

In the Amusement Houses

ANOTHER GREAT SHOW AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Empire Musical Comedy Co. Presented a Bright, Clean, Snappy Production

That the favorable reception accorded the Empire Musical Comedy Company at the Opera House last week had ample justification was emphasized last night when, notwithstanding the rain, the house was crowded to capacity. The different members of the company worked well together, and again showed that they constitute a well-balanced aggregation.

Izzy, the spendthrift, at the New York Winter Garden "is a production abounding with lively situations, and musical numbers in pleasing variety, including some quite in the first class. "Izzy, the spendthrift, at the New York Winter Garden "is a production abounding with lively situations, and musical numbers in pleasing variety, including some quite in the first class.

Special mention must be made of the excellent staging of the show. The electric lighting effects, and general stage arrangements, helped much towards the company's success in last night's production.

A large share of the work falls to the lot of Mike Sachs, the giddy Hebrew; Izzy, who interpreted the character in a way that was both amusing and clever. He also sang well, notably in the somewhat exciting "In the Heart of the City."

Have Harris, as a quartette "oil" in which he was ably assisted by Dick Stead, Frank Murray and Marshall Murray. Throughout the production Mike was equal to every requirement and pleased the audience immensely.

HIS MUSICAL CAREER A SPLENDID ARRAY

Features of Interest and Charlie Chaplin at the Unique.

In spite of the heavy rain yesterday the Unique Theatre was crowded to the doors when Chas. Chaplin headed the bill of fare and as a piano shifter in the farce comedy "His Musical Career," was successful in faithfully fulfilling his mission in life and laughter was created in his every movement.

"His Musical Career" is a bright, diverting subject and allows every possible scope for Chaplin to exploit his wonderful talent. His adventures with the piano, in an effort to get it to the upper story of a sky scraper, reached the acme of pure fun while numerous other incidents helped make the comedy one of the best.

The Gaumont Graphic is of particular interest this week being devoted entirely to scenes from the seat of war and showing the doings of the different military units in all parts of the world. "The Mills of the Gods," a two part Broncho production, is what can be justly termed as a gripping story and is played by a cast of notable favorites. Next Wednesday and Thursday Edwin Thalhouser will present the famous dramatic episode "Mon-sieur Nicola Dupre."

CHURCH OF ENGLAND COMMITTEES MEET

Session Last Night of Sunday School Board—The Work Today.

The Church of England diocesan quarterly meetings opened last evening in the Church of England Institute rooms, with a session of the Sunday School Committee. Among those present were Rev. Dean Neales, Canon Cowie, Rev. W. P. Dunham, Miss Howard and J. N. Rogers. Various communications were received from the different diocesan schools with regard to the annual children's service held all over Canada in October and matters relating to the better observing of the service in the diocese of Fredericton were brought before the meeting.

Communications from the Sunday School Commission were read in connection with the organization of diocesan Sunday school associations and referring to the bringing of all these associations together to work in conjunction with the diocesan associations.

The idea of having a Sunday each month set apart when Sunday school workers could be united was also dealt with.

The routine business was also carried out and reports showed that many Sunday schools throughout the diocese were in a very excellent and flourishing condition.

The committee meetings which will be held today are the committee on social reform and the committee on the preservation of church records, this morning; the board of finance, this afternoon; and the board of missions this evening.

WEDDINGS.

MacKinnon, yesterday morning, when he united in marriage Richard Hogg, lately of Scotland, and Miss Anna Ethel Allan of this city. After a short honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Hogg will reside in Summerset street.

KAUFMAN SISTERS IN PRETTY DANCING ACT

Excellent Programme Provided at the Lyric Yesterday.

Enjoyment in every respect characterized the performance of the Kaufman Sisters as given yesterday at the Lyric Theatre. It is a neat novel offering constructed along new lines and is exploited with grace and ease by the talented artists. Refreshing features are the quick costume changes that are made, this being particularly true of the last number when a change is made from the attire of Hollanders to delightful modern dancing gowns which are taken from a large basket of set roses. The entire act is decidedly of the most enjoyable nature and should be seen by all lovers of better vaudeville.

The picture programme also excellent, and had as its feature a sterling Broncho production, "A Spark from the Embers," an intense drama of human nature as it is. Comedy was supplied by the Victoria, Champlains, Braves and Rovers. The teams decided to adopt the D and A. roads, and that company will present watch fobs to the players of the team winning the championship. The games will be played on the Marathon grounds and the Barrack Square, and the opening of the league will be this evening, when the Victoria and Braves will play on the Marathon grounds, while the Rovers and Champlains will battle on the Barrack Square. The following schedule has been drawn up:

July 6th—Victoria vs. Braves, Marathon grounds; Rovers vs. Champlains, Barrack Square.

July 8th—Braves vs. Rovers, Marathon grounds; Champlains vs. Victoria, Barrack Square.

July 9th—Victoria vs. Braves, Marathon grounds; Rovers vs. Champlains, Barrack Square.

The teams are made up of some snappy players and good games are expected.
