VOTERS' LISTS. Sheriff Sturdee Declines to Conside Applications to the List Until After Election. Takes a Stand of His Own in the Matter -A Conflict of Opinion Between the Sheriff and the Department of Justice.

Sheriff Sturdee reached a decision yesterday which is of great interest to a large number of voters in the city and county of Saint John. Baxter. Some time ago J. B. M. Baxter. on behalf of the Liberal Conservative party, applied to add one name to the local list. C. J. Milligan, the liberal crganizer, opposed the application which was with trawn, there having been an error as to the young man's first opportunity that he would have age. The sheriff then suggested that time to consider them. After some both parties should agree as to form discussion, Mr. Baxter agreed to have of affidavits for such applications, and 14th November set for hearing the apasked both gentlemen to endeavor to plications, and the sheriff then asked arrange for hearings under the act so what was the point in adding them at that they should conflict as little as that time; as the new lists for proressible with the sheriff's busy time vincial elections would be nearly ready just before election. On this occasion Sheriff Sturdee said that he thought then. Mr. Baxters reply was, "Because I want to have your summons. the fair reading of the provincial act signed by you, in my pocket, so that was that he should hear applications you will have that as an additional down to ten days before the election, and not ten reason for refusing to yield to any of demands from the liberal party to before nomination day. This have an earlier date fixed for hearing was a distinct disapproval of the stand taken by Sheriff Reid of any applications which they may make. gotiations were dropped in conse-quence: At the hearing spoken of both the sheriff and Mr. Milligan took the ground that even if additions should be made to the local lists, yet that they could not be regarded by the sheriff as returning officer and that the lists as they then existed were final for Somanion purposes. To support this contention there was a circular from the Queen's printer at Ottawa, and Mr. Milligan stated that such was the opinion of the solicitor general of Canada. Mr. Baster had more faith in his own reading of the law than in the opinion of the solicitor general, and accordingly the liberal conservative party in this city set to work to obtain applications from voters who

Hen Now in Opposition, Mr Killam Says, are the Real Friends of the Fishermen, and He Will Vo's and Work For Them.

(Yarmouth Times.) W. A. Killam, the well known vesse owner and commission merchant, has arrived at the conclusion that the men who are in power at Ottawa have broken their pledges and promises to the people and for that reason he has withdrawn his support from the liberal party. Mr. Killam for the past thirty years has taken a keen interest in matters political and always on the liberal side, never, as he informed the Times, having cast a vote against that party. For a life time he has been identified with the fishing industry in this and adjoining counties and, previous to the last general election, believed that the conservative party elways stood in the way of the interests of fishermen. His shipments of fish to the United States are wry large and during conservative rule the duty was one-half cent per pound, which, he says, came out of the pockets of the Canadian shippers. In his case, the auty amounted to about $1,700 per year on halibut alone, which he considered a heavy tax. Believing the statement of liberal leaders that in the event of their obtaining control of the Canadian government they would at once secure better trade relations with the United States he continued to support them.

"THE TIME CAME."

says Mr. Killam, "when the conservatives, who had been in power for eightives, who had been in power for eigh-teen years, were defeated. I then fully expected that my life-long political friends would secure for the fishermen of Nova Scotia a measure of relief, but in this I was disappointed. Instead of a reduction in the duity it was doubled, and I was called upon to pay $5,400 per year. I, with hundreds of others, believe that the liberal gov-ernment should have made an attempt to redeem their promises, but, having watched carefully, I fail to see that in their several trips to Washington they made the slightage effort in our beenort in our

A few days ago Mr. Baxter again applied to the sheriff for a summons ! calling on the revisors to show cause why several names should not be added, and the sheriff complained of being asked to do work which must eventually be useless, as he could not use them in the election. Mr. Baxter insisted that the names could be added and asked for an opportunity to test the matter, saying that once the names were on the provincial list he proposed to apply to the supreme court for a mandamus to compel Mr. Sturdee, as returning officer, to put them on the dominion list. The sheriff then asked to have the application stand until Saturday and on that day put the matter off until yesterday. Yesterday morning the sheriff told Mr. Baster that he would make the summonses returnable on Wednesday or Thursday of this week and that the liberals were making applications which he would hear on the same day.

Fleming, Condon and John McDonald entered the service as apprentices. They are among the best mechanics in the shops, and as citizens are above reproach. Fleming, who is president, and Allen McDonald, who is secretarytreasurer, have resigned from the labor union in order that they take part in the cammay naign against the government that treats workingmen in this scandalous manner. Fleming, who was a delegate to the last general labor meeting in Montreal, is a capital speaker and will doubtless be heard from on the stump." He is popular among the men and as an index to their feeling in regard to the action of the government it may be stated that he had been nominated for the office of district secretary in the railway insurance associamissed were "offensive partizans" while in the service. It is not claimed that work was slack, as good mechanics are needed and some five or six hundred green hands have seen taken on at various points within the last two or three months (no doust in anticipation of the elections). Nor does Mr. Blair's poor excuse that it would be "a confession of weakness" to reinstate men unjustly dealt with just before an election, hold good, because within the last ten days he has reinstated an employe who has been under suspension for nearly a year on the serious charge of taking undue liberties with a female passenger in a Pullman car. The man who was reinstated had a political pull, of course. The truth is that the five honest, hardworking mechanics would not bow. down to the grit ward heelers in everything and as the I. C. R. employes generally were showing a disposition to resent political interference, they were summarily dismissed for the purpose of coercing the whole staff.

JOHN SHERMAN DEAD.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.-Hon. John Sher-man, who for a period of 40 years occupied a prominent place in the legislative and ad-ministrative branches of public affairs in the United States, died here at 6.45 o'clock this morning of brain exhaustion. Death came to the aged sufferer peacefully after almost thirty-six hours of nearly complete unconsciousness. A number of relatives and friends who had assembled in Washington in response to summons were at the bedside when the end came. Funeral services over the remains will be held in this city and at Mansfield, Ohio. Interment will be in tue family plot at that place and will occur, in all probability, on Thursday. Secretary Sherman's demise occursed in his hadsome home on K street. John Sherman was born in Lancaster, Ohio, May 10, 1823. In 1844 he was admitted to the bar. He was elected to congress, where he took his seat Dec. 3, 1855. He was president of the first republican convention in Ohio. Mr. Sherman was a United States senator from 1861 to 1977, and again from 1881 to 1897. In 1880 he was a candidate for the presidency, James A. SPAIN'S DIFFICULTY.

MADRID, Oct. 22 .- The present crisis in the cabinet is an outcome of the conflict bepresent government and hereafter it tween the civil and military elements. Since their return from Cuba, Generals Weyler and Linares have gathered around them a group in defence of the interests of the army, and, in spite of the budget's economies, which have been universally demanded, they aim to reconstruct the army and navy. The first step in the direction of this plan was to proclaim the independence of the minister of war among the members of the cabinet, and Gen. Linares appointed Gen. Weyler to polky. Gen. Weyler, who recently adhered to the liberal party, which he hoped eventu-ally would enable him to get the portfolio of war, announced that he accepted the post as a military man and not as a politician. Nevertheless, it is thought his present ac-tion will cause him to be abandened by the liberals. In the meantime Gen.
