MARITIME CROP PROSPECTS GOOD

Moncton, N. B., June — Crop prospects in the Maritime Provinces are good. Although the season is slightly backward, this should not have any deleterious effect on the final result.

HON. E. A. DUNLOP

Provincial Treasurer, Government of Ontario, Industrialist, Economist There is the method of charging across the open breast bare, challenging their fate. There is the method whereby part of their forces is detached off to go round about and make a surprise attack from the rear. This man uses the method of working his way alone and flat on the earth from shell hole to shell hole. Even the enemy must respect such determination and courage as are his. There are no heroics about this man. The job's the thing. Having decided what the job is and what it entails in the doing, he gets at it with vigor. He is steady and steadfast, qualities which in addition to his ability insure success and honor thrust upon him as well as earned. He is not completely matter of fact, by any means — he likes approbation. But he is as completely as possible lacking in illusion. He has a very real sense of values and although deeds have among proper he is a very modest person. He craves back the inhibition in his handwriting and directs it to the serviceable and of showing him the truth behind the appearance of his handwriting, a reasonable mind. He is loyal and sincere, his emotions are deep-seated. A background of breeding and culture insure refinement of taste.

stated A. W. MacKenzie, Superintendent of Agricultural of the Canadian National Railways for the Maritimes, on his return from a survey of several districts. The strawberry crop, he said, will turn about the same as last season, a good year, while blueberries should be plentiful.

INCREASE IN TOURIST TRAVEL TO MARITIMES ANTICIPATED 1933

Hotel men in the maritime Provinces are expecting an increased tourist business for the season 1933 judging from the number of requests for accommodation already received, according to the tourist and convention Bureau of the Canadian National Railways. All three provinces, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, are well equipped to handle the tourist trade and offer accommodation ranging from the more elaborate hotels to private farm homes. In Nova Scotia the Canadian National operates the Nova Scotia Hotel at Halifax, one of the outstanding hotels of the east, and Pictou Lodge at Pictou, a seaside summer resort on the south shore of the Strait of Northumberland, patterned after Jasper Lodge in the heart of the Canadian Rockies. At Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, is the Canadian National Hotel another outstanding hostelry of Maritime Canada.
