TORONTO HOME COMERS FESTIVAL JULY 1ST TO 4TH 1903

Word has been received from Winnipeg, Man., that at a meeting of the Toronto Old Boys' Association there the names of fifty excursionists who propose to take in the Home Comers' Festival between July 1 and 4 were handed in.

The horse show prize list will be distributed to-day. Applications can be addressed to the secretary, Mr. Stewart Houston, 182 Victoria-street, Toronto. In honor of the occasion the Harness, Hunter and Saddle Horse Society, under whose auspices the open-air horse show is largely to be held, have adopted a unique and neat pin, which will be supplied to members on request.

A meeting of the Island Amateur Aquatic Association was held at Mr. L. J. Cosgrave's house on the Island on Saturday, when arrangements were made for the carrying out of an extensive program in connection with the Venetian fete and illumination of the Bay that is promised for the evening of July 2.

Special invitations, with program for the festival, are being sent to all out-of-town residents whose names are furnished to the secretary.

The information and accommodation bureau in the Canada Northern Building, 56 East King-street, is in full working order and has become quite a centre of attraction. People having accommodation for visitors are invited to send in their names and addresses.

It having been decided that all local Old Boys' Associations shall take part in the parade on Thursday, July 2, secretaries are requested to put themselves in communication with the secretary of the Home Comers' Festival, in order that arrangements may be made for assembling and the appointment of marshals, etc.

The Mayor's proclamation, requesting citizens to decorate and illuminate during the festival, will be posted this week.

Sunlight Soap is useful in more ways than one. It will demonstrate its wonderful cleansing power in your cleansing operation. 9B

LEARNING THINGS.

We Are All in the Apprentice Class.

When a simple change of diet brings back health and happiness the story is briefly told. A lady of Springfield, Ill., says: "After being afflicted for years with nervousness and heart trouble, I received a shock four years ago that left me in such a condition that my life was despaired of. I could get no relief from doctors, nor from the numberless heart and nerve medicines I tried, because I didn't know that the coffee was daily putting me back more than the doctors could put me ahead.

"Finally, at the request of a friend, I left off coffee and began the use of Postum and against my conviction I gradually improved in health until for the past six or eight months I have been entirely free from nervousness, and those terrible, sinking, weakening spells of heart trouble.

"My troubles all came from the use of coffee which I had drunk from childhood, and yet they disappeared when I quit coffee and took up the use of Postum." Name given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Mich.

Many people marvel at the effects of leaving off coffee and drinking Postum, but there is nothing marvelous about it—only common sense.

Coffee is a destroyer—Postum is a rebuilder. That's the reason.

NEW R.C. CHURCH DEDICATED.

St. Francis' Commences With Congregation of 500.

Before a congregation of over 1000 people, the handsome new Roman Catholic Church of St. Francis, at the corner of Grace and Arthur-streets, was solemnly dedicated on Sunday morning by Archbishop O'Connor, assisted by Vicar-General McCann and a number of other prominent clergy. The new church is an auxiliary of St. Mary's Church, and the priest is Rev. W. McCann, nephew of Vicar-General McCann, who seems to have entered upon his duties with an earnestness and energy that should aid much in the upbuilding of his charge. He is already well liked by his congregation, which numbers about 500, all coming from St. Mary's.

After the usual ceremony of pronouncing the blessing by the Archbishop in the vestibule of the church, followed by a procession around the church and the sprinkling of the four walls with holy water, using as a spray a small branch of cedar, the edifice was formally declared open to worshippers.

On re-entering the church, the clergy took their places in the sanctuary, and the vested choir boys occupied a place in the wings, while a choir, composed of girls from the Sunday School, were in the gallery. The responses were clearly and sweetly sung, and the Archbishop, in his address of congratulation, said that the singing of the young children was just as sweet and beautiful as that of any paid singers, and infinitely more acceptable to the Most High. The Archbishop preached an eloquent sermon from Revelation. Rev. Father O'Donnell sang high mass.

Live Stock Prizes at St. Louis.

St. Louis, June 6.—The contract for the erection of the last of the big exhibition buildings of the Louisiana Purchase Exhibition has been let at a cost of $171,000. It is estimated that there will be 30,000 cattle on the Chicago Market to-day.

Honored Their Dead Heroes Ceremony in Queen's Park

Floral Tributes Placed on Monuments of Sir John Macdonald and Veterans.

Queen's Park was the scene, on Saturday, of two noteworthy events, large numbers assembling to do honor to departed heroes. The monument to Sir John A. Macdonald was decorated by the Young Conservative Association, while the veterans laid handsome floral tributes on the monuments to the Veterans of '66 and '85.

It was the twelfth anniversary of the death of the great Conservative leader, and the Toronto Conservative Club had arranged for the presence of F. D. Monk, M. P.; J. P. Whitney, M.L.A., and other leading Conservative politicians. Sir Mackenzie Bowell wired at the last moment that he could not reach Toronto for the ceremony.

