

ORDERS OF THE COURT OF APPEAL.

20th FEBRUARY, 1876.

XLIII. Appeals from County Courts shall be heard at the Sittings of the Court of Appeal next after the giving of the decision appealed from, unless otherwise ordered by the Court of Appeal or a Judge thereof.

XLIV. The appellant shall set down the appeal for hearing, by delivering to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal, at least fourteen days before the Sittings at which the matter is to be heard, four Appeal Books for the use of the Judges of the Court of Appeal, such Appeal Books shall, if written, be written on brief paper, and on only one side of the paper; and, if printed, shall be printed on good paper, on one side of the paper only, and in demiquarto form, with small pica type leaded; and each book shall contain a copy of the pleadings, evidence, and other matters which have been certified by the Judge of the Court appealed from, together with the appellant's reasons of appeal. The copy certified by the Judge in pursuance of the statute may be accepted as one of the four Appeal Books, if it complies with the above mentioned requisites.

XLV. The appellant shall, at least eight days before the Sittings at which his appeal is to be heard, serve the respondent with notice of the setting down of the appeal, and with a copy of his reasons of appeal.

XLVI. Unless the foregoing rules are complied with the appeal shall not be heard, unless the Court shall, on application made upon two days notice to the respondent, otherwise order.

XLVII. The costs to be taxed and allowed upon appeals from County Courts shall be on the same scale as heretofore allowed upon appeals to the Courts of Queen's Bench and Common Pleas.
