SEPTEMBER WEDDINGS

The Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception was the scene of a very pretty wedding at half past five o'clock this morning when Rev. A. W. McLean united in marriage Miss Margaret M. Cusack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cusack of this city, and Thomas M. Cogger, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cogger, also of this city. The ceremony was performed with a nuptial-mass, at which a large number of friends and relatives of the bride and groom were present. The bride was becomingly attired in a dark blue tailor-made traveling suit with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of cream roses. Miss Phyllis Cusack, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a gray tailor-made suit and a white beaver hat. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was supported by Frank Griffin.

After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's parents, 33 Marsh Road, where a wedding breakfast was served. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion. At seven o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Cogger left on the Boston express for a trip to Boston and New York. On their return they will reside at Haymarket Square.

Both the bride and groom received many handsome presents. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and chain, and the bride's gift to the groom was a gold monogram stickpin. Among out of town guests present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Carvell of Chatham.

A wedding of much interest took place this morning at the home of Mrs. John Kelley, Burpee Avenue, when her youngest daughter, Miss Mina Kelley, became the wife of A. G. McMullin, who is a member of the city chamberlain's staff. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wilfrid Gault, pastor of Queen Square Methodist Church.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, J. Kelley, E. C., was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of blue and a pretty Parisian hat.

The large dining room was prettily decorated for the wedding with flowers and palms. The dining room, in which the wedding breakfast was served, was aglow with a wealth of bloom.

Both the bride and groom are very popular and were remembered with many handsome presents.

Mr. and Mrs. McMullin left on the morning express for Boston and New York and will visit other American cities before their return. They will reside at 141 Bridge Street.

Mundee, of St. John West, but now of Bridgeport, N. S. Rev. W. J. Macdonald of Lorneville officiated. The bride wore a handsome dress of ivory satin with pearl trimmings and carried a bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by her sister, Miss Rhoda, who wore a handsome dress of silk voile and carried a posy. The groom was supported by Bayard Wilson, cousin of the bride. After a fairly wedding supper, Mr. and Mrs. Mundee left for Bridgeport where they will make their home. They received many valuable presents, including checks, silver and cut glass, showing the esteem in which they are held by many friends.

Conway-Hennessy.

A wedding of interest to many friends in Millford was celebrated last evening in St. Rose's church by Rev. Chas. Collins, when he joined in marriage Thomas J. Conway and Miss Hannah Hennessy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hennessy of Millford. They were attended by James Dawson as groomsmen and Miss Elizabeth Smith as bridesmaid. The wedding was witnessed by only close relatives and friends of the principals. Afterwards a reception was held at the bride's home and luncheon served. Mr. and Mrs. Conway enjoy the best wishes of many friends. They received many pleasing tokens of esteem as remembrances of the happy event. They will make their home in Millford.

In order to bring out the full advantages of linen and correct its drawbacks when used as underwear, such as chilliness, lack of elasticity and durability, another select vegetable fibre—Abassi or Mase—is added to the linen yarn in the making of the thread. The composition of the yarn is the result of more than ten years of investigation and practical experience, and as the thread is made expressly for these garments, no other kind can be produced exactly like the Dr. Deimel Underwear. Sizes 32 to 48, per garment $3.00.
