BINDER TWINE.—The attention of farmers is directed to the advertisement in this issue of the Plymouth Binder Twine Agency, Toronto, Ont. It will be well to enquire into the merits of this twine, and call on their agents to see it for yourself and judge of its merits. Look up the advertisement, and enquire as to the quality of Plymouth binder twine.

In selecting a sire for breeding purposes the animal should be looked at all at once, and not merely point by point, so as to balance the whole animal: defect against strength and strength against weakness in the different parts. There is a kind of intuition developed by experience and observation which aids in the right conclusions, but which cannot be well described. It is no doubt true that a sire cannot be properly selected unless a knowledge already exists of the females with which he will be mated; and it is quite possible that two men standing at the ring-side may purchase two animals quite different in special characteristics, and yet both be abundantly satisfied.—Dryden.

The good store, being comparatively thin in flesh and temporarily lacking the have any regard for either the appearance of the finished animal, can never appeal to the eye as he will after a few months' feeding, but he should, nevertheless, present a blocky frame, stoutness of build, accompanied by short, straight legs, wide back and loin, prominent brisket, full neckvein, wide chest, and well-rounded barrel, together with a good, soft, mellow-handling skin and fine, silky hair, giving what is termed the thick, mossy coat, without coarseness, and with it all a good, strong, vigorous head, clear, full eye, and quiet temperament. Experience will teach the eye to recognize these qualities at a glance, a thing which must be learned, for in buying a large bunch of stores, it will be found impossible to study each one very minutely. The man who, by close observation, learns to recognize these qualities and to avoid culls, will very greatly increase his profits, and if in addition he selects a lot that in size, quality and general appearance are very uniform, his stalls will present such an appearance that he will get the highest market prices for his finished product.—Cumming.

Few pure-bred herds and flocks in Canada are more widely or more favorably known than those of the old breeding establishments of Jas. Douglas, of Caledonia, Ont. The herd of Shorthorns numbered about 65 head at the time of a recent visit, headed by that splendid imported roan bull, Rosicrucian of Dalmeny = 45220— (82117), whose stock is coming thick and smooth and of the approved type. He was bred by Lord Rosebery, and sired by Villager (82177). This herd of females is made up of representatives of some of the leading families of the day, such as Nonpareils, Crimson Flowers, Strathallans, Miss Ramsdens, etc. Most of the young stock of breeding age are by the noted sire of good stock, Christopher (imp.), by Emancipator. Among the 21 heifers seen roaming leisurely in luxuriant alfalfa pasture, some choice things were found, such as, with reasonable fitting, would adorn any show-ring. Among these is an especially smooth, straight roan two-year-old, by Christopher, also a red yearling, by Rosicrucian of Dalmeny (imp.). Among the last crop of calves are several bulls about 10 months old, by imported sires, some from imported dams, and several good enough to head first-class herds.

While the Leicester flock is not large in numbers, it is up to the best standard in quality. Among the number for sale are several yearling ewes that are being put into show shape, and anyone wanting to get a few for showing would consult their own interests by inquiring about those. Sheep and lambs from this flock have won highest honors in the largest shows in America, and we think some likely winners could be selected from among the lambs as well as from the older ones in the flock. The two-shear ram that has sired such good stock for Mr. Douglas is now for sale owing to the fact that his progeny is of breeding age.
