No Confidence In Vice-Pres.

At the February 2nd meeting of the SRC a motion of non-confidence in vice president, David Landry, was placed before the meeting by Peter Heelis, finance chairman, and carried 9-1-3.

Mr. Landry was requested at a previous meeting of the Council to substantiate or retract the charges of "corruption and waste" in the administration of the SRC in an interview with the Bruns, January 23. Landry read the letter published in the January 30 issue of the Bruns as his statement of substantiation. This was followed by a statement read by Don Olmstead, Arts, and prepared by Mr. Charters, SRC business administrator. Mr. Charters statement, on page 4 of this issue, met the accusations made by Mr. Landry at the previous meeting.

In order to ascertain whether or not Mr. Charter's letter adequately refuted Mr. Landry's accusations, Art rep. Chris MacKimmie, according to the SRC minutes, asked Mr. Landry "if his entire accusation of waste had been based on the summer employment question." Mr. Landry replied that his statements and arguments could stand and he would retract nothing."

The Brunswickan asked Mr. Landry why he did not consider Mr. Charter's letter sufficient evidence to rebut his allegations. Landry replied that the only way waste and corruption can be avoided is through total change.

The Brunswickan asked Mr. Landry why he did not prepare and itemized report defending his charges. He replied that he didn't need such information to answer the charges.

The Brunswickan asked if he was intending to resign. "That's just what those hypocritical bitches want. On that account I shouldn't but I will. I can't work with that group anymore", said Landry. Following the motion of non-confidence Lee Long, Arts, moved that: "the letter from Mr. Charters be published in the Brunswickan, since Mr. Landry's remarks in Council and in the Brunswickan have had adverse effects on the Council's public image in the eyes of the student body." It carried 3-1-0.

Landry was to be the only continuing member of the SRC executive after next week's elections.

Two Run For President

The SRC elections this year are conspicuous by the lack of candidates. The two big positions, president and comptroller, have held slight attraction for potential contenders.

Steven MacFarlane, arts 2, was at close of nominations the only candidate for president with Larry Binz, phys. ed. 4, and Jim Muir, bus. 3, were the only offerings for the office of comptroller.

The SRC has reopened nominations and Emerson Wilby, law 1 offered to contest MacFarlane for the presidency. Wilby is unsatisfied with the present structure and would like to see a setup like the Yearbook employs: "organize them to break even and when they have a deficit give them a grant." He feels it would prove less costly for the operation of the "SRC bureaucracy". He would down play the legislative role of the SRC and work towards a co-ordinating body for campus groups.

On the lighter side Wilby wants a campus pub in the old student center.

Steve MacFarlane feels the SRC has no intrinsic value other than as a developmental and supportive organization providing necessary funds, administrative services, and organizational support for student generated activities.

He sees development of groups outside the SRC as the main objective of the council. "If that fails the SRC fails in its purpose and should try a new approach."

Senate Meeting Now Open

On Tuesday, February 10, the first open meeting of the University Senate, will be held. At the last meeting of the Senate, a motion was unanimously carried making all future meetings open to interested members of the University community. Similar motions had come before the Senate in the past, but had been defeated. Debby Lyons, student senator, felt that the influence of the student senators had been instrumental in the passing of the motion.

When questioned about other topics concerning the Senate, Miss Lyons seemed very optimistic with the role the student senators were assuming. She indicated that if nothing else, the other senators are aware of their presence. At a recent meeting Gordon Church and Miss Lyons moved that there be a March break in future years. This motion was well received, and the direct effects will be felt next year.

Miss Lyons indicated that at a Senate meeting, scheduled for the near future, it is likely that a motion will be presented to give the students a holiday on Friday, March 6. This is the day following Founder's Day, which will likely be a half-day. This will give the students a "short March break".

The open meeting is to be held in Tilly Hall, Room 303, at 7:30 on Tuesday.

STU Residence Comm. Accepted

At a meeting between the STU, SRC and Monseigneur Duffie Wednesday, February 4, a housing committee consisting of six members - two student representatives, two administration representatives, and two faculty representatives, were accepted. Monseigneur Duffie will accept this committee's recommendation concerning an open rooms policy. The original idea of a housing committee had been presented in December by the executive of the BOG, but rejected by the students in January.

At a general meeting, January 19, the student voted to boycott classes for one day if Monseigneur Duffie did not express his views on the policy by February 1. Due to the lack of a quorum at the meeting, the SRC decided to ratify the motion the next week and vote on it themselves - this was never done.

'neglected' to bring up the original motion, but amended it anyway, changing Monseigneur Duffie's deadline to the fifth. Duffie, at a meeting with the SRC February 4, declared having no official knowledge of the situation, and when told, affirmed that motion illegal and thus non-existent. The council then decided to accept the housing committee.

This week the Brunswickan is coming to you today rather than last Friday because of the bad storm.

The size of the paper has been cut down to four pages so that most of the important news can be reposted. Readers will find that much of the copy that is included in this edition is dated so as to appear last Friday. This was not changed because of the time factor.

The next regular issue of the Bruns will be next Friday and we will have an up to date report of the Carnival happenings, plus a full report of last week-end sports happenings.

Watch for the winner of the SRC elections to be hounded in Friday's paper also.

Strax Support

The SRC, Sunday night, passed a motion to have the Administrative Board investigate "the request for financial assistance for Dr. Strax from the Committee Against Politically Motivated Deportation" and "further recommend action to council."

Professor Strax, formerly of the UNB Physics department, has been summoned to appear before an immigration committee as a result of his prosecution on the charge of "assaulting" a police officer. To conduct his defence Dr. Strax has obtained the services of a Toronto lawyer but lacks the funds to bring him to Fredericton.

At the Sunday meeting of the SRC, the Committee Against Politically Motivated

Deportation presented a brief asking the SRC to supply sufficient funds to provide Strax's lawyer with air fare from Toronto plus accommodation. The cost would probably not exceed $200.

The brief was submitted by Dave Landry, vice president of the SRC, on behalf of the committee.

Anyone with suggestions for honorary degree recipients as well as suggestions for speaker at the 1970 spring Encaenia, please forward to P.O. Box 137, L.D.H., before February 11.
