be observed in private and spurned in public, for this would be to join together things honest and disgraceful and to make a man fight a battle with himself, when, on the contrary, he ought always to be, considered with himself, never in the least thing or measure, to decline from Christian virtue. But, if inquiry is made about principles merely political, concerning the best form of government of civil regulations of one kind or another, concerning these things, of course there is room for disagreement without harm.

A Cheering Outlook. [St. John Globe Nov. 25.]

In the face of the defeat sustained by the Liberal party on 20th October last, would have a walk-over when they open ed the city. The result of yesterday's business of the city is carried on, and where the larger number of votes are, against a majority of about 200 for Mr. Everett, Carleton gave Everett 187 ma. jority. It gave Barker only 92. The non residents gave Barker only nine majority, although the Government party had at Moreover, there is no just cause that their full command the means by which
