"NFLD. QUARTERLY."

The Summer number, 1925, of the Newfoundland Quarterly will be issued on Saturday, July 25th, and will be on sale at the Guardian office during the coming week. The contents show that this issue is, as usual, a credit to the publishers and would be a very acceptable gift to friends at home and abroad.

QUEEN VISITED NFLD. PAVILION.

The Newfoundland Pavilion at Wembley was honored on July 3rd, by a visit of inspection from Her Majesty Queen Mary, accompanied by Lady Mary Cambridge. Her Majesty was received at the pavilion by Capt.
Victor Gordon, the High Commissioner and Mr. D. Jas. Davies, who took the Queen around to all the exhibits. Her Majesty expressed herself as being very much pleased with all she saw.

BANKERS FOR BAIT.

The racing schooner Bluenose and several other bankers are now at Carbonear for squid bait which is plentiful there. The ITEMS OF NEWS.

A number of young ladies of this town have been on a week's outing in the country. We learn that they had a thoroughly enjoyable time.

The H. M. S. Calcutta, flying the flag of Vice-Admiral Ferguson, was in St. John's this week. Capt the Hon. A. R. M.
Ramsay, husband of Princess Patricia, was on board.

A company of the Church Lads' Brigade from here, 22 in number, in charge of Sergt.
Walter J. Mercer, left by Thursday morning's train for Topsail, where they will encamp with the other companies from various parts of the Island. They will spend the coming ten days at the camp.

The annual Sunday School Picnic was held in the grounds adjoining the C. of E. Schoolroom at Coley's Point on Wednesday, July 22nd. A large number of scholars and teachers were present and, as the day was fine, a thoroughly enjoyable time was spent.

The annual Picnic of the Shearstown Methodist Sunday School was held at that place on Tuesday, July 21st. A special feature of the day was that before going to the field in the morning the scholars were taken in carriages for a drive all through this town and back to Shearstown. This was also repeated in the evening. The happy faces of the children and teachers showed that all were having a real good time.
