It Should Require No Argument

to convince people that a good article costs more than a poor one, and as Heintzman & Co. make the very best piano, they cannot compete with many others on a mere question of price.

Whoever purchases a poor piano merely because it seems to be cheap does so with a mortifying sense of distrust in his bargain.

LOCAL NEWS

BYE-LAW VIOLATION: Patrick Mooney was fined $2 today for not having a light on a pile of stone on the South Side of King Square.

GONE HUNTING: Frederick Campbell and Charles and Otis Clarke of the St. John street railway employ, left yesterday for a shooting trip in the woods in Queens county.

THE BATTLE LINE: S.S. "Pantodon," Captain Wright, for Santa Fe, sailed from Martello yesterday.

OTTAWA ENGINEER: P. Valliquette, of the Dominion Department of Public Works, arrived in the city today on business connected with harbor contracts, now being performed for the government.

MOUNT PLEASANT LOT: Taylor & Sweeney today completed the sale of a building lot on Mount Pleasant, part of the Robert Reid estate, and adjoining Mrs. J. P. C. Burpee's property, to a local man who intends to build. The lot is 140 by 100 feet and it is understood that the price approached four figures.

WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB: The executive of the Women's Canadian Club met last night to make arrangements for the annual meeting in Keith's Assembly room on Friday night. Reports for the year will be read and the election of officers will also be held. There is no admittance fee to the annual meeting and a large attendance is expected.

BIG CARGO OF APPLES: The steamer Rappahannock of the Furness Line, sailed from Halifax Monday evening for London with $3,000 barrels of apples. This cargo of fruit constitutes a record for this season, being 10,000 above the amount taken recently on the Shenandoah. Another Furness boat, the Sagamore, is expected at Halifax within a week. She will call en route to Liverpool to load apples.

CHOSEN DELEGATES: At the meeting of Branch 134 C. M. B. A. last evening representatives were chosen to attend the meeting to be held next Tuesday in St. Malachi's Hall at which the matter of a farewell remembrance to His Grace Archbishop Coyle from the Catholic societies will be considered. The representatives chosen were R. J. Walsh, grand deputy, George McSherry and Joseph Harrington.

HARE AND HOUNDS: One of the attractions for Thanksgiving Day will be a hare and hound chase which is to be held at ten o'clock and a general course has been mapped out through Fair Vale and Queenswood. The distance to be covered will be about twelve miles. It is expected that a large number of Rothsey and other runners will participate, more than twenty-five entries have been received so far. The entries will close with H. Bathurst at Rothsey on Friday night.

HOPE NOT LONG BEFORE WHEELS WILL BE GOING BUT THEY WILL START

"We have not started the wheels going yet but they will start and we hope it will not be long before they will be rolling," says W. Burton Stewart, general manager of Norton Griffiths & Company, Ltd., when asked about the progress being made in connection with the proposed iron and steel works which are to be established at Carleton Place. Mr. Stewart is making another flying trip to the city and will leave again tomorrow evening.

A STURDY WALKER AT 85

Although she has reached the age of eighty-five years, Miss Martha Wilson, of the Narrows, Queens county, does not believe in taking a back seat with many when it comes to being numbered among the exponents of Edward Paysonmet's theory of walking. She came to the city this week on a visit to relatives in Indiantown and Carleton, and has spent the time most pleasantly here. She is getting from place to place rather than riding in the street cars, and it was this which led her yesterday to perform a feat of walking which seems remarkable, considering her advanced years. She started from Duke street in Carleton, and walked to the ferry boats. After crossing to the east side she walked to a store in Charlotte street, and from there to the depot, and from there again to King street and to the ferry, and thence back to the ferry and to Duke street, Carleton. And she did not seem to mind the walk at that.

IN THE POLICE COURT

The case against Moses Ramsey, charged with supplying liquor to William Goldsworthy, an interdict, was continued in the police court this morning. Charles O'Neil, a bartender, told of having sold a bottle of gin to Ramsey on the day in question. Ramsey denied having purchased the gin, and told the court that he had not given any liquor to Goldsworthy. The latter was not in court, although he had been summoned, and the matter was allowed to stand in order that he may be brought to court.

Two prisoners charged with drunkenness were fined $8 or thirty days in jail, and one other got off with a fine of $2 or five days in jail. One deposit of $8 was forfeited to the court.

Harry McAndrews and James Matkin, reported for fighting together, pleaded not guilty, but on the evidence submitted each was fined $20 or two months in jail. The fine of $20 imposed on H. McAndrew was paid.

HAS RESIGNED

Miss E. McAllister Smith who for the last year has been in charge of the tuberculosis dispensary, and who held a seat on the board of health nurses, has resigned her position owing to ill-health. She was to have resigned at the end of the year but she felt that she must retire sooner. During her term of office she has rendered capable service and she will be greatly missed from her post. It is probable that she will take a western trip for her health. Up to the present no one has been appointed as her successor.

