

A NEW MILITARY NOVEL
The Coming Waterloo

By CAPTAIN W. E. CAIRNES

Author of "Lord Roberts as a Soldier in Peace and War."

Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s. 4th Edition.

Gives an exposition of the use of modern arms and appliances in warfare. The author describes an imaginary campaign against a Continental Power, and draws largely for his matter upon our recent experiences, teaching as they do lessons invaluable as to the altered conditions brought about by the introduction of modern arms of long range, the need for great mobility, and the many scientific improvements in the practice of war now accessible to soldiers. A sketch map of the scene of operations is included in the volume.

"His book is undoubtedly interesting and indeed absorbing. He has the knack of putting his ideas graphically and explicitly before us. . . . It is wholesome doctrine."—W. L. COURTNEY in the Daily Telegraph.

A very engrossing picture of the next great war . . . deserves attentive perusal."—Spectator.

' Apart from the purely military point of view, the volume has all the attraction of a capital story.'—Scotsman.

"As was to be expected from an expert of Captain Cairnes' standing, it is most instructive and enlightening."
—Sketch.

"A highly detailed and interesting account of an imaginary war. —Athenæum.
