duct of Whales be excepted out of the Rule of the abovementioned Tariff, and likewiſe other Heads of Matters belonging to this Treaty remain, which having been propoſed on the part of Great Britain, have not yet been mutually adjuſted, a Specification of all which is contained in a ſeparate Inſtrument Subſcribed by the Ambaſſadors Extraordinary and Plenipotentaries on both ſides; It is hereby Provided and agreed, that within two Months from the Exchange of the Ratifications of this Treaty, Commiſſaries on both ſides ſhall meet at London, to conſider of, and remove the difficulties concerning the Merchandizes to be excepted out of the Tariff of the Year 1664. and concerning the other heads, which, as is aboveſaid, are not yet wholly adjuſted. And at the ſame time the ſaid Commiſſaries ſhall likewiſe endeavour, (which ſeems to be very much for the Intereſt of both Nations) to have the methods of Commerce on one part, and of the other, more thoroughly examined, and to find out and eſtabliſh juſt and beneficial means on both ſides for removing the difficulties in this matter, and for regulating the Duties mutually. But it is always underſtood and provided, that all and ſingular the Articles of this Treaty, do in the mean while remain in their full force, and eſpecially that nothing be deemed,
