

WELCOMED TO THE PRAIRIE CAPITAL DUKE AND DUCHESS ARRIVE AT WINNIPEG

Bright Sunshine Takes Place of Rain on Day of the Royal Visit—Enthusiastic Reception.

(Associated Press.)
Quebec, Sept. 17.—Bright weather hailed the dawn of another day here this morning, but the fond hopes of the crowds which thronged this ancient capital were early dashed to the ground by rain-fall. Notwithstanding this the Duke was an interested spectator of the review on the plains of Abraham.

The inspecting officers rode from the right of the line where the bluejackets and marines were assembled, to the end past the red coats and the rifle regiments, and returned to the grand stand after passing around the rear.

The march past then commenced as follows: Q. O. C. H. led by Major Turner; Col. Lessard in command of brigade; two batteries of artillery with Col. Pelletier, D. O. C., at the head; detachment of sailors from all the ships in port, about five hundred, led by the commander of the Crescent; the marines, Major Hawford commanding; Royal School of Infantry, St. Johns, Quebec, company; Col. Wilson, commandant of fortress and Col. Farley, four companies. Pioneers of all regiments of the first infantry brigade; 1st Prince of Wales Fusiliers, eight companies, Montreal; 23rd Battalion of Sherbrooke, under Col. Fraser, 8th Battalion of St. Hyacinthe attached, in all nine companies; Vics. Mont-real; 8th Battalion Col. Jones commanding; Quebec High School cadets, under command of Capt. Jordan; 65th Battalion, 8 companies, about 450 men; No. 3 medical corps, Montreal; Major Birker and Major George Park; No. 7 Bearer Co., mounted guard of honor, etc.

Medals were presented to the South African heroes, 113 in all, and to Father O'Leary and Rev. Mr. Almond of the first contingent. Col. Pelletier got the Distinguished Order Medal and the Victoria Cross went to Lieut. Ernest Turner. The Royal stand was filled with notabilities.

Fort William, Sept. 25.—The special trains bearing the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and their travelling companions westward to British Columbia spent the day on the rugged north shore of Lake Superior and by night had put Fort William and the lake behind them and were speeding on toward the west.

The day's run was for a long stretch through long stretches of a country, but at all the widely spaced villages the people gathered to offer their cheers and welcome to the Royal party. There were lumbermen, miners and some Indians in the little crowds and the welcome was always a hearty one. The railway stations were all decorated and each little settlement had a display of flags and bunting.

Both the Duke and Duchess took a lively interest in the country through which they passed and greatly enjoyed the wild, rugged scenery. They were particularly interested in the sixty miles' run along the fedges and promontories on the lake shore from Heceta Bay to Jackfish Bay. The lake was constantly in sight and the views along the rock rimmed coast were a succession of impressive pictures. The earlier hours of the day were bright, but in mid-afternoon it began raining and the temperature fell to chilliness.

The Duke and Duchess will reach Winnipeg tomorrow and an operation in the plans, which will extend their stay, was made to-day. They had intended to leave here late in the afternoon, but have now decided to remain for dinner at Governor Hone and will not resume their journey until late tomorrow night.

Some of the time will be made up west of Winnipeg, but it is probable that there will have to be a slight rearrangement of the Western schedule.

Winnipeg, Sept. 29.—After about three weeks of continuous rain, to-day was ushered in with bright sunshine and balmy weather, as if for the special purpose of permitting the patriotic citizens of Winnipeg to pay their respects to their future King and his gentle consort. Sharp on time the first section of the Royal train arrived at 11 o'clock, bearing Premier Laurier and Lady Minto. Just thirty minutes afterwards the booming of cannon announced the arrival of their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York.

Lieut.-Governor McMillan and Sir Wilfrid Laurier welcomed the Royal couple as they alighted from their car. Very little time was lost in starting the Royal procession.

The Royal party were escorted to their carriage, which had arrived here from Ottawa yesterday morning. The first halt was made at the city hall, where the formal welcome to Winnipeg was extended by the mayor and aldermen. The Duke and Duchess descended from their carriage and mounted a platform erected in front of the city hall, escorted by Mayor Arbutnot, who was presented by the Lieut.-Governor. When all had taken their places, the mayor read the civic address, to which the Duke made suitable reply. The Anglican Synod and Catholic Archbishops of St. Boniface then presented their addresses. In reply to three addresses presented the Duke made the following reply: "Gentlemen:—Your kind and touching reference to the Duchess is especially gratifying, and in her name and on my own behalf I wish to acknowledge most sincerely the hearty greeting and affectionate greetings which are expressed in your addresses. The pleasant associations which you hope we shall derive from our visit will be emphasized by the interesting experience of our first acquaintance with the Canadian West and by the memory of to-day's welcome to its chief city.

"During the long and memorable journey to the extreme eastern and from thence to the western limit of our vast Empire, we have seen everywhere many varied proofs of steady but certain progress, material and political, but I doubt whether in the whole course of that experience a more striking example is to be found than in the comparison of the quietude of to-day. Then, as you say, 'a village hamlet in a solitude,' broken only by the presence of 'the passing hunter and fur trader'; to-day the busy centre of what has become the granary of the Empire, the political centre of an active and enterprising population in the full enjoyment of the privileges and institutions of British citizenship.

"I rejoice that we came amongst you at a time when we can join in the congratulation of your fellow subjects in the year of unprecedented prosperity which you are enjoying, and we pray that years to come may show no diminution of the prosperity of that energy and determination which characterized the pioneers and settlers of the province."

Then immediately followed the presentation of medals to the South African heroes. When this was completed the procession reformed and proceeded to Government House, where luncheon was served.

Toronto Review.
Ottawa, Sept. 26.—At Toronto review Col. Lessard will command the 1st brigade, Col. Drury the artillery division, Col. Otter the first infantry division, and Col. Buchanan the second division.

Hon. J. L. Tarte on being interviewed as to the neglect of Deputy Minister Gobell to invite any change of the program at the reception to the Duke, said that his view was that all denunciations at state functions should be put on equal footing.
