STOLE WAGON; BROKE IT UP; SOLD IRON FOR 20 CENTS

A new method of stealing and a novel way of disposing of the stolen property was discovered by the police of Division 5, Boston, after Samuel Kaplan reported that his horse and wagon had disappeared from Albany street.
Kaplan went into a house to do some business and left the outfit in the street in front of the house. When he came out his wagon was gone. His horse had been hitched to a hydrant and the harness was still on the animal.

While wagon junk painted in the colors of the missing wagon. He found Kelly, aged 44, of 282 Dover street in the place.
Kelly told Policeman Kelly that he stole the wagon and took it to a dump where he broke it up with an axe. He took the junk and sold it for twenty cents. He had chopped the wood off the wagon into small pieces which he said he was going to sell for kindling wood to the people of the vicinity.

Kelly was locked up charged with the larceny and destruction of the wagon.
Failing to find the wagon after a long search Kaplan reported his loss to the police. Reserve Officer Jeremiah Kelly, sent out to watch the junkers, soon found a clue. Going inside a shop he saw a

A FAIRVILLE
SOLDIER DIES
FOR HIS KING

Rudolph F. McKiel Dies Of
His Wounds

WAR VERY NEAR TO US

Capt. J. H. Parks Wounded, Also Capt. Paul R. Hanson—Lieut.
C. F. Inches in Major Magee's Battery—Canadian Casualties
Heavy

Private Rudolph F. McKiel, of Fairville, died as a result of injuries received at the front. Although it is not announced in the reports from the militia department, it is believed that he received the injuries at St. Pierre Chapelle.
He died on April 16. At 10.30 yesterday morning his brother, Cecil McKiel, Prospect street, Fairville, received the following telegram from Ottawa: "Deeply regret Private No. 22764 died from wounds April 16. Officially announced."

He was the son of the late Rev. Leon McKiel, who was for years pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Fairville. He was educated in the local schools, and was of a bright and amiable disposition which made for him many friends in Fairville and the city, and he was very popular in his militia battalion. He would have been thirty-two years of age next August. He leaves to mourn, two brothers—Cecil and Medley, both of Fairville, and three sisters: Mrs. Norman Zyckor and Mrs. Andrew Rudolf, of Lunenburg (N. S.), and Miss Cory who is now a Red Cross nurse at the front.

Private McKiel served for eight years in the militia previous to his enlistment in the volunteers. He was first with the 1st Regiment, at Fredericton, and later with the 2nd at St. John. He was the first to enlist with the first contingent here and when his people first learned of it, and asked him, he replied:
"There never was a McKiel yet who refused the call of king and country." His ability is now a Red Cross nurse at the front.

Through generations McKiel's people have been soldiers. There is at present in possession of the family a sword which was presented to McKiel's grandfather by King George IV, for distinguished military services and gallantry.

McKiel was very popular about the city, and his many friends will learn the news with sincere regret. While those bereaved may be afflicted with sorrow, his courage and gallantry, and the knowledge that he gave his life for his country, will give them some consolation.

Captain Parks Wounded.
Captain J. H. Parks, son of Mrs. J. H.
Parks, of Park street, brother of Dr.
Margaret and Miss Louise Parks and Mrs. J. U. Thomas, of this city, has been wounded in an engagement at the front.
His name appears in the casualty list issued yesterday at Ottawa, and the official notice was sent to Mrs. Parks, his mother, here. Captain Parks is well known and has many friends. He has not been a resident of St. John for some time, but about two years ago he spent about six months in the city.

He served in the South African war, but previous to that time he had left here and gone west, and worked at engineering with the C. P. R. at Crow's Nest Pass (B. C.). He took a course of military training at Kingston, and went through the entire Boer War. Following that he remained in Africa for about three years engineering on railroads there. Then he returned to Canada and went back with the C. P. R. at Vancouver. He enlisted at the first of the war with the Highlanders at Vancouver, but he left Canada last fall with the first contingent as a member of the 9th battalion.

Dr. Margaret Parks, who is a sister of Captain Parks, was recently reported to have been on the staff of the Canadian Hospital near Boulogne, where she was in charge of one of the wards. Owing to the field regulations of the British army she was unable to go as a doctor, and she therefore took up the work as a nurse.

Captain Paul R. Hanson, also wounded, was formerly manager of the Dunlop Tyre & Rubber Company, Canterbury street. He volunteered for service at the outbreak of war and was one of the first of the Canadian officers to leave these shores and to be taken to France. His wife's address is given in St. Lambert's, Quebec.

In none of these cases is the nature of the wounds indicated nor indeed is it stated whether they are dangerous or not.

SPRING MEDICINE

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the Great Blood Purifier, is the Best

Spring sickness comes in some degree to every man, woman and child in our climate.

It is that run-down condition of the system that results from impure, impurified, devalued blood.

It is marked by loss of appetite and that tired feeling, and in many cases by some form of eruption.

The best way to treat spring sickness is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. This old reliable family medicine purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood. It is appropriate for all the year-round ailments and tonic, and is absolutely the best Spring medicine.

Get your blood in good condition at once—now. Delay may be dangerous.
Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla, and insist on having it, for nothing else can take its place.

otherwise. No news is forthcoming either of where the fighting took place in which they received the wounds, but it may be assumed that it was in the neighborhood of the now famous Hill 60.
King's Congratulations.

