

INDEX.

WITNESS—continued.

- evidence of, by commission or letters of request, 666—676.
- statements by, at former trial, 95—100, 324—326.
- may refresh memory by document otherwise inadmissible, 169, 170.
- kept away by collusion, 97, 324, 330.
- how to test the veracity of, 497—513.
 - six sanctions of truth, 497, 498, 525.
 - partisan, 500, 501, 526.
 - expert, 41—53, 501, 502.
 - non-expert, 54, 55, 502.
 - perception of, 503.
 - judgment of, 503, 504.
 - memory of, 504.
 - power of expression of, 504, 505.
 - independent, 510.
 - by his demeanour in the box, 505, 506—508.
 - evidence, 506, 508.
 - surrounding circumstances, 506, 509—513.
 - corroboration of, 512—523.
- examination of, in chief, 525—530.
 - questions must be relevant, 525, 687.
 - to facts, 526.
 - leading questions not allowed, 527.
 - except by leave, 528.
 - discrediting own witness, 510, 511, 529, 530.
 - refreshing memory, 530.
- cross-examination of, 531—539.
 - leading question may be asked, 532.
 - questions to credit, 33, 34, 511, 533, 538.
 - evidence of bad character, 500.
 - as to previous conviction, 34, 535, 536.
 - particular acts of falsehood or dishonesty, 537.
 - acceptance of bribe, 538.
 - character cannot be impeached by party calling him, 500, 510, 511, 529, 530.
 - unless hostile, 529, 530.
 - as to former statements, 536, 537.
 - transactions with third persons, 533, 534.
 - of an attesting witness, 535.
 - witness called by judge, 535.
 - not examined in chief, 534.
 - to character, 595.
- re-examination, 539—541.
 - only as to matters arising out of cross-examination, 539, 540.
 - leading questions not allowed, 539.
 - as to character after attack in cross-examination, 538.
 - recalled to prove inconsistent statement by subsequent witness, 537.

WRITING,

- grants and transfers, which must be in, 173—175.
- contract, which must be in, 175—180.

WRITTEN AGREEMENT,

- evidence to vary, when admissible, 32, 182—189, 194, 570.

Y.

YOUNG PERSON,

- deposition of, under the Children Act, 1908...334, 335.