toronto, for alleged breach of contract on the part of E. P. Dey, following the drawing up of a thirty-day oral agreement between the two principals at the National Club, Toronto, on Oct. 2, according to Mr. Dey, the agreement expired on Nov. 2. After which he agreed with the Ottawa Hockey Club to provide the latter with exclusive professional hockey privileges at the local arena. It was divulged at the examination yesterday, that the Ottawa Hockey Club has secured a contract for five years on the Laurier Avenue Arena.

Mr. Dey was accompanied by the local arena. It was divulged at the examination yesterday, that the Ottawa Hockey Club has secured a contract for five years on the Laurier Avenue Arena.

Mr. Dey admitted that he had entered into an agreement for an option on the Ottawa Arena, but no terms had been discussed between the two parties. It is declared. About a week after this agreement had been signed, Mr. Dey received an entirely new agreement from Mr. Quinn, it stated and Mr. Dey was requested to sign the new paper. It is understood that the defendant did not do so. Mr. Dey was accompanied by the local arena. It was divulged at the examination yesterday, that the Ottawa Hockey Club has secured a contract for five years on the Laurier Avenue Arena.

Other witnesses were Clint Benedict, the Ottawa goaler, and Eddie Gerard, the popular captain of the Ottawa hockey team. They were on the stand for a few minutes each. The examinations were heard in camera.

Mr. Dey admitted that he had entered into an agreement for an option on the Ottawa Arena, but no terms had been discussed between the two parties. It is declared. About a week after this agreement had been signed, Mr. Dey received an entirely new agreement from Mr. Quinn, it stated and Mr. Dey was requested to sign the new paper. It is understood that the defendant did not do so. Mr. Dey was accompanied by the local arena. It was divulged at the examination yesterday, that the Ottawa Hockey Club has secured a contract for five years on the Laurier Avenue Arena.

It is understood that the Quinn interests wanted the exclusive professional hockey privileges at the Ottawa Arena for a period of five years, but no amount was suggested by Mr. Quinn, it is stated.

When asked whether he had leased the arena to the Ottawa Hockey Club, Mr. Dey declared that subsequent to the alleged expiration of the option with Mr. Quinn he had entered into a contract with the Ottawa Hockey Club, giving the local club the privileges for a term of five years. Mr. Dey is reported to have sworn that his contract with Mr. Quinn was a gentleman's agreement, but that he had expired due time, namely, on or about Nov. 2.

Eddie Gerard, when called to testify, swore that he had never been under contract with the Ottawa Hockey Club last season, but that he was under signed contract for the present season to play with the Senators. Gerard admitted that he had had a conversation with a Toronto promoter at the Chateau Laurier, but that he had made no promises to him. He is reported to have intimated that the promoter would have to show that he had ice which he play games before he would consider the Toronto interest. Clint Benedict, when called, declared that he had received a telegram, but that he had not entered into negotiations regarding his services. Benedict stated that he played under contract last season and was doing the same thing this year.

Interprovincial Basketball League Suggested by Montreal

Montreal, Dec. 24.—At a meeting of representatives from the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association, the Shamrock Amateur Athletic Association, McGill and three branches of the Y.M.C.A., held at the M.A.A. club house it was decided to organize a basketball league. An effort will be made to interest Toronto, Quebec, Ottawa, and Sherbrooke in the league, which with these centres entered, would be known as the Interprovincial Basketball League.

Should the outside cities decide not to affiliate with the league, it will be known as the Montreal League, and will comprise at least six teams, which would furnish a good schedule of games. The delegates in attendance were enthusiastic and there is every indication that there will be a revival in basketball in Montreal during this winter. With the preliminary work well in hand the meeting was adjourned until Friday night, Jan. 3, when the arrangements for the season will be completed and a schedule arranged.
