CLOSING COTTON LETTER.

By direct private wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co.
New York, Aug. 9.—Liverpool this morning was due to come 6 points lower and came 9 points lower, closing 11 points below last night's level. Our market on reports of the Texas drought being broken, light, though general rains being indicated in that state, opened 18 points down, recede 3 points, at which point heavy covering by the big shorts brought about a recovery of 12 points. This summarizes the course and the news of today's market. Considering the extent and duration of the decline, we are now more favorably disposed toward purchasing cotton. It appears that a large and unwieldy long interest has been largely liquidated and at this level of prices the powerful speculating interests will not offer such vigorous opposition to a rise as heretofore.
