THE TALK OF CHANGING THE NAME. The talk of changing the name of Main street, North End, to Dufferin street does not appear to be with much force in Portland. The feeling appears to be that as the street is named in honor of a British monarch, it is not proper to change it to honor of a Canadian monarch.

THE BOARD OF TRADE ROOMS. A few days ago some of the workmen on the "driving park" at Kensington B. R. I. ploughed up an axe, gouge, auger and also the center and some other parts of a plough. All are of antique design and must have been placed there when they were found many years ago.

AN APPEARED FAMILY. Says the Halifax Observer, On June 1st, 1887, Mr. and Mrs. Sage of Harvey Bank, lost their youngest child, June 1888, their youngest daughter, and this week we have to chronicle the death of their eldest son, who died last Monday.

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY NIGHTS. There were numerous windows broken about the streets by drunken boozers. A large pane in Stephen Smith's cigar street was smashed and several articles in the show window carried off. Drunks in the street were plentiful, and their doings were quite extensive.

THE SHIMROCKS OF MONTREAL. The Shimrocks of Montreal and the Toronto played a match game of lacrosse at Toronto yesterday which resulted in a decided victory for the home team. The Toronto took the first goal, the Shimrocks the seventh. The game was 2 hours.

MEASURES. Messrs. Gave, Wilson and Stanton, prominent merchants of London, Eng., have written to the secretary of the Board of Trade asking him the advantages of John as a market town, and making further inquiries concerning the trade in that commodity in this city.

THE OCCASION WAS THE CLOSE OF THE SHORT SEASON. The occasion was the close of the short season, and not only did they respond with the greatest good nature to the numerous enthusiastic exhortations that were demanded, but in compliance with a request from some of the audience they kindly sang "The Last Chord." Now, if any of our citizens had ever heard this beautiful piece sung other than a solo and in the arrangement for the Haydn Quartet, it is not likely to be improved upon. The arrangement is such, however, that the care of others is less capable than that of last night, the composition would be very likely to suffer injury.

THE HARRISON SOLERA. Mr. Walker was a delightful selection and it was given a good interpretation by that gentleman. His voice is a beautiful and useful voice, which Boston ought to be proud of. The other soloists were applauded to the echo, Mr. Faint being twice recalled.

IT IS DIFFICULT INDEED TO DO JUSTICE IN words to the singing of Miss Hunt. One must hear her singing in order to have any adequate idea of her excellence as a soloist. She sings always so truly, in both perfect tone; her voice has a compass and such power throughout her range, and her execution is so brilliant and easy, that she is undoubtedly one of the best, if not the best, lady singer that has been heard in this city for many years.

THE COMPANY RETURNED TO BOSTON this morning by the "Yankee."

THE OLD CHURCH OF ENGLAND situated on the Manawagonish road, Lancaster, is being torn up by order of the Board of Trade. This building has not been in use for some years. It was erected 65 years ago.
