IONT UNEARTH'S ANOTHER SCANDAL

Used Cattle Have Been Used for Food.

Out of the State to be Killed in One of the Somerville Plants—Officials Charged With Negligence.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Sept. 30.—Gross negligence on the part of the cattle commission of Vermont in failing to safeguard the interests of the state in the disposal of diseased cattle is charged in a report submitted to Governor C. J. Bell and Attorney General C. C. Fitts, made public today.

The cattle commission of Vermont, it appears, did not strictly follow the law, which requires that the carcasses of condemned animals shall be buried, and in several instances it appeared that the commission took condemned animals to the slaughterhouse of the Burlington Rendering and Canning Co., and had them slaughtered and disposed of the carcasses for fertilizing purposes, says the report.

The law of 1904 which amends the law of 1902, went into effect, the report says, as the commission used it as empowering them to condemn animals shipped out of the state by some drover to the it of the New England Dressed Meat Co., at Somerville, Mass., and there slaughtered and disposed of in the same way for many years. This slaughter house is under the United States Government inspection. The report says the condemned animals have been mixed with shipments of the rovers in many instances and that the commissioners have understood the law in the name of the drover, and turns made direct to the drover. The sale, according to the report, has been made for $3 per head, commission after and turning over remittances, the drover paying the freight. It has settled the drover from 25 cents to a dollar a head profit.

"No attempt," says the report, "has been made by our cattle commission to stop a record of the different herds, or here they were disposed of, or of he animals were made from them. It is not possible to learn from them the source the commission have been made for purposes of food or disposal of for fertilizer."

The Attorney General directs attention to the sale in October or November, 1905, of over 200 cows condemned in two herds to a drover, who offered $1 a head for them to Commissioner (Spear). The report says Commissioner must have understood that the cows (the drover) was buying cattle with the expectation of using a considerable portion of them at least for food purposes, for they were not worth anything like the sum paid if they were to be used only for fertilizer.

One carload of 17 head of these cattle mixed with some belonging to the drover were sent to Haverhill, Mass., according to the report. "It does not appear as to just what purpose this stock was expected to be put other than that they were shipped to the slaughter house at Haverhill, which is a market for canned beef. It is supposed that this stock was submitted to the inspection of the Massachusetts state officers, but there is no record to show what became of them. The other 174 head which Rowell had, he shipped to the New England Company at Somerville. He has shipped them with one return covering of the cattle. Of these one animal used for fertilizer and the other nine were used for food purposes, varying from 2-3 to 3-4 cents a head. Rowell testified that the stock taken to the New England Company, not more than twenty were for fertilizer, the remainder being for food."

The report has since September 12, before the Chittenden county grand jury, which recently adjourned.

SON FORCED DOWN
MAN'S THROAT IN STREET
"Shed Assassins' Daring Outrage Results
In Death of Their Victim."

ARIS, Sept. 29.—A strange affair, circumstances of which reveal the of the Borgias, is reported from Lima.

A man named Choley, living in the district of Choley in that city, assaulted last night when close to house by five men, who held him down while one of them hurled down his throat the contents of a glass. The assailants then released him and ran away.

The man suffering great pain, Choley set in reaching his home, where he lay for several days, until he died. He had been poisoned, it is said, by the little later.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDINGS THIS WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bois DeVeber
Observe Theirs Today

And Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, of Lancaster, Will Hold Their Anniversary Tomorrow.

Two well known couples will this week celebrate the golden anniversary of their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. J. Bois DeVeber celebrate theirs to-day, and Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, of Lancaster, will observe their anniversary to-morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. DeVeber were married on October 1st, 1861, in Portland, Me. Both the old people are well on to the hundred mark, but they are still enjoying excellent health, and if the good wishes of their many friends can help them, will continue to do so for many years to come. Mr. DeVeber was born in St. John and is the son of the late L. H. DeVeber. He was early associated with his father in business, and about twenty years ago was appointed county treasurer, which position he held ever since.

