EVIDENCE OF HATTIE

LOBLANC DECLARED TO

BE VERY STRIKING

Direct accusations against another from the burden of Hattie Loblanc's evidence given with great secrecy before John Kerr, commissioner for the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, in the Royal Hotel here Saturday, and express in some measure the far-reaching effects which the reading of her deposition in the hearing of the Glover will case may have. On Saturday Samuel D. Elmore, counsel for the respondent in the case, asked about 320 questions bearing, it is said, on the murder, and after a re-direct examination by Hon. E. P. Barry, counsel for the appellants, the hearing was concluded about 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Saturday, the girl is understood to have made direct accusations in connection with the murder case. The lawyers appearing in the interests of the appellants appear to be delighted with the matter recorded in the deposition and L. F. Smith, the Boston criminal investigator and relative of the Glovers, said that the whole purpose of the will case was to bring the slayer of Clarence Glover to justice.

On the other hand after the hearing was concluded Mr. Elmore said that he would give anything on earth to have Hattie Loblanc tell her story before the jury who will decide the will case, and Melvin W. Johnson, Hattie's counsel, was considering an offer of Mr. Elmore's to take the whole party at his expense. Mr. Elmore has until he can get it rich.

CONFESSES HER SHAME TO SAVE MAN'S LIFE

Sensational Turn Given in Trial of Doctor for Murder of His Wife

St. Louis, Mo., April 24.—The St. Louis Star publishes the action of the Illinois supreme court, which refused Wednesday to grant him a new trial on the charge of having murdered his wife the night of May 30, 1899. Dr. Haldane Clemenson admitted to a Star correspondent in Chicago that he had deliberately shielded proof of his innocence and committed perjury in his trials in order to protect the name of Mrs. Anna Schmidt of St. Louis.

Mrs. Schmidt, wife of James Schmidt, a saloon keeper, of 3701 North Broadway, St. Louis, admitted to Star reporter she was with Dr. Clemenson practically all the time the night the murder was committed, and that she knew him to be absolutely innocent. She was with him from 8 o'clock in the morning until 4 o'clock in the morning. We were in his office together, and we have proof of it. If the crime was committed at or near midnight, as the police say, Dr. Clemenson is entirely innocent.

"I am willing to go to Chicago, and repeat my statement before any judge or jury. I would have declared myself long ago, but Dr. Clemenson forbade it, saying he could get out of the trouble without dragging my name into it. Since all his efforts have failed and the supreme court refused to give him a new trial, I have persuaded him to let me tell everything, and prove his innocence.

When asked why she gave her name as Anna Schmidt, while Dr. Clemenson referred to her as Anita, Mrs. Schmidt said her name is Anna, but that she chose Anita because it was more euphonious. She said she was generally known in Chicago as Anna. Mrs. Schmidt's statement was the greatest sensation of the trial, and created the greatest interest. There is now a hope that Clemenson may be freed. Affidavits have been obtained from eight witnesses "and will be presented" to the supreme court in an effort to have the case reopened.

The woman's testimony, if not shaken, will establish Dr. Clemenson's innocence, and set him free. At the same time it will give the Chicago police another mystery to unravel. Mrs. Schmidt left for Chicago. Her husband furnished her with all the funds necessary for her journey. He said that while he was highly incensed with Clemenson, he did not think he should die for a murder he did not commit. "I will do anything the court at Chicago may order me to do in order to obtain his freedom," Mrs. Schmidt said. "I have all the proof necessary and will place myself absolutely in the hands of Dr. Clemenson's lawyers to use me as they will.

AN EVENING WITH HYMNS

The services in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church yesterday were very interesting. In the morning the pastor, Rev. David Lang, preached a sermon appropriate to St. George's Day and in the evening a special song service was held. A number of familiar hymns were sung and the pastor told the story of the life of the writers. Among the hymns were: "My Faith Looks Up to Thee, Rock of Ages, Abide with Me, Eternal Father Strong to Save, and Lead Kindly Light.

After telling the story of each of these hymns, the pastor delivered an address from 1st Corinthians, 14:15: "I will sing with the spirit and I will sing with understanding." He spoke of hymns as a means of expressing sentiment, as an aid to the spiritual life and as a sacrifice of praise. There were large congregations at both services.

MORNING LOCALS

A successful temperance meeting was held Saturday night in the Seamen's Institute under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. Rev. William Lawson gave a fine address to the sailors. The Sunday evening services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Campbell.

Two accidents occurred on Saturday and yesterday to men working on the C. P. R. steamer Montezuma at Sand Point. Walter Keefe, of Clarence street, sprained his ankle, and after falling off a staging on which he was working, into the harbor, contracted pneumonia, and is now in a precarious condition in the hospital. Stephen McDonald, of Sheriff street had his foot and ankle crushed when a heavy case of goods fell upon him.

Prof. Leacock, of McGill University, will address the Women's Canadian Club on Friday next. Rev. Mr. Johnson, of Dipper Harbor, gave an interesting address last night before the members of Granite Rock Division, S. of T. E. S. Hennigar presided and Miss Mullin acted as organist. Percy Hatfield sustained a fractured leg yesterday in Main street in a fall from his bicycle. He was taken to the hospital for treatment.

While a train on the Louisville & Nashville railroad was crossing the trestle between Drakeboro and Elk Valley, Tenn., the fireman saw a bird-dog on the trestle in front of the train. It was too far for the dog to get to the end of the trestle before the train overtook it and there was no way of getting off without leaping to the ground. To the surprise of the fireman, the dog instead of making the leap to the ground, crouched down flat in the middle of the track and waited for the train. Since there is on a trestle considerable space between the locomotive and the ties, the train passed over the dog, and the fireman looking back saw the animal calmly continuing its way to the end of the trestle.
