i4. And be it further enacted, that from and after the first day of January, all commissions which have issued under the authority of the late government of Cape Breton, shall cease to have any effect, and be utterly null and void, to all interits and purposes whatsoever.

And whereas, in and by this act it is enacted, that the supreme court shall hold its sittings at Arichat on the first Tuesday of September, on which day it has hitherto sat at Dorthester, in the county of Sydney;

- 15. Be it therefore enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that the supreme court shall in future commence its sittings at Dorchester, in the county of Sydney, on the second Tuesday of September in each year, instead of the said first Tuesday of September; and at Picton, in the district of Picton, on the third Tuesday in September in each year, instead of the second Tuesday; and at Truro, in the district of Colchester, on the fourth Tuesday of September in each year, instead of the third Tuesday of the said month of September: and that all writs, process, recognizances, and complaints, which are or shall be made returnable to the said court at its next sittings in the said county of Sydney, and in the districts of Picton and Colchester, shall be returned on the days herein appointed for such respective sittings of the said courts; and all parties and persons, who are bound or summoned, or who ought to appear at the said courts, or any of them, at the next sittings thereof, in any of the said counties or districts, shall be held and obliged to appear at such court at the days and times on which such sittings respectively are hereby directed to be held.
- 16. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that this act may be altered or amended during the present session of assembly.
