

THE FEDERAL COURT ORDERS LEADERS OF STRIKING COAL MINERS TO CALL OFF STRIKE

District Chiefs Have Been Hurriedly Summoned to Appear at Indianapolis Today to Consider Next Move.

STRIKE LEADERS REMAIN RETICENT

Belief Expressed That if Leaders Should Rescind Strike Order Men Would Refuse to Obey.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 9.—John L. Lewis, acting President of the United Mine Workers of America, tonight declared that he had agreed to comply with the order of the Federal Court here yesterday to call the strike of bituminous coal miners of the country before 8 p. m. next Tuesday evening. "I shall not comply with the mandatory proceedings of the injunction which are unauthoritative and premature," he declared. Mr. Lewis' declaration was made in view of a report of statement of counsel for the miners yesterday, that Mr. Lewis and Secretary Treasurer Wm. Green proposed to obey the court's order, but that they could not speak for other officials. While Mr. Lewis would not comment on the subject, others indicated that the statement of the miners' attorney was intended to show a willingness of the international officers, District Presidents, Executive Board and members of the Miners Scale Committee for tomorrow to consider the court order.

Officials Meet Today

The meeting of union officials has been set for ten o'clock tomorrow evening. Several of the district officials, including Frank Partington, President of the Illinois district, arrived today, but none of them would make any statement. Mr. Partington only replied to questions, was that he had nothing to say. The outcome of tomorrow's conference is problematical. Several district presidents have issued statements on the situation to night before leaving their homes for Indianapolis. The Illinois district president expressed a wide divergence of opinion as to what course should be adopted.

Alexander Howat, President of District Number 14, Pittsburgh, Pa., declared that his attitude was unchanged and that "regardless of injunctive orders and judgments of the Federal Court," he was going to fight. C. F. Keeney, President of District Number 17, West Virginia, said that "if ordered to do so, he would withdraw the strike order in his district, as it was not his intention to fight the Government."

Men Would Refuse

William J. Trickett, Secretary Treasurer of District Number 16, Maryland, expressed the opinion that even if the strike order were rescinded the men would not have to return to work and added "don't think they would."

Many of the union men have contended ever since the strike was called that, as the strike was ordered by the full convention of the miners in Cleveland, only another convention could authorize calling it off. Another phase of the situation, in connection with the court order yesterday, is the question of what action the Government might take if the miners as individuals refused to obey the order. No opinion could be secured in this connection.

Government officials are taking no action pending the expiration of the time given the union officials to withdraw the strike order.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Holding that the action of the government injunction proceedings against striking bituminous coal miners to be "so autocratic as to stifle the human mind" the legislative council of the American Federation of Labor declared in a statement issued after a four hour meeting that the miners' walk-out was justified, promised for the strike the entire support of organized labor and asked aid and endorsement for it from the public. The Lewis act, under which the government acted in the court proceedings never was enacted to apply to workers. The council asserted, and its use against the miners was charged as "an injustice, not only to workers, but to all liberty loving Americans."

AMMUNITION DUMP EXPLOSION KILLS MANY SOLDIERS

CHICAGO PRICES

Manner, Belgium, Nov. 9.—(By the A. P.)—A large ammunition dump near Fort Eben blew up early this morning. Only four of the fourteen British soldiers on duty answered for the toll call today. It is feared that the others were killed. Explosions are continuing taking place among the remains of the dump. The cause of the main explosion has not been ascertained.

PRINCE EXPRESSES GRATITUDE FOR CANADA'S WELCOME, AND APPEALS FOR LOYALTY TO IDEALS

In His Penultimate Speech in Ottawa He Emphasized Again His Fellowship With Canadian Citizens in Their Loyalty to the British Throne — Has Received Many Kind Gifts and Letters Which He Greatly Appreciates — Will Leave Canada Feeling That He is a Part of the Dominion.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 8.—A sympathetic and responsive audience of two thousand odd men, comprised of members of Parliament and business men, heard the Prince of Wales make his penultimate speech to the present tour in Canada, today, at the end of a Canadian Club luncheon in the Chateau Laurier. It was a friendly and intimate speech in which gratitude for Canada's welcome, and an earnest appeal for loyalty to the British throne, were punctuated with good-humored raillery. The Prince emphasized again his fellowship with Canadian citizens in their loyalty to the British throne, and the fact that he would go to the United States next week feeling that he belonged to Canada as much as to Great Britain. Continuing, he said:

"This is not the last speech that I shall make in Canada before leaving Canada for the old country at the end of my three months' tour, for I am returning to Halifax after my visit to the United States. But I am glad to have this opportunity of saying, not good-bye, but an au revoir to such a representative gathering in the capital city of the Dominion. Ottawa, being the capital of the Dominion, is the centre of Canadian news, and so some of you may notice that I have made quite a few speeches since I left here on the first of September, during which time I have been west, right across the Dominion to Vancouver Island and back again. Some of you, but probably fewer, may even have read some of these speeches.

"I feel, therefore, that it is difficult to say anything in Ottawa without repeating myself badly. But I have had such a wonderful three months in Canada that I should like to be able to return to say something of what I feel about the Dominion. To enable me to do this, you must forgive my repeating two things which I have already said elsewhere, for they are two things which I feel most deeply.

