THE BEST WAY TO KEEP THE HANDS CLEAN.

Women have to do dirty work on the farm as well as the men. Cleaning lamps, blacking stoves, paring potatoes, scrubbing floors and milking, are all hard on the hands.

The thousands who are using SNAP find it exactly what women need, and would not be without a can.

It is a wonderful hand cleaner, instantly removes dirt, stains and odor without much rubbing, and keeps the hands smooth and free of chaps. It is healing and antiseptic. 15c. a can. 114 while he worked, and his gaiety never deserted him.

At his father's death, Corot found himself possessed of a revenue of 40,000 francs, but this opulence did not change his rustic habits. He continued his simple and laborious life. Always up before dawn, he put on the peasant's clothes that he wore all his life, ate his soup, lit his pipe, and, with his box in his hand, and his easel on his shoulder, started for his work, his sonorous voice ringing out joyously.—[G. Chardin, in Putnam's Monthly.]

The Average Man.

By Margaret E. Sangster.

When it comes to a question of trusting Yourself to the risks of the road, When the thing is the sharing of burdens, The lifting the heft of a load, In the hour of peril or trial, In the hour you meet as you can, You may safely depend on the wisdom And skill of the average man.

'Tis the average man and no other Who does his plain duty each day, The small thing his wage is for doing, On the commonplace bit of the way, 'Tis the average man, may God bless him! Who pilots us, still in the van, Over land, over sea, as we travel, Just the plain, hardy, average man.

So on through the days of existence, All mingling in shadow and shine, We may count on the every-day hero, Whom haply the gods may divine, But who wears the swart grime of his calling, And labors and earns as he can, And stands at the last with the noblest, The commonplace, average man.

Call to Your Mate, Bob-White.

By Caze Young Rice.

O call to your mate, bob-white, bob-white, And I will call to mine, Call to her by the meadow-gate, And I will call by the pine,

Tell her the sun is hid, bob-white, The windy wheat sways west, Whistle again, call clear and run, To lure her out of her nest,

For when to the copse she comes, shy bird, With Mary down the lane, I'll walk, in the dusk of the forest-tops, And to her lover again,

Ay, we will forget our hearts are old, And that our hair is gray, And kiss as we kissed at pale sunset, That summer's halcyon day.

That day, can it fade?—oh, bob-white, white, And saluting, calling soft, To her coming—a coming, faint and weighed, To stand with the old boy's dream.

"They're Simply Wonderful—Really!"

This is an extract from a letter written by Mrs. R. A. Colby, of Quebec, Que.

Mrs. Colby goes on to say:

"It was perfectly amazing to me to see the wonders that could be worked with Diamond Dyes."

"Why, I had no idea that faded and worn dresses could be made so beautiful—so almost new—by recoloring."

"And the delightful thing about Diamond Dyes is their simplicity. I think a twelve-year-old child might use them successfully."

Letters come to us constantly from women who have learned the wisdom of using Diamond Dyes instead of always buying new clothes, new portières and rugs, new trimmings, laces, etc., before the old ones have given half service.

Diamond Dyes

There are two classes of Diamond Dyes—one for Wool or Silk, the other for Cotton, Linen, or Mixed Goods. Diamond Dyes for Wool or Silk now come in blue envelopes. And, as heretofore, those for Cotton, Linen, or Mixed Goods are in white envelopes.

Here's the Truth About Dyes for Home Use

Our experience of over thirty years has proven that no one dye will successfully color every fabric.

There are two classes of fabrics: animal fibre fabrics and vegetable fibre fabrics. Wool and Silk are animal fibre fabrics. Cotton and Linen are vegetable fibre fabrics. "Union" or "mixed" goods are 65% to 80% Cotton—so must be treated as vegetable fibre fabrics.

Vegetable fibres require one class of dye, and animal fibres another and radically different class of dye. As proof—we call attention to the fact that manufacturers of woollen goods use one class of dye, while manufacturers of cotton goods use an entirely different class of dye.

Do Not Be Deceived

For these reasons, we manufacture one class of Diamond Dyes for coloring Cotton, Linen, or Mixed Goods, and another class of Diamond Dyes for coloring Wool or Silk, so that you may obtain the very best results on EVERY fabric.

REMEMBER: To get the best possible results in coloring Cotton, Linen, or Mixed Goods, use the Diamond Dyes manufactured especially for Cotton, Linen, or Mixed Goods.

AND REMEMBER: To get the best possible results in coloring Wool or Silk, use the Diamond Dyes manufactured especially for Wool or Silk.

Diamond Dyes are sold at the uniform price of 10c. per package.

Valuable Books and Samples Free—Send us your dealer's name and address—tell us whether or not he sells Diamond Dyes. We will then send you that famous book of helps, the Diamond Dye Annual, a copy of the Direction Book, and 36 samples of Dyed Cloth. Free.
