NEW METHODIST CHURCH AT DORN RIDGF, YURK CO

Dedication Took Place Last Sunday and the Edifice Was Cleared from Debt.

The new Methodist church on Rorn Ridge, York county, was opened for divine service and dedicated Sunday. A large mber of friends from the surrounding ettlements were present. An hour before ervice a stream of carriages could be seen ascending the hill upon which the church stands. At 11 o'clock the church was fi¹¹. ed to overflowing. The Rev. James Crisp conducted the morning service and preached the dedication sermon. Other ministers assisted. There were on the platform the Rev. Messrs. Crisp, Murray, McCutcheon Cooke and London.

After the sermon the dedication service was read by Mr. Crisp and Mr. Cooke. Mr. Crisp made a financial statement and Crippled With Corns Mr. Crisp made a hnancial statement and said that $60 were required to wipe off the indebtedness. He then asked that the collection be taken up, and called for sub-scriptions. Soon the whole amount was raised, and all felt very grateful and happy.

Taised, and all felt very gratiful and happy. The people of Dorn Ridge appreciated the interest and liberality of those who came from other places, and these spoke very highly of the hospitality of the peo-le on the Ridge. Rev. Mr. Murray preached in the afternoon, and Rev. Mr. London in the evening. All present pro-nounced the "opening" a decided success.