Many handsome tokens were received to be deposited on the monument of the dead chieftain. His co-workers in the House of Commons sent a magnificent wreath of white roses and lilies of the valley, and wreaths were sent by the Albany Club, the different ward associations and the Central Association of Toronto.

Those on the Platform.

On the platform were F D Monk, M P; E F Clarke, M P, and wife, Col J P Whitney, M L A; D'Arcy Hinds, E M Dumas, A H Birmingham, R Geary, S Thompson, H E Johnston, Dr Montague, C C Robinson, Joseph H Bloomer, R Mosgrove, Ald Hubbard, Ald S W Burns, Robert Jones, J E Jenette, A N Tate, John R Mason, John Cuthbert, Herbert Capewell, Canon Sweeney, E J Hearn, Frank Roche, R E Davis, R L Fraser, William Fox, James Reid, M L A; J Wickett, William Munns, R D Fisher, T G Blackstock, A E Kemp, M P; William Douglas, Dr Richardson, J T Murdy, C E Macdonald, W R Brock, M P; T W H Leavitt, J H Todd, M Abrahams, Rev J E Starr, John Canavan, Col N F Paterson, Dr Carmichael, Alexander Muir, Ald John Dunn.

The chair was taken by D'Arcy Hinds, President of the Toronto Young Conservative Association.

The Quebec Leader.

F. D. Monk, M. P., leader of the Conservative party in Quebec, was accorded a warm reception. He had left the active arena of politics to come to Toronto to render homage to the departed statesman. Sir John, he said, was recognized as the greatest of all colonial statesmen of the British empire. If you want to judge of a man's work, you must see what impulse the life of a great man gave to the destiny of his country, and see what a large place he had in the hearts of his countrymen, to judge of the great benefit he had been.

Mr. Monk said there was just as strong a feeling in Quebec Province for the late Sir John as there was in Ontario. He had met Sir John, and the life of the great man had left a magnetic charm which still lived in the hearts of all true Canadians.

If his eventful career were followed, it would be found thruout to contain a policy kind and thoughtful for the welfare of all classes. He had founded a great commonwealth which would live forever under the protection of the British emblem. It was he who had promoted the Canadian emblem of the maple leaf. He had united Upper and Lower Canada into one large province; then not content, had gone on developing and working out the great schemes which he afterwards so successfully carried out, those of the great confederation of the whole of Canada. He was the author and founder of most of the free institutions which we at present enjoy in this great land of ours.

Canada Must Be Independent.

Sir John, he said, had always maintained that Canada should be an independent nation, and not depending upon any foreign country for a living. Then it was as a vision, as a theory only, and his opponents had told him so, but the great man had lived to see the veil lifted and with pride and joy had seen his whole work revealed as a certainty.

He had bound the provinces of Canada closely together and had instituted practices and made laws which had afterwards promoted the patriotic cry: "Canada for Canadians."

In closing, Mr. Monk said, the greatest monument the people of Canada could raise to the memory of the departed patriot was that already constructed in the hearts of the people—a monument of affection and pride.

From Leader Whitney.

Mr. Whitney spoke briefly. He recalled a banquet which he attended in Montreal recently, when Mr. Monk was the guest of the evening. On that occasion, when the name of Sir John Macdonald was mentioned, the diners rose as one man and cheered to the echo. It was an example set by their French-Canadian brethren which Ontario Conservatives would do well to emulate. Where would the people of Canada be, Mr. Whitney asked, if Sir John had not worked for Confederation just at the time he did? There would have been several disjointed and jealous states, all trying to get the best of one another. Now there is one people, irrespective of race, creed, color or nationality. Rightly was Sir John called "Father of Confederation."

Others who spoke were Reginald Geary, vice-president of the Association; Hilliard Birmingham and C. C. Robinson.

Veterans Honor Their Dead.

In another portion of the park there was a second ceremony under the auspices of the Canadian Militia Veterans' Association. The veterans assembled at the Armouries and marched to the park under the command of Col. Buchan and led by the Cadet Band, under Bandmaster Richardson. Following them in order were: Public School Cadets, 60 strong, in command of Col. J. L. Hughes; Collegiate Institute Cadets, under Captains Ziegler and Hagarty, and Lieutenants Fleming, Watson, McLaughlin and Taylor; No. 2 Co., R.C.R., Capt. Burnham; I.O.O.F Trumpet Band; detachment of Royal Grenadiers, Color-Sergt. Eaton; South African Veterans, Capt. Gillies; the '85 Association, 50 strong; Major J. K. Leslie; Industrial School Band; Veterans of '66, 150 strong, Col. Porte; Executive Council Veterans' Association, 30 strong. The route of parade was University, Queen, Yonge, Grosvenor-streets to the park.

