The Right Honourable Arthur Meighen, K.C.,
The Senate,
OTTAWA, Canada.

Dear Mr. Meighen:

I have been wondering what reaction you received from Mr. Rhodes in regard to the Bank of Canada. I note they are opening their branch here on March 1st. Someone must have checked over their lease for them. Incidentally I do not know whether you are familiar with the location selected, but it is one of the last I would have expected to be selected. I have been wondering how a good Liberal like General Odium managed to work it.

We listened to your speech in Montreal the other evening on Shakespeare. It was even better than your address here, and frankly I did not think that was possible. I know that you did not write the speech out but it must have been recorded over the radio and I am wondering whether it is possible to secure a copy of it. It will be a pity if that speech is not printed as it is of great educational value. My daughter Margaret was very much taken with it and I am sure it would be most useful to her in the future.

With kindest regards, I am

Yours sincerely,

P.
