"A GOOD PLACE TO BUY GOOD CLOTHES" Last Week of the Summer Sale

This week closes the Mark-Down Sale of Suits, Trousers and Raincoats—a sale which has proven exceptionally successful, both from our own and our customers' standpoints.
The substantial reductions made by us—20 per cent to 40 per cent—represent a real and large saving to the fortunate buyer. And even though these savings represent to us lost profits, we are glad to see the clothing change ownership. It is a sale at these figures will more firmly cement the bonds of confidence between us and our valued customers.
They will know more certainly (as YOU may know if you wish) that it is really apart of the Gilmour policy and practice to extend its patrons every possible opportunity for economical buying.
This week, while they last, we offer the rest of that good line of Summer Suits—every one worthy.
Trousers, Raincoats, also.
Twenty per cent. reductions and more—some as much as 40 per cent.

EVERY DAY CLUB HEARS MR. ROBINSON IN FORCEFUL ADDRESS

Religion as the basis of the right living was the subject of a strikingly forcible address, which was marked by very plain speaking, by Rev. W. R. Robinson at the Every Day Club last evening. Mr. Robinson distinguished between religion and theology pointing out that the former was of the heart and the latter of the head and that a man might be so concerned about problems of theology that he would fill to be religious, which consists in giving good to those in need. High ideals and great issues must be associated with life at its best, and every man has the power to assert his manhood and rise step step toward the higher life. Mr. Robinson vigorously denounced the ministers who are reported to have approved of the fashionable gambling at the Narragansett Club.
Referring to the saloons in St. John, he said they existed because the people did not take their duty seriously enough, and his declaration that they should all be closed was greeted with applause. Mr.
Robinson said that the Every Day Club had greatly advanced the general movement for a better solution of the boy problem, and he told of the concerted action which he believes will soon be taken by the governments of the maritime provinces and Newfoundland. He counselled the club members not to be discouraged by any apparent failures in their efforts to reclaim men who are down. He insisted that people should look deeply into the causes that produce bad social conditions and make it a personal matter to set a right example, and also extend a helping hand to the victims of evil conditions.

Baptist Women's Mission Work

The annual convention of the Women's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will be held at Yarmouth on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The St.
John delegates to the convention are:
Mrs. J. S. Smith, Mrs. Thomas Robinson and Mrs. Kerr, from Waterloo street church; Mrs. E. L. Rising, Mrs. W. E. McIntyre, Mrs. D. McLean and Mrs. Vaughan, from Germain street church; Mrs. Heutsa and Mrs. Coonan, from Leinster street church; Miss Payton, from Brussels street church; Mrs. D.
Hutchinson and Mrs. R. C. Elin, from Main street church; Mrs. A. C. Smith and Miss C. Fullerton, from Charlotte street (west) church; and Mrs. J. Richards, Mrs. Strunge and Mrs. O'Neill from the Ladlow street church.

The North End fire department was called out yesterday morning for a blaze in Charles Clark's coal shed at the foot of Portland street. Little damage was done.
As the fire started up again there was a still alarm later.

PROF. WIGGINS; NATIVE OF QUEENS CO., IS DEAD

Ottawa, Aug. 14.—Prof. E. Stone Wiggins, of Ottawa, known as a weather predictor, died here tonight, aged 71. He was a clerk in the finance department. The body will be sent to Queens Co. (N. B.) for burial.
Ezekiel Stone Wiggins was born in Queens county, New Brunswick, Dec. 4, 1839. He was the son of Daniel S. Wiggins and Elizabeth Titus Stone and was a direct descendant of Capt. Thomas Wiggins, of Devonshire, England, who was sent out by the Lords Sayre and Brook in 1630 as governor of one of the Massachusetts colonies. Prof. Wiggins was of U. E. Loyalist descent by both his parents. He was educated at the Oakwood grammar school, afterwards graduating from Albert University, Bellefleur, B. N. in 1870 and M. A. in 1872. Previous to his graduation he was local superintendent of schools in Prince Edward county.
After taking a course in medicine and graduating M. D. from the University of Medicine and Surgery, Philadelphia, he was for some years head master of the high school at Ingersoll (Ont.). He was the first president of the institute for the blind at Brantford, holding the office from 1871 to 1874. In the latter year he established a boys' college in St. John. In the dominion general election of 1878 he was an unsuccessful candidate for Queens county and was shortly afterwards appointed clerk in the finance department at Ottawa. Prof. Wiggins published a number of books, among the number being The Architecture of the Heavens, The Days of the Creation, and two English grammars for the use of dominion high schools. Prof. Wiggins, however, owed his chief fame to his predictions of storms, many of which were said to have come true. Among others he is said to have predicted the celebrated Sackville gale. In 1892 Prof. Wiggins married Susan Anna, daughter of Captain V. W. Wiggins, who has quite a reputation as a polemical writer.

