

MILLER, Andrew, journalist, was b. in Hamilton; Ont., 1857. Ed. at the local schs., and at Harvard Coll. (B.A., 1880), he thereafter devoted himself to journalism. His first work was on the Graphic (N.Y.), where he remained for 2 yrs. Subsequently, he was employed on the Times, after which he, with J. A. Mitchell, founded Life, regarded as one of the best illustrated humorous papers in the world. Of this journal he is now the sole proprietor. He is also an enthusiastic horseman, and was elected Presdt. of the N. Y. Driving club, 1895.—19 West 31st St., New York; Union Club; Racquet Club; Calumet Club, do.

MILLER, Charles Alexander Duff, Agent-Genl. for New Brunswick in London, is the eld. s. of the late John Miller, formerly of Pictou, Ont., the inventor and founder of the tanning extract business. B. at Kingston, Ont., Feb. 27, 1854, he was ed. at the High Sch., Montreal, and has been for 25 yrs. connected with the extract trade, whose chief seat of manufacture is at Millerton, Miramichi River, N.B. He was apptd. to his present official position in Eng. as Agent-Genl. of N. B., Feb., 1896.—17 Leather Market, Bermondsey, London, S.E., Eng.

MILLER, George A., D.V.S., was b. at Granby, P.Q., of Irish parentage, Aug. 28, 1860. Ed. at the Dist. and High schs., he graduated at McGill Univ., D.V.S., 1891, since when he has taken a post-graduate course at the Royal Vet. Coll., Eng. He was apptd. Insp. of the Bureau of Animal Industry, Burlington, Vt., Nov., 1892. In addition, Dr. M. is Vet. Surg. to the U.S. Cavalry; at Fort Ethan Allen, Vet. Surg. to the Vt. Breeders' Assn., and Insp. for the Security Live Stock Ins. Co., Boston, Mass. He is a mem. of the Ch. of Eng., and a Rep. in politics.—Burlington, Vt., U.S.A.; Ethan Allen Club.

MILLER, Rev. Herbert Gordon (Ch. of Eng.), was b. in Woodchurch, Yorkshire, Eng., 1855. Ed. at the Royal Grammar Sch., Lancaster, and at Blundell's Sch., Tiverton, Devon, he passed to Sidney Sussex Coll., Cambridge, of which he was a math. sch., taking his degree, 1876. Accepting a position in Dover Coll., he was ordained deacon, 1879, and priest the following year, by the Bp. of Gloucester and Bristol. He was apptd. to Cheltenham Parish Ch., and subsequently to chs. in Manchester, Birmingham, Chester, Northampton, Clifton and Eastbourne, at which latter he was the successor of the late Bp. Poole. Apptd. Principal of Huron Coll., London, Ont., 1890, he became Rector of the Ch. of St. Thomas, Hamilton, Sept., 1896. In the same year he was elected Chaplain of St. George's Soc., Hamilton. Mr. M. m. 1881, Adelaide, dau. of Rev. John Meara.—St. Thomas's Rectory, Hamilton, Ont.

MILLER, Rev. John Ormsby (Ch. of Eng.), educationist, is the s. of the Rev. H. T. Miller, formerly of Liverpool, Eng., and was b. there, 1861. Ed. at Waterloo Sch., Liverpool, at the Univ. of Toronto (B.A., 1888; M.A., 1890), and at Wycliffe Coll., same city, he was ordained to the Ang. ministry, 1888. He is hon. Secy. in Can. for the Nat. Phys. Recreation Soc. of Eng. He was prize essayist in Toronto Univ., and, in 1895, published an elementary text-book for schs., "Short Studies in Ethics," which has been highly commended by, educationists and others. He was apptd. Principal of Bp. Ridley Coll., St. Catharines, Ont., at the inception of that institution, and continues in that office.—Bishop Ridley College, St. Catharines, Ont.

MILLER, Hon. William, Q.C., statesman, is descended, on the paternal side, from a family that emigrated to Maine, U.S., from Belfast, Irel., 1720. In 1760 a branch of this family removed from Maine to Colchester, N.S., where they were among the original grantees of the Tp. of Truro; subsequently Jas. Miller, his grandfather, settled in Antigonish, where he carried on business as a farmer, miller and land surveyor. S. of Chas.