

National Ministry Will Be Formed by General Agreement.

LONDON, June 11 .- The Italian zabinet, headed by Promier Salandra, resigned today. This action of the ministry resulted from the failure of ministry resulted from the failure of the Italian chamber of deputies to pass a vote of confidence in the govern-ment following the presentation of the budget of the ministry of the interior. The vote stood 197 against the cabinet and 156 in favor of it. Altho the situation of the cabinet

Altho the situation of the cabinet since the Austrian advance on May 14 has been somewhat precarlous, no-body expected the sudden contrary vote in the chamber today. The vote caused a great surprise. It is expected that the king will come to Rome from the fighting front. A Rome despatch received here to-day later by wireless telegraphy said the ministerial crisis would soon be ended. All political parties, it is con-tended, favor a national ministry con-taining Baron Sonnino, the minister of foreign affairs and the present military ministers.

Will Get Together. Another despatch from Rome says

All parties agree that the new Italian cabinet must have a retired cabinet must have a national charac-ter. It is suggested that it comprise all the leading statesmen with a view to uniting in the supreme struggle all political opinions except that of the Intransigeant Socialists, about 40 of whom oppose the war as a principle. From all sides a rapid solution of the

ANNOUNCES VICTORY BURGLAR ASSAULTED WOMAN.

BERLIN, June 10, via London,-The French have been driven out of several positions northeast of Verdun in the course of stubborn fighting, the war office announced today. South of Fort Vaux a French field work was stormed and more than 500 prisoners and 22 machine guns were taken.

The success of the Russians has proven one important thing, and fortifications in this theatre of the war were just as strong as are the forti-fications across France and Belgium. In forcing them the Russians used common sense methods. It appears that the same methods mere used common sense methods. It appears that the same methods were used as Kuropatkin used on the Dwina front about two months ago, and previously noted in this summary. He then simply threw a curtain of fire behind the trenches of the enemy and destroyed with shrapnel the barbwire entanglements, about 15 feet across, in front of the trenches. Under cover of the baptism of fire has given them a feel-ing of confidence which will be a fire the Russian troops crept up, and as soon as it ceased rushed forward valuable asset to them when we go in masses and overwhelmed the garrisons of the trenches. A defeat of the Austrians and, conversely, an Italian victory, is claimed in regard to the fighting in the Tyrol, and the Italians have begun a counter-offensive against the enemy, probably with a view to holding him on this front and preventing the transport of reinforcements to the Russian frontier, where they are most needed.

In German East Africa British columns are converging upon the enemy and several strategical points have been occupied, including Bismarcksburg.

A statement placing the total of the German casualty lists to date as under 3,000,000 men, telegraphed from London as compiled by the British war office, does not give this, as the despatch seems to imply, as the British estimate of German casualties. It has been proved that in dead alone, as collected on the battlefield and buried by the allies and as ascertained from other sources, the German casualty lists are short about 19 per cent. They also give only the severely wounded, and they are a long way short in the numbers given as taken prisoners and interned by the allies.