Canada's Position

"The first regards my relations to Canada. Canada, like the other British Dominions, played such a big part in the war that she has in consequence entered the partnership of nations and has assumed her signature to the Peace Treaty. This means that the old idea of an empire, consisting of a mother country surrounded by daughter states, is entirely obsolete and has long been left behind by the British Empire. Our empire has taken a new and far grander form. It is now a single state composed of the sister nations of different origins and different languages. The British nation is the largest of the nations, but the younger nations have grown up to be its equals, and Great Britain, like the Dominions, is only one part of

PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE REVIEWS WORLD'S AFFAIRS

Briefly Calls up the Troubles in Foreign Countries and Affirms That Apart from Russia, Outlook is Good.

OPTIMISTIC OVER ADRIATIC QUESTION

Confident a Settlement Will be Found Compatible With the Interests and Honor of the Gallant Allies.

London, Nov. 8.—(By The Associated Press).—Premier Lloyd George, speaking at the Lord Mayor's banquet tonight, and referring to the Supreme Council's effort at Russian peace early this year, said: "I hope the time is not distant when the powers will be able to renew that attempt with better prospects of success."

The premier recounted briefly the world's troubles, saying: "Apart from Russia, the outlook is good." He spoke optimistically of the settlement of the Adriatic and Turkish questions which, with Russia, he said constituted the world's chief problems. He recalled that exactly a year ago at the same board he announced the abdication of the German Emperor. He did not believe that the few well informed then expected the ensuing year would bring such progress toward a settlement as had been made.

The premier taking up the most difficult questions left for settlement, was complete agreement between the Adriatic Turkey and Russia, said: "The Adriatic question has gathered to me a deep passion, but I am confident a settlement will be found compatible with the interests and honor of our gallant Allies, so I am certain that justice will be done the nations unimpeded from the Austrian yoke."

ITALIAN GOV'T FORCES CLASH WITH GABRIELE D'ANNUNZIO'S TROOPS

Belgrade, Saturday, Nov. 8.—(By The A. P.)—There has been a clash between forces of the Italian government and Gabriele D'Annunzio's troops in which casualties were suffered by both sides, according to a statement issued by the Serbian official press bureau today. The statement follows:

"In a sanguinary skirmish between Italian government troops and Gabriele D'Annunzio's forces, the government troops suffered considerable losses, including one captain. D'Annunzio's troops lost one man killed and several wounded.

"A telegram received from Tagrod, says there is much dissatisfaction among D'Annunzio's soldiers because of scant food, and that there is little military discipline."

LIGHT HOUSE KEEPERS LOST IN RECENT GALES HAVE GONE DOWN

Were Employed at Kamouraska Island Light—Supposed to Have Been Swamped in Their Boat.

Quebec, Que., Nov. 9.—News reached here today that J. B. Desjardins, lighthouse keeper at Kamouraska Island, and his nephew and assistant, Joseph Desjardins, had perished during the violent gale and snowstorm which struck Kamouraska on Thursday or Friday night. A party of men from Kamouraska rowed out to the island and discovered that both the keeper and his assistant were missing. It is presumed that when the storm was at its height on Thursday the yacht tender, which was anchored between the island and the mainland, broke away from her moorings, and the keeper and his assistant, with the hope of saving her, followed in a small boat. The boat must have been swamped, as no trace of it has been recovered. The tender has since been covered. The C. G. S. Drud has been dispatched to the scene and further particulars as to the fate of the two men is expected tomorrow.

PARLIAMENT IS ESTABLISHING NEW PRECEDENTS

At Midnight Saturday Voted to Continue Session Into Sunday in Order to Give Third Reading to Prohibition Bill.

FRENCH CANADIANS PROTESTED MOVE

The Prohibition Bill, as Finally Amended, Will Go to the Senate Today for Its Consideration.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 9.—Parliament wiped precedent aside at midnight Saturday and decided to continue the sitting into Sunday in order to give the third reading to the prohibition bill, and have it ready for the consideration of the Senate on Monday. This course was taken on the suggestion of Sir George Foster, the acting Prime Minister, and endorsed by a majority vote of the members of the House. Sir George said that it was not an unusual thing for legislation to continue Saturday sittings into the hours of Sunday.

During the forty-five minutes the House sat after midnight, two proposals against the proceeding were voted by French-Canadian members, but they were not heeded. Mr. Ernest Lapointe declared that in the fifteen or sixteen years he had been in the House nothing of this kind had occurred.

L. A. LaFortune, a little later on, introduced the Lord's Day Act to prove the matter of Sunday and declared the action of the House to be unconstitutional. Objections to the proceedings were met by the reply from the Government side in the House: "We are doing good work."

The bill to amend the Canada Temperance Act as finally adopted at 12 o'clock Sunday morning, is a somewhat different measure from the printed bill in the hands of the members. As amended, the bill contains no reference to the manufacture of liquor, which means that manufacture for export will be allowable and that the fact of a province will deal with the matter of importation only. Manufacture of liquor was dealt with in the bill passed earlier in the day to amend the act in aid of provincial legislation prohibiting the sale or use of intoxicating liquors. This bill prohibits the manufacture of liquor when it is known that it will be used in violation of the law of the province in which it is manufactured.

Dalhousie Defeats Wanderers Fifteen

College Team Beats Halifax Athletic Club by 13-9—Game Protested—Dalhousie Leads Haliogonian Series

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 9.—The football match yesterday between the Wanderers and Dalhousie team resulted in a win for the college by a score of 13 to 9. The Wanderers are protesting the game because the referee did not, they allege, allow for time that was lost during the play on account of men injured. If this game stands, it gives the Dalhousie three and the Wanderers one game.
