STAGE IS SET FOR SENIOR FINAL GAME

Riversides and Berlin at the Arena Tonight-Coast League Winds Up-Gossip.

Only a small stock of tickets remain at the Arena for the first game of the senior finals tonight. Berlin practised at the Arena Monday and yesterday and are in top shape for the game with Riversides. The locals will endeavor to pile up a safe lead to carry into the return game at Berlin on Monday and will go at top speed thruout. A big excursion will arrive from Berlin at noon and the rooting will be spirited. The bleacherites and reserved seat ticket-holders will enter at the usual doors, but the "rush" crowd in the main section will line up on Dalhousie street.

The Beaches Hockey League will stage three games at the Arena on Thursday night of this week, as follows:
7.30—St. Simons y. Kew Beach, for the junior championship.
8.30—Dufferins v. Kew Beach, for the intermediate championship. ntermediate championship.
9.20—St. Pauls v. Kew Beach, senior

In view of the statement that Boettger of the Berlin senior O.H.A. finalists was given a tryout by the Toronto pros. last fall, the O.H.A. yesterday asked the Berlin club to look into the matter. The management of the Berlin team state that the whole thing is news to them. The O.H.A. has secured no intimation other than hints in the press that there is any doubt as to Boettger's standing. If Boettger tried for a place on the pros. he cannot, of course, play amateur.

The Pacific Coast Hockey League sea-son closed Monday night at Portland, when All-Stars selected from Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle defeated Portland, the champions, 6 to 3.

Manager E. H. Savage of the Portland Hockey Club, champions of the Pacific Coast Hockey League, who is now arranging for a series of games with the N.H.A. winners for the world's championship, never played hockey in his life. He promoted the ice hippodrome at New Westwinster five years ago, and in that way became mixed up with hockey. He never saw a game before that time. He immediately became an enthusiast, and studied the game, managing with success the New Westminster team. Business interests kept him from managing Portland last year.

WANDERERS HERE SATURDAY.

Should Torontos defeat Wanderers here Saturday night it will make their eighth straight victory at the Arena. The local club has only two more home games. Wanderers this Saturday and Canadiens the next.

GAME AT GODERICH.

GODERICH, March 7.—Despite the mild weather of today the ice on the local rink was fairly keen tonight and in a fast exhibition game B Company, 71st Battalion of Stratford, won over the local iroquois by a score of 4 to 3. John Wilsering referred Wiggins refereed.

FRANKIE FLEMING WON.

NEW YORK, March 7.—Frankie Fleming gave Frankie White of Phila-delphia a bad beating at the National Club in a ten-round bout. Fleming beat White in every round, Fleming using a White in every round, Fieming using a straight left and right cross which had White on the run. The fourth round was a bad round for White. A right and left hook had him nearly out, only the bell saving him. Fleming boxes Joe oney at the Fairmount on March 11.

MONTHLY MEETING OF TRAFALGAR DAUGHTERS

regular monthly meeting at the Heliconian Club room yesterday afternoon, the president, Mrs. G. D. Atkinson, in the chair. A feature of the gathering was the address given by Mrs. Home Cameron on "Russia," dealing with the social, educational and religious life of that great nation. Among those who contributed to the program were: Miss Joy Denton and Miss Jessie Allan. The hostesses were Mrs. L. V. Wray, Mrs. Allan Keith, Miss Nellie Jefferies and Miss Ruby Aikenhead.

Joe Wright Pleased With Work at U.P. In Return the Men Like Their Coach

Altho unwilling to commit himself to any great extent upon the actual prospects of winning the intercollegiate regatta, "because," as he put it. "I am a new man in college rowing and it is hardly square for me to be making prophecies at this early date, when most of the men are still new to me," of rowing he was glad to talk. Of course rowing has been not only a hobby but actually a part of Mr. Wright's life since boyhood. Altho strictly an avocation—he has always been and still is an amateur modern "Viking" smiled. "Why, yes," he drawled, "Tve done all manner of weight-throwing. played baseball, and even run one-quarter of a mile; but that was, of course, many years ago. In fact, my last running race, one-quarter of a mile in 53 seconds, was 45 years ago."

Wright's record in the shot-put was 39 feet—not a point-winning distance in the track championships of today, but it was quite a creditable performance a generation ago. The hammer thrown was from a standing position, as contrasted with the allowance of a swinging start now, hence his figure in this event would not be illuminating. In 1889 Wright, as a young baseball "phenom," pitched on a team from Toronto in a game against Cornell University. At a more recent date he emerged as a football star, playing on the Canadian championship team for eighteen consecutive years, while quite indirectly I learned that a certain Loe Wright, now rowing coach at Penn. ing on the Canadian championship team for eighteen consecutive years, while quite indirectly I learned that a certain Joe Wright, now rowing coach at Penn, won the Canadian amateur heavyweight boxing championship!

