

creased activity in this good work, additional committees might yet be organized, one for the visiting of the sick, one for visiting hospitals and jails, one for boarding ships in harbour and distributing tracts and religious papers.

With the earnest prayer that the present year may witness increased success in the operations of the Association your Committee beg to submit the foregoing report,