Monclon's Rapid Growth

(Moncton Transcript.) Moncton is growing. Many families have moved here within a few months—from the United States, Nova Scotia and Quebec, start altogether from the Campbellton representation. During the past nine years Moncton has increased about 33 per cent. in population and possibly forty per cent.
The school census, which will not be completed until nearly two weeks hence, already exceeds the census of 1901, and justifies a feeling of pride in the city's growth.

When he returned home on Saturday, the new supreme grand master of the Knights of Pythias, Hon. G. M. Hanson, of Calais was given a rousing reception by his fellow citizens.

Fashion Hints for Times Readers

BRAIDED NET IS COMBINED WITH LINGERIE FABRICS
Some of the lingerie frocks, worn at the French races this summer have been so elaborate and so picturesque in character that an ordinary lundering would be incapable of doing justice to them. A costume designed by one of the great houses on the Rue de la Paix, is illustrated here.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON
IN the little town of Clifton Hill, Australia,—you see this is a far away story, but none the less I assure you a true one—lives a woman who has a history of suffering, such that if it were chronicled in the pages of fiction rather than in the book of life, we should call it "impossible." Forty years ago this woman had erysipelas in her right arm and was obliged to have it amputated to the socket.
No sooner had she lost her right arm than she had learned to write with her left hand, but before long that hand also was attacked and had to be taken off at the elbow. She learned to use the stump, and then mortification set in and that arm also was amputated to the socket.
She has now one leg and no arms.
Six years ago she lost her voice.
That she does NOT it is what counts.
Please suspend your judgment a little.
"That creature," even since the last of his misfortunes —the loss of her voice—bellefleur, has written a book, "Cloud and Sunshine." This book has run through three editions in her country.
And not only that, but she has helped to support herself by acting as secretary for a busy doctor.
How? Oh, by an ingenious arrangement of a pen fixed in the right arm socket and controlled by part of a compass, which lends it the curves needed for the formation of written letters.
But "how" is not the point.
That's comparatively unimportant.
That she does NOT it is what counts.
That's why I have been telling you this story.
Despite the gruesomeness of its details, I think it ought to be printed in every newspaper and periodical in the land.
After reading it do you feel that you have any right ever to plead any handicap of disposition or physique or circumstance that you may chance to labor under?
After reading it do you feel that you have any right ever to say "I can't"?
In the United States Senate today there is a man who has been blind since he was eleven years old.
Nor is he merely one of the rank and file of senators. He is a leader.
The other day I read his name in a list of names in a magazine as big enough to fill the presidential chair.
Nor did he have the help of riches to put him where he is. He was a very poor boy.
I think every school boy and girl in the land ought to be taught about Senator Gore, even if some historical fact be crowded out to make room for this living one.
In the light of lives like this, how do we—no, the vast majority, who have our eyes and our health and the full use of all our powers—how do we dare blame anyone or anything but ourselves for failure?
I wonder.

Daily Hints for the Cook

FRIED BANANAS.
Peel and slice the bananas, sprinkle with salt and fry a light brown in butter.
Serve hot.
MOCK CITRON.
Get a nice golden pumpkin and halve it. Take out seeds, pare it and weigh it. To every pound of pumpkin add 12 pounds of sugar. Cut pumpkin in small cubes, or thin slices. Put in preserving kettle a layer of cubes, then sugar and two lemons cut up in thin slices. Be sure and take all seeds out of lemons, as they will make it taste bitter. Add a little ginger root. Let it remain from two to three days, well covered. Now add 1 pint of hot water to 3 pounds of sugar used. Roll all until tender. Fill your jars and make sure all is air tight. This is a nice and cheap preserve.
COFFEE TAPIOCA.
Two cups of coffee, 1/2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons tapioca (which has soaked over night in cold water). When this boils in 1 tablespoon cornstarch wet with a little cold water. Flavor with vanilla and turn into molds. Nice with whipped cream.

