—Benos Ayres, in the Argentine Republic, is now the largest city in South America, the census of 4887 giving it a population of 434,000.

—Bolivia, which has an area of 600,000 square miles and a population of 2,000,000, is without a single Protestant missionary. Two American teachers, encouraged by Bolivian gentlemen and recommended by the Preshyterian Board of Missions, expect soon to establish aschool in La Paz, the capital.

—A Louisiana lady, who was once famous for her wealth and the number of her slares, now earns a few cents a day by picking cotton on the plantation that was her own before the war.

—From the edition of Geo. P, Rowell & Go's "American Newspaper Directory," published April 2nd. (its twentieth year), it appears that the Newspapers and Periodicals of all kinds issued in the United States and Canada, now number 16,310, showing a gain of 890 during the last 12 months and of 7,136 in ten years. The publishers of the Directory assert that the impression that when the proprietor of a newspaper undertakes to state what has been his exact circulation, he does not generally tell the truth is an errenceus one: and they conspicuously offer a reward of $100 for every instance in their book for this year, where it can be shown that the detailed report received from a publisher was unirue.
