

TORTURED BY TERRIBLE ECZEMA

Suffered Three Years Until She Tried "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

DAME PETER LAMARRE

Pointe St. Pierre, P. Q.
"I think it my duty to tell you how much your medicine has done for me. I suffered for three years with terrible Eczema. I consulted several doctors and they did not do me any good. Then, I used one box of 'Sootha-Salva' and two boxes of 'Fruit-a-tives' and my hands are now clear. The pain is gone and there has been no return. I think it is a marvelous cure because no other medicine did me any good and I tried all the remedies I ever heard of, without benefit until I used 'Sootha-Salva' and 'Fruit-a-tives'." "Fruit-a-tives" cooled the blood and removed the cause of the disease, and 'Sootha-Salva' completed the cure."

Dame PETER LAMARRE (file), 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

With Fingers!

Corns Lift Off

Don't hurt a bit to lift any corn or callus right off. Try it!

HAPPY THOUGHT.

Leading Man (of the stranded troupe)—Nothing to do but wait back to dear old Broadway, methinks.

Leading Woman—But think of the disgrace!

Ingenue—And the rustic gibery! Comedian—Peace be with you all! Why, we'll send the advance man ahead to scatter the interesting tidings that you ladies are hiking suffragettes and we men the accompanying newspaper correspondents.—Buffalo Express.

Light Reading.

Mrs. Hi-Brow—I understand your husband is a well-read man, Mrs. O'Houlihan.

Mrs. O'Houlihan—Bedad, he is that, mum. He reads the living day, Shure and he do be wan of them constant readers.

Mrs. Hi-Brow—I'm glad to hear that. What does he read?

Mrs. O'Houlihan—Gas meters, mum.

Envy.

"If I had my life to live over," remarked Mr. Dustin Stax, "I'd be a moving picture star."

"But you have amassed wealth."

"Yes. But a moving picture star can make a million dollars a minute without having the finger of scorn pointed at him as a profiteer."

Why His Head Is Banged.

Wife: Henry, if some bold, bad man were to kidnap me would you offer a reward?

Certainly, I always reward those who do me a favor.

Papa and Clara.

Clara wears fine silken hose. Purchased with her papa's socks; But the old man always goes around in 10-cent socks.

Pa Appreciates a Good Thing.

Kind Father—My dear, if you want a good husband, marry Mr. Goodheart. He really and truly loves you.

Daughter—Are you sure of that, pa?

Kind Father—Yes, indeed. I've been borrowing money of him for six months and still he keeps coming.

Such Is Fame.

"Did you see the house where the great poet lived?"

"Uh, huh."

"And the landlord, did he have no reminiscences of the great poet?"

"None beyond the fact that the great poet moved away owing him rent."

A Fateful Series.

"I started out to have a little run over in my new motor."

"Well, what happened?"

"I ran up against the speed law, a motor cop ran me down and then ran me in."

Does So.

"This actress says women should be pretty and men should be stalwart, even if artificial means be used."

"Well?"

"Looks like a strong boost for lip rouge and padded shoulders."

Apprehensive.

She—I tell you, the time is coming when men will no more dictate to women.

He—Good heavens! Are the stenographers going to strike?

Solved.

Wife—How do the unemployed live, John?

Husband—How? Why, most of them on incomes from their fathers' or grandfathers' estate—a few on allowances from rich wives.

Neighbors Are, Too.

"I am saddest when I sing."

"And her voice rings far and high."

"I am saddest when I sing."

"So are we!" the neighbors cry.

May Run for Vice President.

Bacon—I understand he is lost to the world.

Egbert—Yes; he married a prominent suffrage leader and is always mentioned as her husband.

Question of Personal Privilege.

"Do you think profane language should be permitted on the stage?"

"Certainly," answered the gruff old stage manager; "but only during rehearsals."

Preparedness.

"Pa, when a man doubts his fists has he four hands?"

"Why, no, my son; though the action is generally a forehand one."

The Trouble.

"Is this son of yours you are having trouble with, adolescent?"

"My, no, sir! He's just a little queer in the head."
