DROWNED WHILE RESCUING WOMAN

Captain A. W. Howard Loses Life in Kennebecasis River Endeavoring to Save Mrs. Archie Wilnot.

Captain Alfred W. Howard of Brooklyn, New York, a native of West St. John, was drowned yesterday afternoon at Renforth while attempting to rescue Mrs. Archie Wilnot of Boston from drowning. Mrs. Wilnot is a sister of Mrs. Norman Gregory of this city. It appears that she ventured beyond her depth and called for help, and Captain Howard went to her, but was unable to get her to shore because of her struggles. He went under and did not come up, and half an hour elapsed before the body was recovered with the aid of grappling irons. Dr. O. R. Peters of Rothesay, corner, viewed the body and gave permission for its removal. He said there would be no inquest, as it was clearly a case of accidental drowning. Mrs. Wilnot was rescued and taken into a boat by Gray Barnham. George Stackhouse was in the water at the time, having entered with Captain Howard and Mrs. Wilnot. Edmund Howard of 184 Summering in the Oak Mountains, Missouri, and one other brother, Dr. Oliver Howard of Arlington, W. Virginia. It is probable the funeral will be held on Saturday.

Captain Howard's wife formerly was Miss Emma Deacon, of Benton, Carleton county. On July 7 last, she received

THE MASTER'S VOICE

GIRL CIRCLING GLOBE ALONE.

Fourteen-Year-Old Miss From Russia Sails for Germany.

New York, Aug. 11.—One of the juvenile cabin passengers who sailed for Germany on the steamship Reliance of the United American Lines was Helen Krawgoff, fourteen-year-old daughter of Serge Krawgoff, on her way from Japan to a girls' boarding school at Bonn on the Rhine. She made the journey of 10,000 miles from Yokohama to New York alone.

The girl's mother died two years ago in the Far East after the family's escape from Russia into Siberia. Her father arrived in New York from Siberia two weeks ago, and was at the pier to see her away.

He said that the bandits around Vladivostok had killed 100,000 children during the last two years, and were said to have kidnapped another 50,000 from families all over Eastern Siberia. His eleven-year-old son Nicolai is at school in Germany, Mr. Krawgoff said, and he expects to join them later.
