Quite a large proportion of the Nova Scotia lumber shipments to the Newcastle alone as those of Miramichi. United Kingdom were made last year by parties engaged in the trade in New Brunswick. The total cut in Nova Scotia is comparatively large, but ought not to make such a mistake. t is only a few years since the transatlantic trade sprung up, a considerable export having been made to the United States, Newfoundland, etc. It is obable, however, that the shipments to Great Britain will increase and hey will, therefore, receive more attention in future annual reports.
