REV. DR. CHOWN COMES HERE TO BID FAREWELL

Speaks to Maritime Methodists Ere Retiring as Superintendent.

TO PREACH TWICE IN CITY TOMORROW

Plans to Visit Larger Centres of Maritime Before Easter.

Starting a farewell tour of the Maritime Provinces before giving up the office as general superintendent of the Canadian Methodist church, the position being abolished under the provisions of the Church Union Act, Rev. Dr. S. D. Chown, of Toronto, arrived in Saint John on the C. P. R. express today at noon. He is to preach in Portland Methodist church tomorrow morning and in Centenary in the evening. He was met at the station by Rev. G. Fulton.

Rev. Dr. Chown said his sole mission here was in the nature of a farewell to the Maritime people of the Maritime Provinces. He proposes to visit the larger centres of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia before returning to Toronto for Easter.

Referring to the death of Rev. Dr. J. G. Shearor, Dr. Chown said he was an energetic man and would be greatly missed.

Dr. Chown was born in Kingston, Ont., on April 11, 1863, and received his early education at Kingston Grammar School. After attending Victoria University, he was appointed to the Methodist ministry in 1879 and soon showed his aptitude in and out of the pulpit. In 1888, he became field secretary for the Brockville district and was afterwards financial secretary for the Perth district and later chairman of the Toronto West district. Dr. Chown was appointed secretary of temperance, prohibition and moral reform, in 1908, being the first to be appointed by any Protestant church in Canada for special and moral reform work.

33 Years in High Office.

In 1910 he became assistant general superintendent of the Methodist church, and when the vacancy for the higher office occurred in 1914, he was chosen for the responsible post he now occupies. He was active during the war, being appointed an honorary lieutenant colonel. Dr. Chown served as a member of the church union committee. In 1919, Dr. Chown married Miss Susie E. Hammond, daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Hammond.

MILL POND NOW IS ONLY WEST END DUMP

Others Closed by Public Works Department at Water Department Request.

One official dump for West Saint John will be in operation this summer, it was said today by the street superintendent, and with the co-operation of the police it was proposed to stop the practice of promiscuous dumping of West End refuse.

At a recent meeting of the city council Commissioners Wrenn, Mays and H. H. Mays, and the Mill Pond opened as a dump, as the material would help to fill it up and protect the new trunk sewer, which is being laid through the Mill Pond.

Commissioner Frink said he would give orders to that effect to the superintendent of streets, as he has instructed that official to take this action. Up until this week there have been two dumps in Carlisle street, one at the southern end of Ledlow street and the other on the southern side of Queen Square.

Mr. Price, street superintendent, said however that other places had been used as dumps and it was now proposed to put an end to this practice and have all waste material in West End go into the Mill Pond.

As Hiram Sees It

When I was out to Fort William the weather had a kick to it. I wanted my gloves that morning but some fellow in Regina is wearin' 'em. They was good gloves, too—lined with rabbit fur and on 'em work two winters. I laid 'em down somewhere in the railroad station when I was tryin' not to forget somethin' else—and I orto hev kissed 'em good-bye. I call late Hanner won't like it, an' after this I'll hev to get along with woolen gloves of a greasy kind, with madder mittens. But I started to talk about the weather. They had a snowstorm there that day that almost blinded a feller—with a wind that was wuss than a notheaster on the Marsh Road. After seein' 'em ploughin' in the Fraser Valley an' hev'in' wurrn weather on the prairies I made a feller think 'o' what a big country this is an' what a lot o' different kinds o' weather you kin run into if you keep goin'. When I struck Toronto I hed to shed my overcoat—an' I fertit where I left it.
