Last Ceremonies Connected With Inauguration of King Edward's Reign Took Place Sunday.

QUEEN SMILED BEHIND AN UMBRELLA

Royal Progress Thru London on Saturday Marked by Two Un- toward Incidents.

London, Oct. 26.—The last ceremonies connected with the inauguration of the reign of King Edward VII occurred today, when the King, accompanied by Queen Alexandra, the Prince of Wales and almost all the members of the royal family, drove to St. Paul's Cathedral and offered up thanks for the recovery of his health.

The weather was rainy, and small crowds marked the royal progress thru the metropolis. At Temple Place the Lord Mayor of London and the corporation met the King and escorted him to the cathedral, where in the nave were gathered several thousand persons, including Premier Balfour, leading members of the nobility, almost all the members of the cabinet and the foreign ambassadors to Great Britain, among whom was Mr. Choate.

The Honorable Artillery Company formed an imposing line, but before the service was over several of the artillerymen had fainted as a result of long standing.

The choir, the chapter and the Bishop of London, the Right Rev. Arthur Rumbold, escorted the King and the Queen to the throne under the rood.

There was a full service of the Holy Communion followed by a sermon from the Bishop of London, who laid special stress upon the fact that this was the second time in His Majesty's life that he had entered St. Paul's to give thanks for his recovery from a dangerous illness. At the conclusion of the service the King and Queen were seated on the throne.

Two untoward incidents.

King Edward and Queen Alexandra made on Saturday the triumphal procession thru London, which was postponed at the time of the coronation owing to the King's illness. The event was marked by two untoward incidents.

A fanatical clergyman was arrested for having a quantity of gunpowder in his possession, with a view to making a demonstration against the erection of a statue to the King at St. George's Church, Southwark.

The second incident was the breaking out of a fire in the royal party's motorcade. The fire, which was caused by a defective lamp, did not cause any serious damage, but it did cause some delay.

FOR THE MASSES.

London, Oct. 26.—To-day's fête was for the benefit of the masses, rather than the disease. For those whose robes could be worn in the Abbey alone, and the privileged spectators of that great pageant, could not be expected to interest themselves in the belated show. Smart society, on the other hand, was disappointed by the lack of the King's landau as the only novel feature. Chelmsford was also disappointed, as he had been expecting to see the King's landau, which was to have been driven by the King himself.

The King's landau was to have been driven by the King himself, but it was not to be. The King's landau was to have been driven by the King himself, but it was not to be. The King's landau was to have been driven by the King himself, but it was not to be.

England Will Have a Big Task to Give Him His Quiet.

London, Oct. 26.—Good news from Swayne's force has caused relief at the anxiety occasioned by the small land disaster, but it is realized that England has a big task before her. The Mad Mullah might have been crushed two or three years ago, but the Foreign Office has been content to regard him as a comparatively unimportant person. Now it will take prolonged operations to overthrow the prophet, who is by no means so mad as he is reputed. However, after the South African experience it will be as all in a day's work and part of the price to be paid for owning the British empire.

SWAYNE NOT PURSUED.

London, Oct. 27.—A despatch to The Daily Mail from Simla, India, reports that Col. Swayne and his forces are continuing their march from Bohote to Berbera, Somaliland, East Africa, and that they are not pursued.

Finally, in the beginning of October, it was reported that the Mullah's forces were scattered, and that the Mad Mullah himself had only a few riflemen left with him. It was then that Col. Swayne declined to take the chance that a decisive engagement would result in the Mullah's capture.

SEUM FOR WHOOPING COUGH.

Brussels Doctor Says He Can Cure the Disease in 10 Days.

London, Oct. 26.—A young Brussels physician, Dr. Lefevre, says he has discovered the serum of whooping cough, which is injected under the skin in the abdominal region. From the experiments which he has conducted, he is confident that the injection appears to be quite harmless.

The first effects are apparent about forty-eight hours after the inoculation. The serum produces an early cessation of the coughing fits and a considerable diminution of the normal discharge of mucus. The injection is made immediately on the manifestation of the usual symptoms, the malady can be cured in eight or ten days. The usual course is from six to eight weeks.

It was split up into 150-ton lots and immediately distributed among the trade.

THE MAN WHO GOT THE FIRST CONSISTENT was Henry Berghorn, a Harlem dealer. He was selected by Dickson & Eddy, sales agent of the Ontario and Western, because they considered him a man who would not overcharge. He respected their confidence by making the retail price $6.50 a ton.