THE HAZEN STYLE OF BRIDGE

One Instance of the Poor, and Even Dangerous, Condition of the Highways—Little Attention Paid to Frequent and Bitter Complaints—Government's Failure to Give Province Good Roads

(Daily Telegraph)

Photograph showing the bridge near Grand Bay station on the road to Westfield, where sticks were recently stuck up in the holes at either end of the bridge, in order to warn drivers of vehicles, and even pedestrians, of the danger.
The roads in certain parts of St. John, Kings and Queens counties have been very bad all summer and complaint has been frequent and bitter. The road beyond the bridge here pictured is a notorious instance of the Hazen government's failure to give the province decent or even reasonably safe roads.
Several cases have been brought to the

ROUSING WELCOME TO

PREMIER IN CALGARY

Calgary, Alta., Aug. 13.—"Some people are so busy shouting imperialism that they forget their duty to their own country.
They are so busy waving the flag that they neglect their obligations at home as true Canadians. The best way to strengthen the empire is to look diligently after the part committed to our care."

Addressing the Canadian Club at noon luncheon Hon. Mr. Graham emphasized the obligations and opportunities of Canadians. The mission of Sir Wilfrid's tour was to unite eastern and western Canada, to inspire one great citizenship, consecrated to the work of nation-building within the empire.

While the premier rested last night and this morning the citizens did honor to his colleagues. At the Northwest Mounted Police barracks the old residents of Leeds, Granville and Dundas surprised Mr. Graham with an illuminated address and the presentation of a gold-headed cane.

President Egbert, of the Liberal Association, was chairman at the midnight night meeting, more than 10,000 being present. Premier Sifton assured the visitors that they would find Alberta people "are not hide-bound party politicians like you have in the east but ambitious and optimistic young Canadians intent on improving their over condition and that of the country, who don't intend to quit till every quarter section of their province is settled with industrious farmers." He referred to Mr. Oliver as the minister of population and Mr. Graham as the minister of transportation—two things needed.

As Premier Sifton concluded, Sir Wilfrid leaned over and approvingly tapped him on the shoulder. The responsive audience applauded the by-play and broke into renewed cheering.

Hon. Mr. Oliver dealt with the development as shown in his department. In the last two years and four months, 12,000 homesteads and 7,000 pre-emptions had been taken in the province and 800,000 more acres put under cultivation.

Sir Wilfrid, who was greeted by an oration, made a direct appeal to the citizens for a united Canadian people with high national and imperial ideals. He said from England had some sense of extension of preference as to whether Canada could assimilate the great foreign element coming in. The best answer was found in the Pittsburg current and will be succeeded by the motherland in time of stress against any aggressor.

"The enemy of the motherland is the common enemy of all her daughters," declared Sir Wilfrid, and cheering.

Rev. Joseph N. Gibbs preached his farewell sermon last night in St. Phillips church. He has been transferred to the Pittsburg circuit and will be succeeded here by Rev. Mr. Pearson, of Halifax.

DON'T BE BALD

Nearly Anyone May Secure a Splendid Growth of Hair

I have a remedy that has a record of growing hair and curing baldness in 90 out of every 100 cases where used according to directions for a reasonable length of time. That may seem like a strong statement—it is, and I mean it to be, and no one should doubt its efficacy if they have put my claims to a test.
I am so certain Reall "30" Hair Tonic will cure baldness, prevent thinness, stimulate the scalp and give new hair, that I personally give my position as a doctor to refute every person who dares to say it does not satisfy to the user.
Reall "30" Hair Tonic is as pleasant to use as clear spring water. It is deliciously perfumed, and does not grease or dirt the hair. Two sizes 50c. and $1.00.
With my guarantee back of it, you certainly take no risk. Sold only at my stores The Rexall Store.
Chas. R. Watson, 100 King street.

Reflections of a Bachelor

(From the New York Press.) The oyster is wise. It never opens its mouth until forced.
A man with a sunny disposition seldom has a hot temper.
Probably the most popular illustrated paper is the bank note.
After giving us a lift the elevator man is ready to run us down.
A woman can't help admiring a man if he tells her she is good looking.
Flattery will open a woman's heart much quicker than it will a man's purse.
Better a man who fails in his efforts to do something than one who never tries.
The strongest belief a conceited man has is that he isn't.
Such a ring it is said tells its own story at a glance and prevents conversations or questions that might prove embarrassing.