Mrs. DeVeber is a daughter of the late Robert Halsey, and was born in Portland, Me.

Of the family of Mr. DeVeber only himself and his sister, Mrs. R. P. Blair, remain. The late Canon DeVeber, Richard, Nelson and Hubbard, were brothers, and Mrs. Gabriel DeVeber was a sister.

Mrs. DeVeber has one brother, Hamilton, who resides in Boston. Mr. and Mrs. DeVeber reside at 17 Leinster street. They have six children—Mrs. G. H. Lee, of this city; Mrs. W. G. Lawton, of Montreal; Mrs. Andrew Jack, of St. John; Mrs. H. M. Frith, of Nassau, Bahamas; Miss Beatrice, who is superintendent of the hospital at Lancaster, Mass., and Bois DeVeber, of New Glasgow.

Mr. and Mrs. DeVeber have been married for 45 years. Many beautiful gifts have been received by the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson will celebrate their golden anniversary to-morrow by holding a family reunion at their home, Lancaster, N. B.

Mr. Wilson was born in Dumfrieshire, and came to St. John in 1854. His wife is a native of this city.

The couple were married October 2nd, 1861, in St. David's Presbyterian church, which they have attended ever since, and are now its oldest members. The bride and groomsmen of the couple are still alive and reside in the city. They are Mrs. James McGowan and James Shaw.

In 1887 Mr. Wilson was appointed superintendent of the signal station at Fort George, where they took up their residence. This position was held by Mr. Wilson until 1900, when he retired and moved to Lancaster Heights, where they now live.

Seven children were born to the couple. They are Mrs. R. N. Wyse, of Montreal; Mrs. Chas. Grant, of Calais; John, of Brookline, N. Y.; Ramsey, of Plainfield, N. Y.; and Miss Mary, Miss Jessie and Emerson, at home.

The celebration to-morrow will also be the date of another interesting event, when Miss Jessie Wilson will be united in marriage to George M. Baille, of this city.

KILLER FINDS SECOND VALISE CARRIED BY COLLINS
A Point Which Promises to be of Importance in the McAuley Murder Case.

Detective Killen has located the second valise which Collins, the McAuley murder suspect, had with him and it is announced that its contents will furnish more evidence in the case. A ring was found in the valise and rumor has it that one similar to it is missing from Father McAuley's home. The local detective found the valise somewhere near Garland's hotel at Elgin.

Killen had stopped at this hotel and at that time carried two valises. There is therefore little doubt but that the valise just found was in the hands of Collins. Chief Clark returned from Albert on Saturday where he was attending the trial. The case has been postponed until next Thursday so as to allow two important witnesses, Counselor W. J. Dean and his son of Muskegon, to attend.

If the ring which was found in the valise can be identified by Father McAuley as his property, Detective Killen's discovery will prove an important factor in the case.

The attendance at the Dominion exhibition at Halifax on Saturday was 13,155, bringing a total for the seven days up to $2,078, a daily average of 13,000. The exhibition closes next Friday night.

GRONSTADT MUTINEERS GET STIFF SENTENCES

Nineteen Are to Die, Twelve Serve for Life, and Over Five Hundred Receive Less Severe Punishments.

GRONSTADT, Sept. 30.—The sentences of the court martial on the sailors and others charged with participating in the mutiny at Cronstadt last August have been delivered subject to confirmation. M. Onipko, one of the leaders of the peasant party in the outlawed parliament, is condemned to deportation and the loss of all his civil rights. Nineteen sailors are condemned to death by shooting, twelve to life servitude, 120 to terms of servitude varying from two to twenty years, and 429 other sailors to service with the disciplinary battalions and various terms of civil imprisonment. All the condemned prisoners forfeit their military privileges. One hundred and twenty-nine sailors were acquitted.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 30.—The final step to set in action the machinery of the government's plan for the distribution of land to the peasantry was taken to-day by the publication of voluminous regulations to the local agrarian commissions, under which the sale of 11,000,000 deciatines of land in European Russia will begin immediately. These commissions, which are composed of delegates elected by the peasantry, the land owners and the Zemstvos and representatives of the government, act as intermediaries in the valuation of land and the fixing of conditions of sale. They are charged also with arrangements for emigration.

