It appears from the special to The London Daily Mail, describing the Tugela battle, that the Boers occupied a strong entrenched position, combanding the river and reaching back about 800 yards on the further side. The advances were all made under a murderous artillery fire. Several of the regiments crossed the river, but found their position utterly untenable. They were therefore obliged to recross the river.

Gen. French is also up against it. The Boers brought a big gun to bear on his forces near Vaar Kop. The British pleces were too small to reach the enemy, and Gen. French had to withdraw under shell fire, but without losses, to Arundel.

London, Dec. 19 .- (4.30 a.m.) - The War Office has been in communication with Gen. Sir William Lockhart, commander-in-chief in India, with a view of ascertaining what troops can be spared from his forces, and it is understood that, as a result of these inquiries a force will almost immediately

Duke Wants to Go.

The Duke of Connaught visited the War Office yesterday. Since the appointment of Lord Roberts as commander-in-chief in South Africa, the question of rank no longer bars the Duke from going to the front, and as he has a strong desire to go, it is believed that only the Queen's rejuctance stands in the way. It is not unlikely that this wijl be evercome.

Lord Chesham, commanding officer of the Royal Buckinghamshire Yeomanry, has been authorized to organize a force of 3000 yeomanry who will proced to the Cape. The yeomanry forces sent out will be drafted so as to work together with the mounted infantry and mounted milita from Canada and Australia.

It is understood that the volunteers selected will not form a separate corps, but will join their linked battalions of the regular forces in South Africa.

Volunteers Enthusiastic.

Volunteers Enthusiastic.

Volunteers Enthusiastic.

Throughout the country volunteers are responding with the utmost alacrity to the official notice. Lord Lonsdale says he believes the Government will only accept from 20 to 50 men from each yeomanry regiment. It is asserted that many officers of the volunteer regiments are offering to go as troopers if not accepted as others.

Lord Roberts to Be Supreme, The Times says editorially: "Lord Roberts witt have absolutely a tree hand, and may be expected to resume the original plan of campaign abandoned by Gen. Bular under the necessity of relieving Ladysmith."

smith."

According to a despatch from Cape Town, Gen. Sir Charles Warren and his staff have started for De Aar. This seems to indicate the fifth division will be sent to reinforce Lord Methuen, a decision which will meet with general approval, as the opinion is almost everywhere held that it would be useless to waste any more time by frittering away men between the various columns.

Four Pressing Calls.

Four Pressing Calls.

The Morning Post in a rather alarmist article remarks upon the difficulty of deciding such a crucial matter, and says:

"Besides three generals in the field, all of whom need to be reinforced, there is the rebellion in Cape Colony to be considered. This makes four pressing calls on the fifth in the city. At the Canadian Military institute a large number of officers were gathered last night, and the contingent was
