diem allowance at the Grand Council Session.

President Doyle is making arrangements with the authorities of the railroad lines, by which the C. M. B. A. delegates to the Convention will be charged only a fare and a third for the round trip. At our last Convention Mr. Doyle made similar arrangements. We hope he may succeed this time also, as it would be a great saving to the Grand Council.

ments. We hope he may succeed this time also, as it would be a great saving to the Grand Council.

On 25th inst. Deputy J. O'Connor organized Branch No. 32 Wingham, Ont This Branch starts with 22 members, all first-class men. It will eventually be one of the finest Branches in this section. To Rev. G. R. Northgraves is due the credit of having this fine Branch added to our list. The Rev. Father has taken a deep interest in C.M.B.A. matters, and with him for President the new Branch must certainly prosper. We are pleased to see that the Branch was unanimous in selecting the Grand Council Convention. The list of officers will appear in next weeks' issue.

C. M. B. A. Column, CATHOLIC RECORD:

DEAR BROTHERS and READERS:—I have DEAR BROTHERS and READERS:—I have been an attentive reader of the various articles recently published in relation to the questions that will come up at the Grand Council meeting in Brantford.

I have been too busy to be able to write myself, but the column has been well supplied with very useful and interesting suggestions.

I wish now, however, to state briefly that I know that if a half rate can be established that it will tend to increase our numbers, and that, together with separate beneficiary, will tend to increase not only the membership in the branches already established, but will also tend to largely increase the number of branches.

I am in favor of a reserve fund if it can be legally established, but not in the way proposed by the committee on laws of the State of New York.

I shall favor one assessment monthly so long as the deaths do not exceed six per 1000 members, the surplus, if any, to form the reserve fund. Extra assessments to be made as required under proper rules and regulations.

The reserve fund not to be drawn upon until after a certain date in the future. And then only for one half of the number of deaths occurring above a certain num-

Whole
I also favor a measure to provide for paying one half the benefit to any member who may become totally disabled, and who is in indigent circumstances, and to be admitted under 30 years of age on their arriving at 60, those admitted between 30 and 40 years on their arriving at 65, and those admitted between 40 and 50, at 70

I also favor a relief fund to keep worthy members in good standing who may meet with misfortune or become in distressed circumstances, such advances to be a lien upon the benefit, and repaid during life if possible.

people in Canada should be enacted.

Want of time and space prevents my being more explicit at this time.

Sincerely yours,

H. W. Deare,

Delegate Branch No. 3.

Kingston, April 19th, 1884.

Deyre Sir and Bro: In my last leter I said something on the duties of C. M. B.

A. members, and to-day I may say that the greatness and excellence of the C. M. B. A. is carcely discernible. Had the C. M. B. A. been in existence 30 years ago there would be less poverty in the world. It is the absence of such societies as the C. M. B. A. that has caused such poverty to exist among the Catholic people, for as a rule the great majority of our Catholic people are poor, and dying they can leave no heirloom to their family. Thus it is when a Catholic father dies destitute he leaves his wife and family behind him not alone in sorrow but even in desolation.

And if he had a small trifle of money left it is consumed in the burial expenses, for we must remember that the house of mourning in addition to being sorrowful, is likewise expensive. Thus the C. M. B. A. expels all this misery, for a membership in the C. M. B. A., means, $2,000 to the wife and family. And who is that christian father who is so hardharted so cruel and so forgetful of his family as to say: I will not leave them anything when I die? Christian fathers as a rule when lying on the bed of sickness, and the grim message hovering around them about to present the summons that calls them from time to eternity, think that next to rites of our Holy mother the church nothing can or could be more consoling to them than to know that they have made a certain provision for the soon to be widow and orphans. And what is that provision? It is membership in the C. M. B. A. which means that after dust has been gently consigned to dust, and the tears of tender sympathy dried, $2,000 is given the widow and her orphan children to solace and comfort them in their hour of affliction. Oh that all our Catholic parents could but see the benefits of membership in the C. M. B. A. How quickly all our Catholic parents could but see the benefits of membership in the C. M. B. A. How quickly they would enroll under its banner? The rich and poor alike, all should come under that beautiful banner. The rich, if they do not desire the beneficiary, merely enroll under it to give it an impetus and to encourage their poorer brethren, and the poor in order that after their death their family shall not be in distress. Apart from this blessing there are other benefits accruing from membership in the C. M. B. A. There is that fraternal feeling and that unity. We are made brothers by being associated together in the same interpolation. We hear many opinions advanced on different subjects, and if we are unable or unwilling to take part in the debate we can sit, listen, and learn. Many indeed find it beneficial to be enrolled under the banner of the C. M. B. A. Mariners particularly, who call at such places as Sarnia, Kingston, St. Catherines, Toronto, Prescott, Throld, Cayuga, Montreal, Ottawa, and Peterboro, where flourishing branches exist, knowthat in entering these places they enter nounfriendly port. Because if they wear the C. M. B. A.

treal, Ottawa, and Peterboro, where flourishing branches exist, knowthat in entering these places they enternounfriendly port. Because if they wear the C.M.B.A. pin a member of these places at once recognises them and the hand of fellowship is immediately extended.

It is needless for me to dwell too long upon this subject; only the "initiated" can fully realize the benefits of memberalship in the C. M. B. A. And on the night of one's initiation, when that beautiful ceremony is gone through with, and the new member pledges himself in the presence of the witnesses to faithfully carry out that obligation, what emotion fills the hearts of the listeners. And then during the proceeding of the meeting when the chairman asks: "Does any one know of a sick brother, or brother's family in distress?" and again, "Notices of unemployed brethren;" How we feel then that the Cathalia records. of unemployed brethren;" How we feel then that the Catholic people have a something by which they can aid and solace their living members, and provide for the widows and the orphans of dead members. And that something is had for the widows and the orphans of dead members. And that something is had through the ministry of the C.M. B. A.

Let us hope then, that every Catholic in Kingston from the ages of 21 to 50 (especially those who have wives and families) will study up the benefits accruing from membership in the C. M. B. A., and at once avail themselves of the opportunities thus afforded of becoming members therein. For the information of non-members I may state that our meetings are held on the first and third Wednesday of each month—and for the benefit of those who would like to join, I may say that if they apply to any of the undermentioned officers, they will give them all the information necessary. The officers are: President, M. will give them all the information necessary. The officers are: President, M. Brennen, Vice Presidents, J. J. Behan, and M. Flynn; Rec. Sec. J. J. Buggee; Asst.Rec. Sec., R. McAuley; Fin.Sec., O. J. Cleary; Treasurer, Wm. Shanahan; Chancellor, Wm. Leahey; Marshall, L. Gordier; Guard, James Nolan. Yours fraternally, M. J. Maloney.
