

CONSTITUTION
OF THE
St. Andrew's Society
OF THE CITY OF TORONTO AND PROVINCE OF ONTARIO.

ARTICLE I.

The name of this Society shall be the "St. Andrew's Society of the City of Toronto."

ARTICLE II.

Of the Resident Members.

Scotchmen and their descendants shall be admitted as Resident Members of the Society.

When any person is to be proposed for admission as a resident member, the member proposing shall give to the Secretary, prior to the meeting of the Society, a written notification thereof, mentioning the name of the candidate and his occupation, which notification shall be read at the said meeting, and he may forthwith be elected. The consent of three-fourths of the members present shall be necessary to the admission of a candidate. None but resident members shall be entitled to vote in the elections, or other business of the Society, and none shall be considered as resident members until they have paid the fee of admission.

ARTICLE III.

Of the Honorary Members.

Scotchmen who may be strangers to the city may be proposed and elected as honorary members on the same evening, and they, as well as the resident members, shall be entitled to