Ottawa, April 25—His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, governor-general of Canada, has received a message from His Majesty King George, expressing his admiration of the gallant stand made by the Canadians at Langemark, and sympathizing with Canadians in the heavy casualties sustained.

Sir John French Pleased.
Ottawa, April 25—Many messages of congratulation have been received in connection with the splendid work of the Canadians.

Col. J. J. Carrick, M.P., on the staff of General Alderson, tonight called the minister of militia.

"Sir John French telegraphed General Alderson today as follows:
"I wish to express to you and Canadian troops my admiration of gallant fight and stand they have made. They have performed most brilliant and valuable service. Last night, and again this morning, I reported their splendid behaviour to the secretary of state for war, and I have a reply from him saying how highly their gallantry and determination in a difficult position are appreciated in England."

Lord Brooke, of General French's staff, called General Hughes Saturday night, and congratulated him on the magnificent behavior of the Canadians.

General Hughes replied: "Sincere thanks for message. Please convey to Sir John and the Canadians the pride and joy of their comrades in Canada for the part they have so nobly played.
The Canadians have the splendid tradition of our great pioneer races."

To a congratulatory cable from Earl Grey, former governor-general of Canada, Premier Borden replied:
"Deeply appreciate your message. Canada is very proud that her sons have upheld so worthily the splendid traditions of our great pioneer races."

General Alderson, commander of the Canadian division, the Premier sent the following:
"Step of the splendid gallantry and efficiency of the division under your command has thrilled all Canada with pride.
Warmest congratulations."

Casualties Very Heavy.
Ottawa, April 25—Over eighty officers of the First Canadian Expeditionary Force are now included in the list of killed and wounded as a result of the struggle at Langemark, and the titanic struggle at Langemark, and there are fears that this number may be enlarged. So far the list of losses among the men has not been called, and it is not expected for several days. This morning the first list among officers came to hand, with one killed and thirty-three wounded. It was hoped that this was the last of the list, but during the afternoon and evening the total steadily mounted.

Letters from Lieut. Cyrus F. Inches, dated April 8, who is with Major F. C.
Magee, gives the officers of the Battery Mess as follows: "The personnel at present being: Major Magee, O.C.; Capt.
Hall, Capt. Reiford, Capt. Chown, (paymaster), Capt. Grignon (ret.), Capt.
Lackay, Lieut. Ryan, Garland, Leach and myself. I should have included the interpreter somewhere in the list."

Capt. Reiford mentioned by Lieut.
Inches is the air-man Capt. Mackay is from P. E. Island and was in Fredericton during the winter.

In a previous letter he wrote that Lieut. Kelly, whom he had not seen for nearly two months, called to see him and was at his mess to dinner. Lieut.
Hayes had also ridden in a few days previously.

ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETY AT ANNUAL SERVICE

St. George's Society for the annual church parade to Trinity church last evening had one of the largest attendances on record. The members of the society marched from their rooms with the junior members leading and they lined up at the entrance to form an aisle up which the seniors passed. Frank A. Kinner was the marshal in charge. At Trinity a bright service was conducted with the singing of special hymns, including Uprise Ye Christian People Who Hear St. George Today, Unfold the Empire's Standard and Oh, Faith of England. Taught of Old. The banner was during the sermon placed in the nave at the foot of the pulpit.

The sermon was preached by Rev. L.
Ralph Sherman, curate of Trinity. Taking Hebrews 12, part of the first verse as the text, Mr. Sherman preached on the lessons of the patron saint's life in the light of the present crisis.

After the singing of the national anthem the procession returned outside the church and marched back to the rooms where resolutions were passed thanking the churchwardens, the preacher and the choir for their assistance to the society; and to Walter Golding for the use of the Imperial Theatre for the social, while a resolution of sympathy and regret was passed to Alexander Macdonald, president of St. Andrew's Society, in the recent death of his son.

THE RED CROSS.
To the Editor of The Times: Sir—The local Red Cross Society, in planning for steady co-operation with the coming summer months, hereby puts in the hands of all its members and many workers in circles, clubs and associations the following extract from correspondence with headquarters at Toronto:

"The Red Cross is bound by its charter under international law to deal only with sick and wounded men. Everything for the Red Cross Society goes direct and with free transportation to Colonel Hodggets, our Canadian Red Cross commissioner in London, England.
He takes from the supplies all that are needed for sick and wounded soldiers and turns over all that he does not need for this purpose to the Canadian War Contingent Association under Sir George H. Preley. In this way Colonel Hodggets has already transferred over 66,000 pounds of all kinds which have gone to the fighting soldiers, including those of course, who are fighting in the trenches. The connection of the Red Cross Society with Sir George Preley's association is simply this: that the Red Cross Society having warehouses and organized and being desirous of helping the men at the front in every way has permitted field comforts to go through its warehouses at Toronto and Halifax, whence they are shipped to Sir George Preley of the Canadian War Contingent Association for use among the fighting men. Hence the Red Cross is simply a channel for help to all those, whether its own branches or other societies, who will comply with the regulations and so avail themselves of its help."

President of the Local Branch
Red Cross Society,
St. John, April 24.