As I have said, when the Penn crews were disastrously defeated in the regatta of 1915 and Vivian Nickalls was inopportunely called away, the rowing committee was placed in a difficult position. The problem ahead of the committee was a big one. It had to select one man among countless applicants—one who combined ability as an oarsman, coaching experience, and ingenuity, and one who was a natural leader ity, and one who was a natural leader in the bargain. None of the applicants seemed to be just the man for the position, and the committee therefore sought a man who preferred to stay in the background until he felt that he was needed Here on Leave of Absence. This man was Joseph Wright of Toronto, Canada, coach of the Argonaut Rowing Club, a thorobred sportsman and a man who knows how to produce crews. At this time Mr. Wright was superintendent of the Toronto general postoffice, but it so happened that his eyes had become a source of trouble to him, and he felt that a rest from his work would be beneficial. The result was that, granted a six months' leave of absence, he immediately plunged into his work of building up the sport at Penn which he placed on so firm a basis in Canada. He is under no contract at Penn, for the particular reason that his time is limited to his leave of absence and that he is anxious to maintain his amateur standing. He is "helping out," as he puts it, for his expenses alone. ronto, Canada, coach of the Argonaut to maintain his amateur standing. He is "helping out," as he puts it, for his expenses alone. Above all, Wright loves the sport of rowing ardently, and to him the maintenance of his amateur

LONDON WILL HAVE TEAM THIS SEASON

Will Be Represented in Canadian or Michigan-Canadian League-Gossip.

London is to have a ball team this year. That much is settled; but what league it will be in, who the manager is to be, and a few other incidentals emains for the future to determine. If the Canadian League can be induced to hold out another year it is altogether likely that London will be represented. In the event of the all-Canadian League falling thru this season the prospects are bright for the formation of a Canadian-Michigan League. The American cities likely to be represented are Saginaw, Flint and Bay City. Contract blanks were sent out last month by the owners of the Londons, and altho up to date none of them have been returned signed, a number of the players have intimated their inclination to play there this year. Hartwell, who managed the team last year, is slated to lead the nine again this year if satisfactory arrangements can be made. Bobby Heck, the star twirler of the 1914 team, who was with Erie last year, wants to return, and will likely be on this year's line-up.

The directors are to hold a meeting in a few days, and some definite arrangement will be arrived at. If the Canadian League can be in-

A Waxahatchie despatch says: One must go far away from home to get the news from there. Wherefore Mr. Jennings is wondering somewhat this morning at certain information that he has gained thru perusal of the day's newspapers. The things that he has learned from them have to do with the reputed sales of three of his players to the Beaumont club of the Texas League and the reported purchase for his squad of a former Federal League twirler. Stories from Beaumont, to which Rynerson, a twirler, was sent some time ago, have it that Pitcher Fagan, Infielder Fuller and Catcher Yelle are to be sent to that Texas town. An official announcement was made some time ago that Yelle had been sold to Providence and that there is where he will play. Fuller is still Detroit property, and it would be no surprise should he be left at Beaumont. The Tigers cannot use him this season, and the Texas League berth would be an advance for him.

President John K. Tener's decision to have experts go over the National League baseball parks to correct any flaws in measurements is timely, particularly in the matter of the pitching mound elevation. The pitchers' slab should never be allowed to extend higher than is specified in the rules. A higher altitude is said by players to give the pitcher additional advantages, and to hamper batting is robbing the game of some of its greatest thrills.

certainly won't do the crews much good. White and Hahn were very promising, and Garvin and Scott had already rowed Varsity. They were four of the heaviest and strongest of the squad, and you know what that means."

That the good opinion and confidence of Coach Wright is returned in good measure by the entire student body and alumni goes without saying. In Mr. Wright they see a second Courtney, the Grand Old Man of Cornell rowing, and everybody in and about the university is Club his crews have been rarely defeated by crews produced by the best professional coaches.

There were still a few minutes left before the junior varsity eight was to have its turn on the rowing machines, and I essayed the question as to how he was impressed with Penn and the men of Pennsylvania. Here Mr. Wright waxed enthusiastic. It was evident that he was thoroly impressed with the treatment accorded him and with the response to his efforts. everybody in and about the university is firmly convinced that Penn will at last regain her old position in the rowing

Toronto a Military City ...

The popularity of The Sunday World military views has grown apace, and this week's issue will contain many groups of troops who are training for overseas. Some of those which appear in the Art Section of this week's issue are: No. 1 Platoon, A Company, of the 81st Eatstall talion, with Lieut. White in charge; No. 2 Platoon, A Company, of the 81st Pattalion, with Lieut, Elwell in charge. There is a group of officers and noncommissioned officers of A Company with Major Sampson in command, and Capt. Orr as second in command. There is a fine view of No. 3 Platoon, A Company, of the 81st Battalion, with Lieut. McLaren in charge; also No. 4 Platoon of same company, with Lieut. Brooks in charge. Rather humorous is a view of the sleeping quarters of A Company of the 75th at Exhibition Park, showing the men stowed away in their banks. There is also a group view of Lieut. Mills and E sub-section of the 47th Battery, and Lieut.
