

William Briggs'

The Silver Poppy

By ARTHUR STRINGER

Author of "Hephaestus and Other Poems."

"The surprise of the season."—Chicago Record-Herald.

"An exceptional work of fiction, a story to be dwelt upon and read twice, perhaps, before its full significance dawns."—Washington Star.

"Vitaly interesting, powerful from first to last."—Richmond Times-Despatch.

"The 'Silver Poppy' marks the greatest eminence of the modern psychological novel."—New York American.

"The first absolutely successful effort of any novelist to depict romance and the literary struggle in New York."—Louisville Courier.

"Mr. Stringer is a writer of whom Canada is justly proud."—Atlantic Journal.

Cloth, $1.25. Paper, 75c.

The Sacrifice of the Shannon

By W. ALBERT HICKMAN

A NOVEL having to do with the ice-crushers of Northumberland Strait. Mingled with impressions of the wonderful silence and the resistless power of the ice of the north are descriptions of the stirring deeds of the men and women of this region of pure air.

"The Sacrifice of the Shannon," is a novel of more than usual importance."—Mail and Empire.

"The Sacrifice of the Shannon," is sure to prove a notable success."—Montreal Star.

"The finest, loveliest, most stirring story that the reviewer has read this year."—Nashville American.

Illustrated with a remarkable series of pictures from actual photographs of the ice-crushers in their winter's work.

Cloth, $1.25. Paper, 75c. Bound leather, boxed, $4.00

In Music's Thrall

By LILLA NEASE

A NEW and fascinating story of Canadian life, unfolding a romance of great interest and charm.

Cloth, 75 cents