MEANS LIBERATION OF BRITISH PRISONERS

London, Jan. 18 .- Maxim Letvisoff, Russian Bolshevik representative, conferring here with James O'Grady, British delegate, regarding an exchange of prisoners and interned civilians, is much gratified by the ancil in Paris that trade relations will be opened between the allies and the people of Soviet Russia. He considers the action of the council tantamour to raising the blockade, and says it will have an enormous effect on the economic situation in Russia.

It is expected by the British dele-rate that wounded British prisoners n the hands of the Bolsheviki will be out of Russia next week and that the remainder of the British prisoners will be at liberty in a fortnight. Much depends upon negotiations with the Archangel government, but these are said to be progressing favorably, and ing. skating, ski-ing, snowshoeing it is believed they will be concluded and fishing through the ice are a few
