McGuire Kicked Goal That Beat Bethlehem

New York, April 4.—The champion Bethlehem Steel scccer team, four times national cup holders, were beaten today at Toda's field, Brooklyn, by the Robins Drydock by 1 to 0 in the fifth round of punch in the last round that dropped Wilde on his hands to the floor. The English flyweight champion got $6,000 for this match. Then came Frankies Mason at Toledo and Wilde won in 12 rounds. His guarantee was $11,000.

This gives Wilde an average of almost $8,000 per bout. For meeting Young Zulu Kid in a 10-round no-decision contest he is to get $6,500. Wilde was offered $10,000 for a match by two Detroit boxing promoters, but decided to accept the Windsor offer when he was told that disabled Canadians would get the proceeds after the expenses had been paid.

Young Zulu Kid, who met Wilde in London in 1916, is already working out at the Greater Detroit Athletic Club. He is to make 116 pounds ringside, but will be able to do that easily, as he is a natural 112-pound battler. Wilde is to arrive here tomorrow.
