BOND'S

PANAMA HATS

We contracted last year for our Panama Hat bodies for this season in large quantities, said bodies to be blocked to our order at any time during the season of 1915.

The low price we are selling real Panama Hats at is causing a lot of surprise and wonder.

For the benefit of these enquiries, we tell how we sell them at such low prices.

TWO ST. JOHN MEN WHO HAVE GIVEN LIVES FOR RIGHT

News of Death of Joseph Briggs Confirmed; Also Ellsworth Reid—Geo. W. Boone Wounded

A letter to Miss Ollie Livingstone, 69 Murray street, from her cousin, Private Fred Rolston, of No. 2 Company, Princess Patricia's, confirms the news, published in the Times some days ago, that Joseph Briggs, brother of Policeman George Briggs, had been killed in action. He writes that he saw Briggs shot down, but could do nothing for him, though along side of him. "He died a brave hero."

In another letter Private Rolston describes those terrible days of recent fighting as "a real hell." Telling of one day, he says: "Shelling started at five o'clock in the morning and lasted till dark. It was a slaughter house, a sight I never will forget as long as I live. I was in the thick of it with my company. Only about fifty of us came out all right, but it will not be long before we are back again to give the Germans some more cold lead. I think we made every bullet count that day. Every man did his best. It is a hard sight to see your comrades shot and shelled to death. You care for nothing; I know I did not."

Private Rolston has been at the front for four months.

Geo. Boone Wounded

A telegram received today by Mrs. Westley Boone, 417 Haymarket Square, brought the sad news that her son, Private George W. Boone, had been wounded in France, while fighting with the 17th Battalion, to which he had been transferred from the 12th. He is about twenty-three years of age, and was well known about the city. He had been employed with R. J. Currie, harness-maker, Waterloo street, and was popular in Y. M. C. A. circles. He left St. John last fall in the infantry company from here, for the 12th Battalion. The last letter received from him a few days ago said that he had been through some heavy fighting but had escaped without injury. Besides his parents, the young soldier has two brothers and seven sisters at home.

SELF-DENIAL DAY RESULTS PROMISE TO BE EXCELLENT

Boxes Collected Today and Sum Gathered For Belgians Will be Known Tomorrow

Self-denial day for the benefit of the Belgians was a pronounced success in the city yesterday. The ladies of the several chapters of the Daughters of the Empire are very much pleased with the satisfactory results obtained, and expect that the returns will be most gratifying. The total received will not be known until tomorrow, as the work of collecting the boxes from business houses, club rooms, dwellings, hotels and other centres where they were placed, will occupy most of today. The ladies are particularly grateful to the citizens who aided with automobiles, and other ways, in the success of the arrangements. The boxes were being emptied today as soon as they were returned to the headquarters in the rooms of the Patriotic Fund committee in Prince William street, and the proceeds will be counted by members of the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia. Among the donations received yesterday were several checks for fairly large amounts, including one for $85 from Thomas Bell and another for the same amount from G. H. Waterbury.

A large staff of members of the Daughters of the Empire assisted in the carrying on of yesterday's plans, and the organization effected was most productive. The ward conveners were: Mesdames E. A. Smith, R. G. Wallace, Fred. Peters, Daniel Mullin, G. B. Allen, Alex. Wilson, Wm. McKean, D. B. Pidgeon, J. Pope Barnes, F. S. White, J. E. Moore, A. P. Crockett, W. E. Foster, Miss Frances Travers and Miss Maude McLean. Mrs. James Walker and Mrs. Appleby had charge of the Fairbairn work and Mrs. E. G. Armstrong of what was done in Rothesay.

MORE ABOUT I. C. R. AND POLICE IN COURT

The case against Constable Roberts of the I. C. R. depot, charged with interfering with Detective Worrell while the latter was in the execution of his duty in the depot on May 19 and 20, was continued in the police court this morning. John Lawlor, Joseph McHugh, Frank Curran and Conductor Charles Clark testified for the defense. The defendant arose and, addressing Detective Worrell, said: "You may be from Scotland yard, but I am from Grand Lake. I am simply the depot constable and will not be interfered with by any city official. I am going to fight this thing to the bitter end and I have lots of backing in the city to do so."

The second charge against the defendant was taken up. Detective Worrell said he visited the depot on important business, while in the discharge of his duties was interfered with by the defendant. Special Patrolman Barrett corroborated the statements.

The defendant denied the charge and said he had made his remarks general when he ordered the cows out of the lavatory, and told them there was too much loading going on there. He said he had gone there because he had been told that two detectives had entered the place. He said he wanted to see what was going on there.

Magistrate Ritchie said there was no desire to punish anyone and regretted that the incident had occurred. There should be a better understanding between the officials and, he said, the hatchet should be buried. He was of the opinion that when a detective was appointed Mr. Ross should be notified so that he in turn could inform his men and thus they would be able to work in harmony.

PROVINCIAL APPOINTMENTS

John C. Wall of Sheffield, Sunbury county, has been appointed a provincial constable and Frank J. Wilson of Westmorland county, has been made a justice of the peace.

THE ST. JOHN CADETS

The cadet corps of the city are to be inspected on June 15. It is expected that the High School cadets will have their new uniforms in time for the inspection.
