

and we hope that before another report has to be handed in, the names of all our members will be there.

We have lost several of our most active members this year, owing to removal from the city, but there are still plenty to keep up the meetings, and while we regret that our President will have to be away from us during the next year, we do not want her work here to interfere with her studies, and we are prepared to welcome as our president whoever may be appointed by the Y.W.C.T.U. New bylaws were prepared and adopted which we trust will increase the efficiency of the League and assist in training the members to more business-like methods.

On behalf of the League,

E. LELIA SKINNER, President.

WM. H. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

PURITY IN LITERATURE AND ARTS.

We are pleased to report in regard to the matter of "bill posters," which have been such a disgrace to our city of late, having had an interview with the Mayor in regard to a more diligent supervision of these things. He expressed himself as being fully in sympathy with our committee in their request. He sadly deplored the evil influences of these advertisements on our children especially—and promised to do his best to improve the state of affairs.

We feel there is work waiting to be done for "Our Master" in this department—but that a more elderly person should fill this office.

FAIR WORK.

The tent on Exhibition grounds this season was a new one, very prettily decorated and comfortably seated with chairs and tables, giving it a very inviting appearance. This, with the hearty welcome of the District President and other members to our patrons and friends, helped on very materially the success of the business done. The members of the Unions turned out and did remarkably well, and although when nine and sometimes ten