The monument to the veterans of '85 was decorated by First Vice-President John Pearson. The Queen Victoria statue was then decorated by the Veterans of '66, and next the monument to the veterans of '66 was decorated by John Jones, president of the association.

Among Those Present.

A temporary platform had been erected in front of the monument to the veterans of '66, and among the prominent men occupying seats were: Col. Ryerson, president; Mayor Urquhart, E. F. Clarke, M.P.; J. P. Whitney, K.C., M.L.A.; Col. James L. Hughes, Major Manley, Col. Farewell and Major Rutledge (Whitby), Col. Stoneman of the 13th (Hamilton), Col. Mason, Col. Shaw (10th Royals, ret.), Major J. K. Leslie, Major World, W. C. Allison (Scarboro Rifles), and Messrs. Jones and Hornibrook of the Executive.

Col. Ryerson, in introducing the first speaker, referred to the recent Imperialistic utterances of Mr. Chamberlain and said closer trade relations with the Mother Country was the only true policy for the future. The Mayor eulogized the services of the veterans, and expressed the belief that Britain united with her colonies could say to the rest of the world, "Hands off."

Col. James L. Hughes touched on the Imperial idea, and paid a compliment to Col. Denison, whom he considered a statesman as well as a patriot.

Mr. Whitney was glad to be present as a veteran, and as a prospective land-owner in New Ontario. He was followed by E. F. Clarke, M.P., who said the Canadian boys went forth to fight the battles of the empire in South Africa with the same spirit that prompted their forefathers. Never before did the love of country burn brighter in the hearts of Canadians.

Social Hour.

After the ceremonies, the Veterans marched to the Richardson House, where a social hour was spent. John Jones was toastmaster, and proposed the toast to the King, which was heartily drunk.

The toast of the Amalgamated Veterans' Association was coupled with the name of Col. Ryerson, who responded in a short speech. Major Manley replied for the '85 Association, with a congratulatory speech and a song, and Capt. Gillies spoke for the South African veterans, whose health was proposed by Major Musson.

Wm. Fahey, past president of the association, outlined a plan whereby the veterans coming to the city during the Home Comers' Festival were to be entertained, the next toast was that of Alexander Muir, the author of "The Maple Leaf," who responded in a fervid, patriotic speech, which was followed by the singing of "The Maple Leaf." The next toast was the Veterans' of '66, which was coupled with the names of Col. Farewell (Whitby), Col. Porte and David Creighton. After suitable replies, the gathering dispersed after the singing of the National Anthem.

The Executive Council have initiated a movement to erect a monument to the heroes that fell in the South African War, and it is expected that, by next year, it will be completed. The members of the Executive also anticipate great results from the combination of the societies, and next year expect that there will be declared a regular Decoration Day, such as now exists in the United States. The turnout on Saturday was very encouraging, and the officers of the association expect to have all the city regiments turn out next year, and so to make the day a memorable one.

Institute Open June 10th.

The Canadian Railway Instruction Institute, corner Yonge and College streets, in the Oddfellow's Building, Toronto, will open its doors June 10 for the purpose of fitting young men and ladies for positions in railway business. This is the only institute of its kind in Canada, and should meet with pronounced success, as they guarantee to furnish well paid positions on the several leading railroads in Canada and the United States immediately on graduating in the capacity of telegraph operators, train despatchers freight and ticket clerks, agents and commercial operators. Write or call on them for particulars. ed-7

WILL OPPOSE APPOINTMENT.

Chairman Dunn Promises Lively Times—Mr. Lobb's Successor.

Ald. Dunn, chairman of the Property Committee, promises to raise some trouble in the Council meeting a week from Monday. He is not at all satisfied with the arrangement the Board of Control made on Friday, when they gave Assessment Commissioner Fleming control of the Cattle Market. Ald. Dunn says Mr. Fleming is not the man for the place, and it is reported that he will "burst the market" if the deal goes thru. He thinks Mr. Fleming has all he can do to look after the Assessment Department.

The most important question in the whole thing is that of salary. If it is proposed to increase the Commissioner's salary, there certainly will be some tall kicking.

Mr. Lobb's Successor.

William Johnston is the candidate to fill the vacancy in the City Law Department, caused by the resignation of A. F. Lobb. Mr. Johnston has had about 12 years' experience as a lawyer.

Generous Citizens.

The Macpherson estate have a way to pay for their locals, which would save a deal of trouble were others to follow the same rule. The estate want a sewer on Chestnut Park-road, and, instead of having the city pass a by-law and extend the payment over a number of years, the estate sent a cheque on Saturday for $2800, to cover the work.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE

Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated publicly in court that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne, that the whole story of the defendant, Freeman, was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to.—Times, July 13, 1864.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet, Dec. 31, 1864.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is prescribed by scores of orthodox practitioners. Of course, it would not be thus singularly popular did it not supply a want and fill a place.—Medical Times, Jan. 12, 1866.
