CHARLOTTE CO. ST. STEPHEN.

Quite a number of passengers came to Calais on that train.

The first heat he won by a length, the second by a head and third by a length. At no time were the horses a length apart. The first heat he won by a head and second by a length. BAYSWATER.

BAYSWATER, Dec 22.—On Thursday last the school house at this place was crowded to its utmost capacity by old and young to witness the closing exercises of the year, which everyone could see was very ably prepared, by the way each one did his or her duty. The programme consisted of from fifteen to twenty dialogues and recitations, besides the usual school exercises. After this Mr. Adams, an aged and respected resident, treated the school to candy, raisins, etc. Then Miss Hunter, the teacher, without any exception, presented each scholar with a souvenir and many of the oldest scholars, who were there to witness the exercises, were also remembered. Secretary Fred Currie, then gave a short address. He said the school was in a flourishing condition and the scholars were far in advance of former years, especially in the use of votes. He gave the teacher every encouragement to keep the schools for the coming year. Capt. Gibson also sanctioned what was said. Mrs. Geo. Worden made a few appropriate remarks in favor of the great improvement of former years. All are of the opinion that the school was never in a better condition.

Miss Hunter is very much beloved by all the community, and especially by the scholars. She will leave tomorrow for her home in Harvey, followed by the best wishes of the people.

KINGSTON.

KINGSTON, Kings Co., Jan 4.—We wish all our readers a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Monday, the day appointed for the horse races, dawned bright and clear with the mercury nearly 20 degrees below zero and the ground covered with nearly a foot of the fresh fallen "beautiful" after the heavy storm of the previous day, but by noon the temperature had somewhat moderated and on arriving at Clifton, where it had been previously arranged to take place, everything was found in readiness, the tracks having been scraped during the forenoon. An immense crowd of teams and people on foot were assembled and all were anxious to know which horses were to carry off the first money. The first race was the four-year-old class trotting a half mile.

There were three entries—Councillor O. W. Wetmore of Clifton, Conn. S. T. Lamb of Ferry's Point, and Mr. Chas. Bruce of Kingston. In the first heat Mr. Wetmore came in ahead, Mr. Lamb second and Mr. Bruce third. In the next two heats Mr. Lamb's grey came out an easy winner both times; Mr. Wetmore second and Mr. Bruce third.

Next came the pariah one mile race and there were four entries—Capt. Wm. Shampier, Mr. John D. Coeman and Mr. John Hill's horses from Kingston, and Mr. Ady's horse from Clifton. In the first heat Capt. Shampier came out first, Mr. Coeman second, Mr. Wetmore third, and Mr. Hill fourth. Second heat, Mr. Coeman first, Mr. Shampier second, Mr. Wetmore third, Mr. Hill fourth. Third heat, Mr. Coeman first, Mr. Wetmore second, Capt. Shampier third, Mr. Coeman, who has taken first money with Lady May for a number of years, came home feeling almost better than he expected, but an extra effort was made to change the honors and the general feeling was that Capt. Shampier was going to carry off the prize. The captain's mare did beautifully and an allowance should be made that she had to pull a man of considerable over 200 pounds weight in a large number of races. Mr. Coeman's Lady May was raised by Mr. S. Z. Dickson, of Upland, and she is the best mare did anything that carried off first money in the four-year-old race. Mr. Lamb's colt does her work very prettily and will make something "fast."

The "New Year's" dance, formerly spoken of in THE TELEGRAPH, was held in Kingston Hall, Monday evening. There were 40 couples present besides a very large number of spectators. Notwithstanding the heavy traveling quite a large number were present. Mr. John Westfield, Greenwich, Long Reach, Clifton, Moss Glen, Ferry's Point, and other surrounding places were present.

Owing to the heavy storm and severe cold last Wednesday the bean supper did not prove as much of a success as had been hoped for, but considering the weather and bad roads things passed off as good as could be expected, there being about 75 people present, and all having of a generous and kind quite a snug sum was realized.

TITUSVILLE.

TITUSVILLE, Jan 5.—The sporting men of this locality are at present very interested in horse trotting. Lately they have had several races and Mr. Chas. H. Titus' mare Lucy, driven by Mr. Chas. L. After the presentations were made, light refreshments were served, of which all partook and did ample justice. GAGETOWN.

GAGETOWN, Jan 2.—Monday morning was clear and frosty, the thermometer registering 22 degrees below zero. Hardly anybody was noticed on the streets until about 9 o'clock, when a few began to move around, and the general conversation was "What about the horse races will they be held or not?"

Some of the members of the committee, and he said the races would be brought on after dinner. On account of the snow the horse race has gone to the track had to be ploughed, which was accomplished in short order by a number of teams hitching on to the snow plough. When 10 o'clock arrived, the time for the running race, very much disappointment was manifested by those present on learning that "Brad" had hitched up Billy in the early morning and was on his way to Wolford, thus spoiling all chance of having a running race. Owing to the severity of the weather and the snow storm quite a number were prevented from attending.

Some of the 500 or more, were in attendance and enjoyed the sport, which began about 3 o'clock, some very fine heats being witnessed.

There were no entries for the free-for-all, the other races being the county and green races. The green race was first called only one horse being entered, B. O. Clark, Mand C. and Wm. Brooks' Sporter. Three straight heats were run, the former winning. Much is due Mr. Stewart and driven by H. J. DeVeber, of Gagetown. After scoring several times they got into the coming in first.

FREDERICTON, Jan 1.—The weather today has been fair and cold, the thermometer this evening being at zero and dropping. There is a westerly wind and every indication of a very cold night. Several inches of snow fell last night but there was no sign of the snow plow on today and people had to tramp through the snow in going to and from church. The city purchased two snow plows a month ago and the citizens were wondering today if they were bought for ornaments only.

Mrs. Anthony Scobie fell last evening on the icy sidewalk on Queen street, fracturing her arm at the wrist. The sidewalk has been exceedingly slippery. The ward received past and the city department has come in for much criticism for not putting sand on the sidewalks, or taking other precautions. Several persons have fallen but only one has been seriously injured.

A happy incident connected with the exercises of the Baptist Sunday school this afternoon was the presentation of an address and purse to the pastor, Rev. J. D. Freeman. The address spoke very highly of the Sunday school's appreciation of Rev. Mr. Freeman's interest and labor. Spurden, superintendent of the school, and was happily replied to by Mr. Freeman.

Mr. Gibson secured his game, a fine bull caribou, on Thursday, and they returned home last night much elated over the success of their trip.

FRANKFORD, Jan 2.—The holiday was very quietly spent here. All stores were closed and business generally suspended. The weather was too cold for much out door pleasure, though some driving was indulged in. Several of the fast and showy horses were out in the afternoon and sent over the King street speedway a number of times, but the racing was uninteresting.

The Paul Cassevoine company opened a three night engagement at the Opera House this evening. The play presented was The Three Guardsmen. A party of New Yorkers, consisting of C. H. Forbes, the Grant Forbes, Samuel P. Bisgden, Jr., and Crawford Blagden returned on the Canada Eastern train last afternoon from a moose hunt on the Miramichi. This same party were here earlier in the season, when they got two fine caribou.

Thomas was marshal, and John G. Adams had charge of the funeral arrangements.
