

UNREEL REVIEWS

By CHRIST STALKER

This week I am discussing a problem that deeply touches me...child pornography. Yes, fellow students, I am publicly criticizing the Scott Sperrburg film "The Extra-Testicle."

In this film, the central character E.T. and his earthling friend Elliot develop a rather close relationship when E.T. gets left on earth by his out of this world friends. This little duo actually exchange vows before E.T. leaves to return to space.

This example of soft porn is most revolting when one considers the young children involved. There are connotations of E.T. being a transvestite as we are subjected to watching Elliot's baby sister dress him in her clothes. The final line should not be "E.T. come home," but merely "E.T. come."

*****

An Officer and an Facist

This blazing war story which spans 14 decades discovers poor Johnathan's (played by Richard Queer) underlying homosexuality. His officer friend, Phil. X. Lopi, recalls at the end of the movie "I cam from Nigeria, and Johnny welcomed me." Phil, played by Sammy Davis Jr., is shot to death in the last few tense moments of this box office hit. A sequel is pending.

*****

Gumbi

Gumbi, this year's comedy hit retells the story of India's greatest stand-up comedian; a man who played to a captive audience. His spiritual material based on the timeless Paki philosophy asked the eternal question what is the definition of a comb, and answer: 101 pakis carrying a canoe.

Gentle Ben Queensly played the Knooby-Kneed shallow, bold spiritual leader. His supporting cast was lead by Sugar Bergen who portrays the recklessly responsible journalist who trips to India to record the life of Gumbi for her soon to be let lose havel "The Best of Gumbi: A Paki Anthem."

This spiritually uplifting movie must be seen by all aspiring comedians.

NB/ Had to have my review in at deadline but I'm going next Tuesday.

*****

YEARBOOK/SP

UNB's yearbook "Up the Sp" has been on sale for a month now and you bimbo's aren't buying them. So, for $.99 you can get the 1982-83 "Up the SP" yearbook plus a free SP button and a 6 month subscription to the SP poetry magazine "Hitler Says it in Zuatrains." On Sale now.

Take my yearbook, please.

TODAY'S CROSSWORD PUZZLE

- ACROSS
- 1 Cave
  - 5 Flip
  - 9 — Merman
  - 14 Nine: Suffix
  - 15 Resound
  - 16 Coastline
  - 17 Asian holi-days
  - 18 Ethnic areas
  - 20 Plaintiff
  - 21 Informed: Slang
  - 22 Recycles
  - 23 Rein
  - 25 Vestments
  - 27 Hart
  - 29 Monk
  - 30 Thrust
  - 34 Astern
  - 36 Squander
  - 38 Dixie city
  - 39 Dealt in stocks: 3 words
  - 42 Filled
  - 43 Fortification
  - 44 Compass pt.
  - 45 Ogles
  - 46 Offer
  - 47 Surpasses
  - 49 Drugs
  - 51 Phase
- DOWN
- 1 "— — pray"
  - 2 "— — of robins..."
  - 3 Part of I.C.C.
  - 4 Elect again
  - 5 Georgia —
  - 6 Clay
  - 7 Camel: 4 words
  - 8 Progeny
  - 9 Colorado park
  - 10 You of old
  - 11 "— tricks?"
  - 12 Coastal bird
  - 13 Minor

EDITOR'S NOTE: The first reader to successfully complete this puzzle will be rewarded $100. upon presenting it to the Bumswickan office. This contest expires April 30.

musical notes

CSL Campus Servietties Ltd. and the Bumswickan present

Attack of the Killer Tomatoes

-a poignant love story of a young man and the tomato he can never possess

Starring

Red Vegetable

April 1 $2.00

Silley 102 7 & 9 pm