Very easy terms. The price is less than two dollars an acre, and payments are spread over fifty years.

YAZNIKI, Vladimir Province, Russia, Sept. 30.—Agrarian disorders have broken out here and a number of estates have been pillaged.

BOY'S PROMPTITUDE SAVED THEIR LIVES

Jack Rusk Hastened for Assistance and Saved Yachtsmen Who Were Upset.

Three young men, William Martin, Wilfrid Buckley and Isaac Campbell, were upset in a sail boat on the river Sunday afternoon, and they would surely have been drowned had it not been for the presence of mind of twelve-year-old Jack Rusk, son of J. W. Rusk, foreman in the L. C. R. freight department.

Martin Buckley and Campbell ran their boat ashore at Land's End, Long Island, and they met young Rusk on the beach. They invited him to a sail on the river, but having been forbidden to go in a sail boat Rusk refused. In a few minutes the boys left Land's End and were soon sailing against a strong wind in the centre of the river. A squall came, the sail boat upset, and the three occupants were thrown into the water.

Young Rusk at once ran to where a rowboat was, but he found he could not launch it, as it was high and dry on shore. He immediately ran up to house of Alexander Long and gave the alarm. In a short time assistance had reached the three young men, who were nearly exhausted. They were rowed ashore and cared for by Mr. Long.

SIXTEEN BALLOONS AFTER THE GORDON BENNETT CUP

PARIS, Sept. 30.—Sixteen balloons, averaging over 2,000 cubic metres capacity each, and representing seven countries, sailed away from the Tuilleries Gardens, in the heart of Paris this afternoon, in the first competition for the Gordon Bennett Cup for international aeronauts. The contest was primarily a long distance race to give the aeronauts an opportunity to break the record of Count De La Vaux, made in 1900, when his balloon landed in Russia, having covered a distance of 1,185 miles in 25 hours and 40 minutes. The Americans entered are Santos Dumont, and Lieut. Frank P. Lahm, of the 6th U. S. Cavalry.

A few minutes before last midnight Miss Florence Mary McCafferty, elder daughter of James and Catherine McCafferty, died at her home, 23 Carmarthen street. Death came after illness lasting for much more than a year, and through it all she had exhibited the most marked patience, even when realizing that, despite the tender care given her, she could not be restored to health. Previous to her illness, Miss McCafferty was in charge of a department of Messrs. Macaulay Bros. & Co., where she met with every success until compelled to give up her position because of ill health. There, too, as among her friends, she was highly esteemed, and there are many who read with deep regret that she has passed away. Besides her parents, there survive two brothers and one sister—John J., proprietor of the Queen Hotel, Fredericton, and William J., manager of the New Amherst Insurance Company, New York; and Miss Katherine L., who was in training as nurse in the Melrose (Mass.) Hospital, and came home to care for her sister. For all there will be many warm words of sympathy because of their bereavement.

A few days ago a big old moose appeared in John Stroupe's garden in St. Leonards. At the same time a buck deer was swimming across the St. John, and nearly every man, boy and dog ran to the river and made such a racket that the moose became frightened, jumped the garden fence and trotted down the main highway. Father Babineau was seated on the veranda of his residence reading the morning paper, when happening to glance up, he saw a huge bull moose trotting along the road. Quickly entering the house he got his Winchester and shot the lovely animal when it was opposite his residence. The antlers had a magnificent spread, and he is proud of his trophy.

In the Charlotte street West End United Baptist church last night, Rev R. W. Ferguson, who has retired from the pastorate of the church, preached his farewell sermon to a large congregation. At the close of the service F. Colby Smith, on behalf of the congregation, presented to Mr. Ferguson well filled purse. Mr. Ferguson will leave this week to take up his work as his new charge, River Glade.