WEDDINGS OF INTEREST IN CITY TODAY

St. Stephen's Presbyterian church, beautifully decorated for the occasion with palms and white chrysanthemums, was the scene of one of the most interesting weddings of the season this afternoon at five o'clock. The event was the marriage of John Edward Sayre, son of F. E. Sayre, to Miss Jean Gertrude, second daughter of Mrs. and late Hon. Arthur I. Trueman. Owing to the recent bereavement in the family, Rev. Gordon Dickie performed the ceremony. Miss Wilson acted as organist and the choir assisting with the musical portion of the service.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, J. MacMillan Trueman, was attended. She wore a traveling suit of black and white woolport and black velvet hat trimmed with white wings, and wore a dainty corsage bouquet. John C. Belyea acted as groomsmen, and S. Allan Thomas and Douglas McLeod were the ushers. After the ceremony Miss Jean Sayre left on the Boston express for New York. On their return, a fortnight later, the bride will reside at 120 King street east. Both of the young people have been among the most popular members of the young set, and the good wishes of a very wide circle of friends were accompanied by a great number of beautiful wedding presents.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Church of the Assumption in West End yesterday afternoon, when Rev. J. J. O'Donovan united in marriage Miss Annie F. Coyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Coyle of Water street, West End, and Patrick Driscoll of Musquash. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Alice Coyle, and was becomingly attired in a costume of cream serge, with cream satin trimmings, and a black and white plash hat. The bridegroom wore a brown serge costume and a white beaver hat trimmed with egret. The groom's best man was by his brother. Only the immediate friends and relatives were present at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll will reside in Bodley street, West End. Both the bride and groom received many handsome presents, among those to the bride being a chafing dish from the members of Assumption Dramatic Club, of which she was a member.

An interesting nuptial event was solemnized this morning at 10 o'clock in the Cathedral, when Rev. A. W. Meahan, D. D., united in marriage Wm. J. MacNeill, of Black River, and Miss Ellen A. Owens, daughter of Thomas Owens of Lakewood. Her brother, Daniel J., gave the bride away, and was assisted by Miss Catherine Slincy as bridesmaid. John York acted as groomsmen. The bride was nicely attired in a costume of blue and white, and wore a black beaver hat. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridegroom wore a grey suit and a black picture hat. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John Macoy, 38 Elmwood street, and Mr. and Mrs. MacNeill left on a honeymoon trip to Boston and neighboring cities. They were handsomely remembered by a large circle of friends with a pleasing and useful assortment of gifts, including a substantial check from the bride's brother, Daniel J. Owens. On their return Mr. and Mrs. MacNeill will take up their residence at Black River.

In Holy Trinity church this afternoon at three o'clock a pretty nuptial event was solemnized when Miss Agnes Gertrude fifth daughter of Thomas Sullivan was married by her father, to Francis Clement Fitzgerald, one of the sons of Wm. J. Fitzgerald of Carleton. Many friends gathered in the church to witness the ceremony which was performed by Rev. J. J. Walsh. Afterwards a dainty luncheon was served at the home of the bride in Sourin street. Miss Sullivan was nicely attired in a costume of blue serge with black palm velvet hat trimmed with ostrich plumes. She carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The groom was attended by his brother, Vincent Fitzgerald. Among those present at the wedding were Mrs. Charles deMont and her sister, Miss Lucille Reilly of Newport, R. I., and Richard Fitzgerald of Yarmouth, brother of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald will leave this evening on a honeymoon trip to Upper Canadian cities, and on their return will reside in West St. John. The bride's traveling gown is of homespun outing with corset hat. Many pleasing remembrances were received from numerous friends with whom both the bride and groom are very popular.

A quiet wedding took place last evening at 8:30 at the parsonage, Victoria street, when Frederick L. McAllister, of St. John, and Miss Alice Mand Phillips, of Cole's Island, Queens county, were united in marriage by Rev. H. H. Nobles. They were attended by Frank A. Wood and Miss Euphemia Jeffreys, both of this city. After a honeymoon trip through Maine, Mr. and Mrs. McAllister will reside at Gagetown.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of David Adams, Tower street West End, this afternoon at three o'clock, when his daughter, Miss Maxine Adams was united in marriage to H. Peters. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. E. Thomas. The home was very prettily decorated for the occasion.

MANY GLAD TO SEE HIM

John P. Gordon, formerly of this city, but now of Charlottetown, P.E.I., is in the city today visiting old friends, after attending the Maritime Baptist convention in Moncton. It has been nine years since Mr. Gordon visited St. John, and naturally he sees quite an improvement in the place. He is a son of Rev. Dr. J. A. Gordon, formerly of the city, but now of Montreal, and is a member of the firm of Moore & McLeod, dry goods merchants in Charlottetown. He has many friends in the city who are welcoming him back to St. John after his years of prosperity on the island. Mr. Gordon will leave for home tomorrow.
